(ii) If the party receiving a notice fails to appoint a valuer within the fourteen (14) day period then the valuer appointed by the other party shall determine the new rent and such determination shall be binding on both parties.

(iii) The valuers appointed before commencing their determination shall appoint an umpire who need not be a registered valuer.

(iv) The valuers shall determine the new rent of the premises and if they fail to agree then the rent shall be determined by the umpire.

(v) Each party shall be given the opportunity to make written or verbal representations to the valuers or the umpire subject to such reasonable time and other limits as the valuers or the umpire may prescribe and they shall have regard to any such representations but not be bound thereby.

When the new rent has been determined the arbitrators or the valuers shall give written notice thereof to the parties. The notice shall provide as to how the costs of the determination shall be borne and such provision shall be binding on the parties.
