Competitive Neutrality in the Self-Employed Work Accounts

Direction to the Accident Compensation Corporation relating to Government policy on Competitive Neutrality in the Self-Employed Work Account established under the Accident Insurance Act 1998 ("AI Act").

To the Accident Compensation Corporation ("ACC")

Background

- Section 301 (2) of the AI Act requires that the extent of funds from premiums are calculated on the basis of:
  - full funded costs; and
  - a competitive neutrality portion.
- The purpose of this direction is to set the method for calculating the competitive neutrality amount to be added to Self-Employed Work Account premiums from 1 July 2000.
- Section 299 (4) requires that any amount collected for competitive neutrality is to be paid to the Crown on an annual basis. Section 301 (3) of the AI Act states that no amount for competitive neutrality may be collected in respect of the period before 1 July 2000.

Policy Direction

- Pursuant to sections 301 (2) (b) and 339 of the AI Act, the competitive neutrality portion shall be a "Nil" amount.

- This direction continues in force until revoked. Dated at Wellington this 13th day of December 1999. DR MICHAEL CULLEN, Minister for Accident Insurance.

Local Government Act 1974

Appointment of Review Authority to Review the Rodney District Council

I hereby give notice that, pursuant to the provisions of section 692P of the Local Government Act 1974, Mr Michael Gross, company director of Kerikeri, and Mr Alan Bickers, consultant of Tauranga, have been appointed to be the review authority to undertake a review of the Rodney District Council.

Matters to be Reviewed

The review authority is to investigate:

- whether the conduct of the council is being undertaken in accordance with the requirements of section 223C of the Local Government Act;
- whether the conduct of, and working relationships of, elected members at council and committee meetings is appropriate and whether Standing Orders are being effectively applied;
- whether procedures are in place, and applied, which set out protocols for the interaction between elected members, the general manager and staff;
- whether elected members' relationships with the general manager and senior officers reflect an understanding of, and adherence to, the distinction between their governance role and the statutory obligations of the general manager under section 119D of the Local Government Act, and whether council processes and deliberations are impacting adversely on these responsibilities being undertaken;
- the extent to which the council as the employer is operating a personnel policy in relation to the general manager that complies with the principle of being a good employer as required by section 119F of the Local Government Act;

- and identify any areas of risk in the council that may prevent the council exercising its functions, duties and powers in an efficient and effective manner, with particular regard being given to the council's annual planning process under section 223D of the Local Government Act and the financial management of the council's funding policy, long term financial strategy and borrowing management policy under Part VIIA of the Act; and
- whether a committee structure within the council would be appropriate to enable quality decision making, public access and delegation; and make recommendations to the Minister of Local Government as to how the council should act to overcome any deficiencies identified. Such recommendations should focus on ways to overcome those deficiencies within the existing governance structure; but, if necessary, the review authority has recourse to recommending the appointment of a commission under section 692W of the Local Government Act 1974.

Review Authority's Report

The review authority is to report to the Minister of Local Government by 3 March 2000 with its findings and recommendations.

Dated this 17th day of December 1999.

SANDRA LEE, Minister of Local Government.

Social Policy

Social Security Act 1964

Training Incentive Allowance Programme Amendment

Pursuant to section 124 (1) (d) of the Social Security Act 1964, I, Steven Maharey, Minister of Social Services and Employment, establish and approve the following amendments to the Training Incentive Allowance welfare programme (as established and approved on 30 November 1998), which are to be read with and considered part of the programme with effect 1 January 2000.

Dated this 21st day of December 1999.

STEVE MAHAREY, Minister of Social Services and Employment.

Amendments

1. Allowances—

- 1.1 Clause 5.2.2 of the programme is amended:
  - (a) by omitting from paragraph (c) the words "Course; or", and substituting the word "Course."; and
  - (b) by omitting paragraph (d).
- 1.2 Clause 5.2 of the programme is amended by adding the following subclause:

"5.2.3. No Allowance may be granted to an Applicant who has completed a degree course at a Tertiary Institution within the period of 5 years preceding the date of application for the Allowance (whether or not the person has been awarded a degree) unless the duration of the Course is less than 12 weeks."

2. Rates—

The programme is amended by omitting clauses 6.1 to 6.3, and substituting the following clause:

"6.1 Weekly rate of Allowance

"6.1.1. The amount of an Allowance is the Applicant's Training Costs calculated on a weekly basis up to a maximum of $75 a week for each week of the Course, but no more than $3000 per year.”

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the amendments but is intended to explain their general effect.

These amendments, to the Training Incentive Allowance Programme under section 124 (1) (d) of the Social Security Act 1964, and which take effect on 1 January 2000:

- (a) allow an allowance to be granted for short courses less than 12 weeks in duration to people who have completed a degree course within the preceding 5 years; and
- (b) remove the requirement that where a student loan is available for a course, the applicant must contribute 40% of the costs of the course.
