Biosecurity Act 1993

Biosecurity (Declaration of a Controlled Area) Notice No. 1204

Hydatids

I hereby revoke the notice entitled "Biosecurity (Declaration of a Controlled Area) Notice – Hydatids" dated 23 September 1997 and published in the New Zealand Gazette, 25 September 1997, No. 140, page 3241.

I hereby revoke the notice entitled "Biosecurity (Declaration of a Controlled Area) Notice – Hydatids – Arapawa Island" dated 23 September 1997 and published in the New Zealand Gazette, 25 September 1997, No. 140, page 3241.

I hereby declare, pursuant to section 131 of the Biosecurity Act 1993, the whole of New Zealand to be a controlled area (hereinafter referred to as "the controlled area") to enable the limitation of the spread of true hydatids (Echinococcus granulosus), being an unwanted organism under that Act.

While this declaration is in force, I hereby give notice of the following matters:

- (i) The slaughter of ruminants and pigs at home killing facilities within the controlled area shall be conducted within a dog-proof enclosure in such a manner as to ensure that raw offal is not accessible to dogs.
- (ii) Owners shall control their dogs at all times in such a manner as to prevent them from having access to the raw offal of ruminants and pigs.
- (iii) The offal of ruminants and pigs shall be cooked by boiling for a minimum of 30 minutes before feeding to dogs within the controlled area.

Note:

Home killing facilities do not include any premises licensed under the Meat Act 1981 or the Animal Products Act 1999, but includes on-farm facilities used by itinerant slaughtermen.

For the purposes of this notice, offal is defined as liver or lungs, and includes any part of the liver or lungs.

This notice takes effect from the date of its publication in the New Zealand Gazette.

Dated at Wellington this 23rd day of July 2001.

Termination of Dumping Investigation: Hollow Gold Jewellery From Italy

Notice is hereby given that, acting pursuant to section 11 of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988 (hereinafter referred to as “the Act”), I have terminated a dumping investigation in respect of hollow 9-carat gold jewellery from Italy (“the subject goods”) as described in the Notice of Initiation of Dumping Investigation of 12 June 2001 (New Zealand Gazette, 21 June 2001, page 1511) imported or intended to be imported into New Zealand.

I have terminated the investigation because I am satisfied that under section 11 (1) (e), New Zealand producers who previously expressed support for the application for the investigation have withdrawn that support in writing to such an extent that, by reason of section 10 (3) of the Act, the investigation could not have been initiated.

Cessation of Anti-dumping Duties on Certain Men's Footwear From China, Indonesia and Thailand

The Chief Executive of the Ministry of Economic Development gives notice that, in terms of section 14 (9) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, anti-dumping duties on Certain Men's Footwear from China, Indonesia and Thailand ceased to be payable with effect from 30 July 2001.

The anti-dumping duties ceased to be payable on that date, because at that date, the goods were not subject to review and 5 years had passed since the date of Notice of Reassessment of duty given, under section 14 (6) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988*, by the Minister of Commerce that the goods were being dumped and were causing material injury to the New Zealand men's footwear industry.

Pursuant to sections 20 (1) and 28 of the Public Works Act 1981, and to a delegation from the Minister of Lands, Ronald Alistair Jolly, Land Information New Zealand, declares that, pursuant to an agreement to that effect having been entered into, the easement described in the Second Schedule to this notice is acquired as an easement in gross over those parts of the land described in the First Schedule as are specified in the Second Schedule.

The easement shall vest in the Crown for New Zealand Police for Emergency Services Radio Communications and Telecommunications purposes ("the grantee") on the date of publication of this notice in the New Zealand Gazette and may be surrendered by a further notice in the New Zealand Gazette.

Wellington Land District—Masterton DistrictFirst ScheduleServient Tenement*

Area ha	Being
245.8567	More or less, being parts of Sections 5, 6, 11 and 12, Rangitumau District, contained in certificate of title No. 330/29.

Second Schedule*Right of Way Easement*

A right of way over those pieces of land in the First Schedule described as follows:

Part Section 6, Rangitumau District; shown marked "F" on S.O. Plan 37307.

Part Section 11, Rangitumau District; shown marked "G" on S.O. Plan 37308.

Additional Rights and Conditions Included in the Easement

1. The grantee shall proceed quietly at all times along the right of way so far as the circumstances, including the type of vehicle, allow and shall cause as little disturbance to the grantor and any stock on the servient land as is reasonably possible.
2. The grantee shall be entitled to enter into a maintenance agreement with any other authorised user of the right of way. Notwithstanding any such agreement, the grantee agrees as between the grantor and the grantee to ensure that the right of way is maintained to a good quality four wheel drive standard at the grantee's expense. In addition, the grantee shall at its option, either alone or in conjunction with other authorised users, maintain the easement land to a higher standard. It is specifically agreed that the grantor shall have no liability for the maintenance of the easement land in the absence of written agreement to that effect from time to time.

3. The grantee shall close all farm gates that have been opened to permit passage along the easement land. If the grantor requires any of the gates to be locked, the grantee shall ensure that such gates are locked immediately after use.
4. The grantee shall indemnify the grantor from and against all loss, injury or damage whether to person, property or stock suffered by the grantor and resulting from the exercise by the grantee of the rights hereby granted, and will further indemnify the grantor against all suits, claims and demands of whatsoever nature arising out of the grantee's exercise of the said rights.
5. The grantor will not be liable for any loss or damage to the grantee arising from the use of the easement land except where the grantor intentionally causes such loss or damage.
6. The rights and powers implied in easements of right of way, pursuant to the Ninth Schedule to the Property Law Act 1952 and the Seventh Schedule to the Land Transfer Act 1952, shall apply to the easement referred to herein as modified by the provisions contained herein.
7. If the grantee neglects or refuses to perform any obligation under the terms of the easement, the following provisions shall apply:
 - (i) The grantor may serve on the grantee a written notice ("a default notice") requiring the grantee to perform such obligation and stating that, after the expiration of 14 days from service of the default notice the grantor may perform such obligation.
 - (ii) If, at the expiry of the default notice, the grantee still neglects or refuses to perform the obligation, the grantor may perform such obligation.
 - (iii) The grantee shall be liable to pay to the grantor the costs of the default notice and the costs incurred in performing such obligation.
 - (iv) The grantor may recover from the grantee as a liquidated debt any moneys payable pursuant to this clause, together with interest thereon at 4% above the base lending rate (or equivalent rate) charged by the grantor's trading bank at the relevant time.
8. Persons using the easement land under the rights granted by this agreement shall identify themselves to the grantor, or to any agent of the grantor, if requested to do so and shall demonstrate that they have both the right and the need to use the easement land.
9. All differences and disputes which may arise between the parties relating to this agreement and the conditions herein that cannot be resolved by the parties shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1996 or any amendment or enactment thereof from time to time being in force.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of July 2001.

Restriction on Creating an Obstruction Impeding Visibility—State Highway No. 30 Te Ngae Road, Rotorua District

Pursuant to section 236 of the Public Works Act 1981, and to a delegation from the Minister of Lands, R. J. Sutherland, Land Information New Zealand, declares the land described in the Schedule to be subject to the following restriction:

Any owner of the land, the subject of the covenant, shall be prohibited from allowing any tree, shrub, hedge, building, tower, hoarding, fence, or other structure on the whole or any specified part of the land which would impede visibility across such land from either Te Ngae or Owata Roads; provided, however, that the owner shall be entitled to maintain the canopy existing at the date of this notice, over such land supported by poles.

In addition, the pump islands, dispensers, signage and associated refuelling activity (including temporary parking for the purpose of refuelling) existing at the date of this notice shall be permitted as shall tanker delivery to underground storage tanks.

If it is necessary to replace any of the pump islands, dispensers and signage existing at the date of this notice, then the owner may replace such items but the owner shall not be entitled to allow any replacement to impede visibility across the land to either Te Ngae or Owata Roads to a greater extent than the pump islands, dispensers and signage existing at the date of this notice impede such visibility.
