Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Corporation

Accident Insurance Act 1998

Consultation on Proposed Changes to the Earner Levy and Premium

ACC is responsible for managing the Earners' Account, which pays for the treatment of non-work injuries sustained from 1 July 1992 by New Zealanders in paid employment (except self-employed who have chosen to insure with a private insurer from 1 July 1999).

The Earners' Account is funded in two ways:

- By accident compensation premiums for non-work injuries which occur on or after 1 July 1999; and
- By the levies for prior claims which occurred on or before 30 June 1999.

The Earners' Account was previously funded on a pay-as-you-go system, therefore insufficient reserves exist to fund the total ongoing costs. Our actuaries estimate the unfunded liability of the Earners' Account at $299 million. New Zealanders in paid employment will continue to pay a levy for prior claims to ACC for up to 15 years or until reserves are sufficient to cover the total claim liability (whichever comes first).

Recent performance in scheme management means this prior claim levy can be reduced from the current rate of $0.17 (G.S.T. exclusive) per $100 of liable earnings.

In addition, a reduction in the current rate of accident compensation premium of $1.0744 (G.S.T. exclusive) for every $100 of liable earnings is possible as a result of sustained support and success of injury prevention and injury management initiatives.

ACC invites interested people to make submissions on both the setting of the premium, and levy before a recommendation is made to the Minister for Accident Insurance. The new rates will take effect from 1 April 2000.

ACC is proposing the following 2000/01 funding options (below) for the Earners' Account. As the composite premium and levy is collected by IRD, it must be a multiple of 10 cents on a G.S.T. inclusive basis in order for the composite rate to be incorporated into the PAYE tables.

Full details of the options are set out in the consultation paper.

ACC invites earners to make submissions on the above proposals. A discussion paper (including the proposed regulations) and a copy of the actuarial advice on which the levy and premium assessments are based are available by writing to:

Consultation on Proposed Changes to the Residual Claims Levy

ACC is responsible for managing the Residual Claims Account, which pays for the immediate and ongoing costs of treating and rehabilitating people who were injured in the workplace before 30 June 1999 and suffered non-work injuries prior to 1 July 1992.

These prior year claims were previously funded on a pay-as-you-go system, therefore insufficient reserves exist to fund their total ongoing costs. The unfunded liability of these prior year claims is estimated at $1.9 billion. Employers will continue to pay a levy to ACC for up to 15 years, or until reserves are sufficient to cover the total claim liability (whichever comes first).

Recent performance of the ACC scheme means that the levy can be reduced (the current levy is an average 67 cents per $100 dollars of wages).

ACC invites interested people to make submissions on the residual claims levy rate — before a recommendation is made to the Minister for Accident Insurance. The new rates will take effect from 1 April 2000.

ACC is proposing the following 2000/01 Residual Claims Levy options:

Option 1: Maintain the levy at its current average rate, thereby reducing the time period estimated for meeting the costs of all residual claims to 8 years.

Option 2: Reduce the levy to an average $0.56, thereby reducing the time period estimated for meeting the costs of all residual claims to 10 years.

Option 3: Reduce the levy to an average $0.39, and maintain the 15 year funding maximum time period set in the Accident Insurance Act 1998 for meeting the costs of all residual claims.

All rates expressed are G.S.T. exclusive.

Full details of the options are set out in the consultation paper.

ACC invites premium payers to make submissions on the above proposals. A discussion paper (including the proposed regulations) and a copy of the actuarial advice on which these assessments are based are available by writing to:

Chairman's Report for the Year Ended 31 March 1999Your Trust is Successful

I am delighted in this, my final chairman's report, to be able to inform you of yet another very successful year for your trust. Net income for the year was $8,565,000 and trust assets now exceed $111,000,000. We distributed $2,539,000 to 283 community groups and $47,000 to "Dillon Scholars".

We also reserved $3,197,000 for inflation and population growth, and $3,123,000 as a buffer against possible poor income years ahead. These have now been added to "general funds" which has been split to show the two separate reserves.

The trust's investment portfolio has been place for a full year now and this is reflected in the higher "Investment Advice" fees ($318,000 up from $86,000). Advertising costs also increased significantly from $15,000 to $36,000 as a result of the trust producing and circulating its annual report through Bay of Plenty newspapers.

The trust congratulates all donations recipients and acknowledges their hard work and dedication to projects which make the Bay of Plenty a better place.

Your Trust is Sensitive

Your community trustees are very aware of the huge responsibility they have to ensure that the trust's real capital base is maintained, that good income is earned and that each community distribution is carefully considered. As a cohesive yet diverse group of 12, your trustees are sensitive to different needs in different parts of the Bay, and support various projects accordingly.

"To help build, maintain and enhance Bay of Plenty Communities," remains our objective.

Trustees are constantly reminded of the crucial role volunteers play in the health of our community. When the board evaluates applications it likes to assess the degree of community contribution that the proposed project has. Often that is measured in the level of voluntary support involved. We recognise the importance of volunteers and will continue to help those helping others.

Trustees are also aware of the increasing commitments people face in their already busy lives. Given the competition for time between work, family and community involvement, the trust believes that ongoing support is vital to maintain and encourage the spirit of volunteers.

Your Trust is Proactive

Your trust is achieving its objective in a variety of ways, including active partnerships with organisations making positive differences throughout our communities.

Clearly the trust's strength lies in its ability to make financial contributions. The community organisations have the volunteers and systems in place, and together, we achieve a leverage which makes things happen.

In two particular cases, our continued relationship with Sport Bay of Plenty (Coachforce) and our new partnership with Presbyterian Support (Children and their Families Service), the outcomes have confirmed that the trust will continue to look at partnership opportunities with charitable organisations and community groups across the spectrum of welfare, health, sport, leisure and recreation, employment and youth issues.

With such synergies in mind, the trust has coordinated a series of "funders' forums" meetings with local authorities, some government departments, other charitable trusts and public and private benefactors. It is clear from these discussions that each has its unique strength. Individually we do a lot of good. Collectively we can do even better.

Your Trust is Changing

This report is my final act as trust chairman. My 8 years on the trust has, without doubt, been a most rewarding involvement and I am very thankful for the opportunity of serving the community in this way.

During the past 5 years as chairman, I have been involved in the sale of the trust's 7 percent stake in the former trust bank, the subsequent investment of the funds realised and in redefining the trust's direction. These have been stimulating and challenging times and I thank my fellow trustees for their support. Glenys Searancke of Rotorua took over the chair from June 1 and I wish her well in her new role.

I would also like to acknowledge the very significant contributions of three trustees whose terms expired on the 31st day of May: Murray Black, Lyall Thurston and Margaret Townshend. We thank them for their hard work and dedication. The Minister of Finance is expected to announce new appointments in due course.

Special thanks also to trust manager, Bruce Cronin and his assistant, Cindy Currie for their considerable contribution and efforts over the past year.

I leave with a steadfast belief in the merits of the community trust. The extraordinary legacy of the founders of the Bay of Plenty Savings Bank, the history of this trust's development and its remarkable impact on the Bay of Plenty is too important to ever be tampered with.

ROB TAIT, Chairman.

In the normal course of business the trust has no related parties with any entity, other than those advised in note 1.

12. Financial Instruments

Investments are stated at estimated market value at balance date. Accrued interest, accounts payable, community loans, and donations approved not yet paid are stated at the amounts expected to be received or paid.

Accordingly, the trustees consider that the fair value of each class of financial assets and financial liabilities is the same as the carrying value in the statement of financial position.

Concentration of Investments

Ninety-nine percent (99%) of the assets of the trust are represented by investments held with a range of financial institutions. However the trustees consider the risk of non-recovery of these investments to be minimal.

Currency Risk

The trust incurs currency risk as a result of investment transactions entered into by fund managers.

Interest Rate Risk

The following investments of the trust are sensitive to changes in interest rates: Bank call accounts and deposits, governments and local authority and securities held by fund managers.

Loans and advances with related parties do not carry interest and therefore do not hold any interest rate risk.

Auditors' Report to the Trustees of The Community Trust

We have audited the consolidated financial statements. The consolidated financial statements provide information about the past financial performance and cash flows of the trust and subsidiaries for the year ended 31 March 1999 and their financial position as at that date. This information is stated in accordance with the accounting policies set out therein.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements which give a true and fair view of the financial position of the trust and subsidiaries as at 31 March 1999 and their financial performance and cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Auditors' Responsibilities

We are responsible for expressing an independent opinion on the consolidated financial statements presented by the trustees and reporting our opinion to you.

Basis of Opinion

An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes assessing:

- (a) the significant estimates and judgments made by the trustees in the preparation of the financial statements; and
- (b) whether the accounting policies used and described therein are appropriate to the circumstances of the trust and subsidiaries, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards in New Zealand. We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatements, whether caused by fraud or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the consolidated financial statements.

We have no relationship with or interests in the trust and subsidiaries other than in our capacity as auditors.

Unqualified Opinion

We have obtained all the information and explanations we have required.

In our opinion:

- (a) proper accounting records have been kept by the trust as far as appears from our examination of those records; and
- (b) the consolidated financial statements:
 - (i) comply with generally accepted accounting practice; and
 - (ii) give a true and fair view of the financial position of the trust and subsidiaries as at 31 March 1999 and their financial performance and cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Our audit was completed on 24 May 1999 and our unqualified opinion is expressed as at that date.
