Estate of Terence John Cunningham

Notice of Application for Approval of a Scheme

Under Part III of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957

M. No. 2076/99

Notice is hereby given that the New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited, as executor and trustee of the estate of Terence John Cunningham, late of Auckland, in New Zealand, retired garage proprietor, deceased, has filed in the office of the High Court at Auckland for approval of a scheme relating to the disposition of trust property created by the will of the late Terence John Cunningham.

Under the will dated the 17th day of May 1978, one-half of the residue of the estate of Terence John Cunningham is to be held for the International Association of Co-Workers of Mother Teresa for the general purposes of the said association.

The testator declared that the receipt of the secretary/treasurer or other proper officer of the Catholic Overseas Committee Christchurch shall be a full and sufficient discharge to the trustee who shall not be bound to see to the specific application of the funds.

That it has become impossible or impractical or inexpedient to carry out the purpose of the trust in that the International Association for the Co-Workers of Mother Teresa has at her specific request, been abandoned as an administrative organisation or entity existing in its own right and instead Mother Teresa directed as follows:

- (i) That the Co-Workers of Mother Teresa were to continue to work closely with the original religious order which she had founded namely "the Missionaries of Charity";
- (ii) That the Missionaries of Charity was to receive the funds which otherwise would have been donated to the International Co-Workers of Mother Teresa.

The Catholic Overseas Committee Christchurch no longer exists as an entity, but it has been absorbed into another entity known as CARITAS Aotearoa-New Zealand, which amongst its functions includes the responsibility of managing the Catholic Church's aid and development functions.

Under this scheme the New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited wishes to be able to hold and distribute one-half of the residue of the trust fund for the Missionaries of Charity instead of the International Association of Co-Workers of Mother Teresa. The New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited also proposes that the receipt of the secretary/treasurer or other responsible officer of CARITAS Aotearoa-New Zealand shall be a full and sufficient discharge to the trustee who shall not be bound to see to the specific application of the funds.

Copies of the scheme and the report of the Attorney-General thereon may be inspected free of charge at the office of the Registrar of the High Court at Auckland or at the offices of the New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited, 105 Queen Street, Auckland.

The application has been set down for hearing in the High Court at Auckland on Monday, the 6th day of March 2000 at 11.45 a.m.

Any person desiring to oppose the scheme is required to give written notice of his or her intention to do so to the Registrar of the High Court at Auckland and to the New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited and to the Attorney-General (via the Crown Law Office, St Pauls Square, 45 Pipitea Street, Wellington (Attention: Margaret Soper)) not less than 7 clear days before the above-mentioned date.

Dated at Auckland this 8th day of December 1999.

R. J. RONDEL, Solicitor for the Applicant.

Any inquiry or notice for service on the New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited may be made/left at the office of the company's solicitors, Robert J. Rondel & Co., Apartment 1, Kingsbridge Apartments, 72 Wellesley Street, Auckland (P.O. Box 912, Auckland) (Attention: Mr R. J. Rondel). Telephone: (09) 309 4570. Facsimile: (09) 377 1554).

Special Needs Grant Programme Amendment (No. 5)

Pursuant to section 124 (1) (d) of the Social Security Act 1964, I, Steven Maharey, Minister of Social Services and Employment, approve the following amendments to the Special Needs Grant welfare programme for special assistance (as established and approved on 18 December 1998), which are to be read with and considered part of the programme with immediate effect.

Dated this 10th day of December 1999.

STEVE MAHAREY, Minister of Social Services and Employment.

AMENDMENTS

1. Clause 4.1 of the programme is amended by adding the words “, except that section 74A of the Act does not apply to clauses 15A.1 to 15A.4.”

2. The programme is amended by inserting, after clause 15.4.2, the following heading and clauses:

15A Persons released from custody under section 128A of the Immigration Act 1987

15A.1 The chief executive may, in the chief executive's discretion, make non-recoverable Grants on account of hardship to any of the persons—

(a) whose applications for refugee status were refused; and

(b) who were subsequently detained under the Immigration Act 1987 in a penal institution until their release on conditions by a District Court Judge under section 128A of the Immigration Act 1987 on 1 December 1999.

15A.2 When deciding whether to make a Grant under clause 15A.1, the following provisions of this programme do not apply and the chief executive must not take them into account, namely clause 5 (b), clause 6, clause 7.2, and clause 8.2.

15A.3 Grants under clause 15A.1 may be made to a person described in that clause on a weekly basis commencing from 1 December 1999 until the earliest of the following dates:

(a) if the person becomes eligible to be granted a benefit under section 74A of the Act, the date on which that occurs;

(b) the date that the person becomes liable to arrest and placement in custody under section 128A (10A) of the Immigration Act 1987;

(c) the date that section 128A of the Immigration Act 1987 ceases to apply to the person by reason of the grant to the person of a permit under that Act, or by reason of the continuation of the person's custody under section 128 of that Act.

15A.4 The weekly amount of a Grant under clause 15A.1—

(a) is equivalent to the appropriate amount of a community wage set out in clause 1 (a) or (b) of the Ninth Schedule of the Act; and

(b) is subject to Income Test 3 (which applies as if the amount of a Grant were a rate of a benefit).

Definitions benefit, chief executive, community wage, Income Test 3, Social Security Act 1964, s 3; penal institution, Penal Institutions Act 1954, s 2

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the amendments, but is intended to explain their general effect.

These amendments, to the Special Needs Grant Programme under section 124 (1) (d) of the Social Security Act 1964, allow special assistance equivalent to the single rate of a community wage to be granted on account of hardship to certain refugee claimants who were released from custody under section 128A of the Immigration Act 1987, pending the disposal of court proceedings. The Department of Work and Income administers the programme.

Direction in Relation to Special Benefit

To: The Chief Executive, Department of Work and Income.

Pursuant to section 5 of the Social Security Act 1964, I, Roger Morrison Sowry, Minister of Social Services, Work and Income, give the following direction to take effect on 12 February 1999.

I revoke effective on that date all previous Ministerial directions under that section concerning the grant of special benefit under that Act.

Dated this 10th day of February 1999.

ROGER SOWRY, Minister of Social Services, Work and Income.

DIRECTION

Grants of Special Benefit

In the exercise of your discretion to grant a special benefit under section 61G of the Act, and without derogating from your duty to have regard to the particular financial circumstances and commitments of the applicant, you must have regard to the following matters.

1. General principles

- 1.1 That the intention of a special benefit under the Act is to alleviate financial hardship and that a special benefit should not be granted unless without the grant, the applicant or a person dependent upon the applicant would suffer financial hardship.
- 1.2 That a special benefit should not normally be granted unless the applicant's Deficiency of Income over his or her expenditure and commitments is reasonably substantial, and that Deficiency is likely to continue for a period that justifies special benefit being granted.
- 1.3 That a special benefit should be considered only in respect of costs of the applicant that are essential and not reasonably avoidable.
- 1.4 THAT in considering any application for special benefit, consideration should be given to—
 - (a) The applicant's ability to meet the Deficiency from the applicant's own resources; and
 - (b) The assistance that is or might be available to the applicant from other sources to meet the applicant's Deficiency.

In particular, when considering—

- (c) An application for a special benefit by a full-time student or the student's dependent spouse, you should take into account the availability of financial support during the academic year under the student allowance or student loan schemes; or
- (d) An application for special benefit for the costs of any essential health services or disability services (as those terms are defined in the Health and Disability Services Act 1993), you should take into account the assistance available under that Act,— and special benefit should not normally be considered for expenses normally covered by the assistance available under those schemes or that Act unless the applicant has extraordinary expenses and has exhausted his or her entitlements under those schemes or that Act.

2. Definitions

2.1 In this direction, unless the context otherwise requires:

“Accommodation costs” has the meaning in section 61E of the Act:

“the Act” means the Social Security Act 1964:

“Allowable costs”, in relation to an applicant and subject to section 68A of the Act, means any regular essential expenses reckoned on a weekly basis arising out of the special circumstances of the applicant and his or her spouse (if any) which cannot readily be avoided or varied, and include—

- (a) The applicant's actual accommodation costs including arrears, provided that any arrears incurred while the person was in receipt of accommodation benefit, accommodation supplement, rent rebate allowance, or tenure protection allowance under the Act are not to be included; and

“Deficiency” has the meaning in clause 3:

“Disposable income”, in relation to an applicant, means the applicant’s weekly chargeable income after the deduction of the applicant’s allowable costs:

“Grand-parented rate”, in relation to a community wage payable to a person to whom section 99 (2) of the Act applies, means the appropriate rate in the Eighth Schedule of the Act that was payable to the person immediately before 1 July 1998:

“Income”, in clause 3 means income as defined in section 3 (1) of the Act:

“Living alone” has the meaning in section 18A of the Social Welfare (Transitional Provisions) Act 1990:

“Non-beneficiary” means a person who is not a beneficiary:

“Standard costs”, in relation to an applicant, means the appropriate amount set out in the Schedule, being the proportion of the living costs of the applicant and his or her dependants that he or she may be expected to meet—

(a) From his or her benefit; or

(b) In the case of a non-beneficiary, from the appropriate rate of a community wage that would be payable to the applicant if he or she was entitled to that benefit,— but do not include any of the applicant’s allowable costs—

2.2 Terms otherwise defined in section 3 (1) of the Act have the meanings so defined, except where the context otherwise requires.

3. Assessment procedure

3.1 Subject to clauses 3.3 and 3.4, you should regard as justified the fixing of a special benefit at a rate that is the lesser of a or b if—

(a) The applicant has cash assets of not more than—

(i) For a unmarried person, $4 \times \text{sib}$; or

(ii) For a married person or a sole parent, $4 \times \text{mib}$; and

(b) The applicant’s disposable income is less than the applicant’s standard costs.

Definitions for the purposes of clause 3.1

In this clause—

a is the applicant’s standard costs less the applicant’s disposable income less c:

b is 30% of the applicant’s allowable costs:

c is $5 a week:

mib is the maximum weekly rate of invalid’s benefit payable to a married couple without dependent children:

sib is the maximum weekly rate of invalid’s benefit payable to an unmarried person without dependent children.

Example

An unmarried community wage beneficiary with 2 dependent children, whose weekly chargeable income is $210.45 and whose weekly allowable costs are $94.30.

Special Benefit Calculation

Chargeable income	$210.45
less allowable costs	$94.30
= disposable income	$116.15
standard costs	$144.89
less disposable income	$116.15
= Deficiency	$28.74
less c	$5.00
= a	$23.74
b is 30% of allowable costs ($94.30) =	$28.29

A special benefit that is the lesser of a and b is justified, i.e. $23.74, subject to paragraphs 3.3 and 3.4.

3.2 Subject to clauses 3.3 and 3.4, a special benefit should be considered justified in respect of a person receiving community wage under the Act while undergoing training, and who incurs additional costs because he or she is undergoing training away from his or her usual home. The rate of the special benefit considered justified should be the lesser of—

(a) The additional weekly accommodation costs incurred; and

(b) $100 per week.

3.3 Upon completion of the appropriate calculation set out in clauses 3.1 or 3.2, you must consider whether there is justification for increasing or decreasing the rate of special benefit paid to the applicant, or to fix or decline to fix an entitlement to special benefit, having regard to the principles set out in clause 1 and to the following matters:

(a) Whether the applicant has any special or unusual financial expenditure compared to others in a similar general position to the applicant and the extent of any such expenditure;

(b) Whether the applicant has any special or unusual reasons for any expenditure item that has caused or contributed to his or her Deficiency;

(c) The nature of the financial difficulty, and the likely duration of the Deficiency;

(d) The age and health of the applicant and his or her dependants and any special needs arising from that age or health;

(e) The ability of the applicant to improve his or her financial situation;

(f) The causes of the applicant’s financial difficulty;

(g) The extent to which the basic necessities of life for the applicant or his or her dependants would be at risk if a grant of special benefit at the rate calculated, or another rate, was not made;

(h) Any other matters that in the circumstances of the particular case, you consider to be relevant.

3.4 Nothing in clauses 1 and 3 requires you to grant a special benefit, or a special benefit at any particular rate, if, in your discretion, you determine that in the circumstances of the particular case, such grant ought not to be made.

4. Application of Direction

4.1 This direction should be applied to applications for special benefit made on or after 12 February 1999 and in respect of any reviews of that benefit on or after that day.

5. Administration of the Special Benefit Programme

5.1 In administering the programme of special benefits, you are to ensure that where practicable, persons receiving special benefit under the Act receive appropriate advice with the objective that wherever possible, their need for a special benefit is eliminated or reduced within 6 months after the later of—

(a) The date of any grant of a special benefit after the date this direction takes effect; or

(b) Any review of a special benefit after that date.

5.2 Cases where special benefit is being paid at a rate of more than $50 a week should receive priority under clause 5.1.

Schedule

[1] Standard A1 is varied by—

[1.1] inserting , erythritol in clause (29) immediately after lactitol;

[1.2] inserting , erythritol in clause (29A) immediately after lactitol wherever occurring;

[1.3] inserting in columns 1 and 2 respectively of Part 1 of the Schedule immediately after Erythorbic acid—

Erythritol Number pending; and

[1.4] inserting in columns 1 and 2 respectively of Part 2 of the Schedule immediately before Curcumin—

Erythritol Number pending.

[2] Standard A6 is varied by deleting from subparagraph 2 (4) (a) (vii)—

(xviii) deleted;

and substituting—

(xviii) erythritol;

[3] Standard A8 is varied by inserting erythritol in subclause 3(b) immediately after dextrose.

[4] Standard A10 is varied by inserting Erythritol into Group V—Humectants of Table 1, immediately before Glycerin.

[5] Standard A11 is varied by—

[5.1] inserting—

(1)(u) Addendum 7 means Addendum 7 to this Standard;

[5.2] inserting in columns 1 and 2 respectively of the Schedule—

Erythritol Addendum 7; and

[5.3] inserting immediately after Addendum 6—

Addendum 7*Specification for Erythritol*

Erythritol (CAS Number: 149-32-6#) is heat stable and nonhygroscopic, soluble in water, pyridine and slightly soluble in alcohol.

Formula: C₄H₁₀O₄

Formula Weight: 122.12

Physical Tests

Appearance: Crystalline powder

Colour: White

Odour: Odourless

Chemical Tests:

Identification: The retention time of the major peak in the HPLC chromatogram of the Assay Solution corresponds to that in the chromatogram of the Standard Solution obtained in the Assay.

Melting Range: 119 to 123°C

Assay: Not less than 99%

Ribitol plus Glycerol: Not more than 0.1%

Heavy Metals (as Pb) Not more than 5 mg/kg

Lead: Not more than 1 mg/kg

Reducing Sugars:
(as glucose): Not more than 0.3%.

Residue on Ignition: Not more than 0.1%.

Loss on Drying: Not more than 0.2% after drying in a vacuum desiccator at 70°C for 6 hours.

Assay:

Mobile Phase: Use deionised water.

Standard Solution: Transfer about 2 g of primary standard, previously dried in a vacuum desiccator at 70°C for 6 hours and accurately weigh (W), into a 50-mL volumetric flask, dilute to volume with deionised water.

Assay Solution: Prepare as directed for Standard Solution, using about 2 g of the sample (w).

Chromatographic System: Use a high-pressure liquid chromatograph fitted with a differential refractive index detector and a column packed with a strong cation exchange resin in the hydrogen form operated at a column temperature of 60°C, at a flow rate of approximately 0.5 mL/min.

Procedure: Chromatograph triplicate 30-µL portions of the Standard Solution and record the mean of the erythritol peak areas as A. In a similar manner, chromatograph triplicate 30-µL portions of the Assay Solution and record the mean of the erythritol peak areas as a. Calculate the percentage of erythritol in the sample by the formula: % Erythritol = 100(W/w)(a/A).

[6] Standard A14 is varied by—

[6.1] inserting in columns 1 and 2 respectively of Schedule 1 each chemical (shown in bold type) and its associated food and maximum residue limit for that food, listed below—

Standard A19

Novel Foods

Purpose

This Standard regulates the sale of novel food and novel food ingredients. The Standard prohibits the sale of these foods unless they are listed in the Table to clause 2, and comply with any special conditions in that Table. The specific permission may impose conditions relating to matters such as the need for preparation or cooking instructions, warning statements or other advice, or the need to meet specific requirements of composition or purity.

The purpose of this Standard is to ensure that non-traditional foods which have features or characteristics which raise safety concerns will undergo a risk-based safety assessment before they are offered for retail sale in Australia and/or New Zealand.

The Authority will assess the safety for human consumption of each novel food prior to its inclusion in the Table. The safety assessment will be performed in accordance with the Authority's safety assessment guidelines.

Editorial Note:

Foods produced using gene technology are regulated in Standard A18. Standard A18 will subsequently be located in Standard 1.5.2 of the new Australia New Zealand Food Standards Code (ANZFS). Foods which have been irradiated are proposed to be regulated in Standard 1.5.3 of the new ANZFS.
