Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Corporation

Accident Insurance Act 1998

Recommendations From Consultation on Changes to the Motor Vehicle Account Premiums and Motor Vehicle Account Levy Regulations 1999

The Accident Insurance Act 1998, requires that the Motor Vehicle Account, which meets the cost of people injured in accidents involving motor vehicles* on public roads, be managed on a fully funded basis from 1 July 1999.

This means that enough money needs to be collected in 1999 to meet all the on-going costs of the injuries that occur in that year.

Funding for the Motor Vehicle Account is to be derived from:

- An annual premium on motor vehicle owners, to fund the cost of new claims from 1 July 1999;
- A motor spirits excise duty.

As required by section 409 of the Act, A.C.C. has completed consultation with premium payers, and has recommended changes to be made to the Motor Vehicle Account Premiums to the Minister for Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance.

In order to generate the increased revenue required, A.C.C. recommended that:

- The classification of motor vehicles for premium purposes should stay the same;
- The following premium and levy rates be payable by owners of motor vehicles for the licensing period commencing on 1 July 1999:

	Annual Rate of Levy	Annual Rate of Premium	Composite Annual Rate
Class 1	Nil	Nil	Nil

	Annual Rate of Levy	Annual Rate of Premium	Composite Annual Rate
Class 2	$51.25	$47.70	$98.85
Class 3	$17.95	$16.70	$34.65
Class 4	$53.80	$50.10	$103.90

- The motor spirits excise duty be increased by 3 cents to 5 cents per litre.

A copy of the recommendation may be obtained by contacting Trish Millward on telephone No. (04) 918 7304.

* Except in 2 specific circumstances defined as workplace injuries in the legislation.

go3694

Recommendations From Consultation on the Self-employed Work Premium Regulations 1999

Under the Accident Insurance Act 1998, workers compensation will not be provided by A.C.C.

However self-employed people, may, from 1 July 1999, choose to remain with A.C.C. or buy work and most of their non-work personal injury insurance cover from a private insurer.

A new self-employed work account will cover self-employed and private domestic workers who choose to continue to insure with A.C.C. for their work injuries.

The self-employed work account will be funded by premiums paid by self-employed and private domestic workers.

Premiums for the account will be assessed on a fully funded basis.

As required by section 409 of the Act, A.C.C. has completed consultation with premium payers, and has recommended the Self-employed Work Premiums to the Minister for Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance.

A.C.C. recommended an average gross self-employed work premium rate of $2.02 per $100 of liable earnings, G.S.T. exclusive, with 2 components:

- An average income-related benefit premium rate of $1.40; and

- An average non-income related benefit premium rate of $0.62.

This average gross premium rate includes an allowance for personal adjustment factors which will reduce the final premium payment to reflect the individual risk characteristics of each premium payer.

The expected net average premium is $1.66, which is equivalent to the average that self-employed currently pay in the Employers' Account.

A copy of the recommendation may be obtained by contacting Trish Millward on telephone No. (04) 918 7304.

1. Clause 9 (3) is amended by omitting the word "A" and substituting the words "Except where subclause (4) applies, a".

2. Clause 9 is amended by adding the following subclause:

"(4) The chief executive may pay a lump sum amount of a childcare subsidy to the applicant, if—

"(a) That amount corrects an underpayment in the amount of the subsidy to which the applicant is entitled under this programme; and

"(b) The applicant has paid to the pre-school facility as fees the difference between the amount of subsidy to which he or she is entitled and the amount of subsidy (if any) paid by the department to the pre-school facility."

3. Clause 13 (2) is amended by inserting, after the phrase "(NAOSCAR)" the words "or the OSCAR programme is provided by a pre-school facility".

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the welfare programme but is intended to indicate its general effect.

Clauses 1 and 2 amend the programme so that corrections of underpayments may be paid directly to the caregiver instead of to the pre-school facility that the child attends.

Clause 3 extends the OSCAR programmes that may be granted an interim approval (until 31 July 1999) to include programmes provided by approved pre-school facilities. The amendments come into effect on the date of this approval.
