REMOVALS

Corrigendum

SouthGas Holdings Limited (in liquidation)

Company No.: CH. 260863

The name of this company was returned to the Register on the 24th day of December 2001.

Its name had been struck off the Register on the 13th day of December 2000, under section 336 (6) of the Companies Act 1955 (in its pre-1 July 1994 form), on the grounds that no liquidator was acting in its liquidation.

However, this was incorrect.

The liquidator had informed the Registrar that the liquidation had not been completed.

The procedure commenced under section 336 was null and void (refer Re Crott's Application (1991) 5 NZCLC 67,325) and it is proper that the Register be corrected by returning the name of the company to the Register.

Dated at Auckland this 24th day of December 2001.

Charitable Trusts Act Notices

Te Awamutu Gracelands Trust

Notice of Application to Vary Terms of a Charitable Trust

In the matter of section 36 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and in the matter of Te Awamutu Gracelands Trust, a body duly incorporated under the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957—Applicant:

Take notice that on the 4th day of February 2002 at 2.15 p.m. or as soon thereafter as Counsel may be heard, the applicant will move the High Court at Hamilton for an order amending the terms of the trust and its administration as follows:

1. Revoking Clause 2.2 of the trust deed of the 18th day of October 1990 as amended by the deed of the 7th day of August 1995 and inserting in its place:

“2.2 The purposes of the Trust are to support those persons who by reason of physical or intellectual impairment or mental health disorder are unable to follow a vocation, or to obtain employment, or to enjoy full quality of life, by assisting them, with the participation of their community, to become full, contributing, and valued members of that community by way of providing employment, other real work opportunities, and meaningful activities.”

2. Revoking Clause 5 of the trust deed of the 18th day of October 1990 as amended by the deed of the 7th day of August 1995 and inserting in its place:

“5 The Board may by supplemental Deed executed pursuant to a resolution passed by a three quarters majority alter or add to the terms and provisions of this deed except that no such alteration or addition is to—

- 5.1 vary, alter or enlarge the charitable purposes specified in the Trust Deed as amended by this Order, or
- 5.2 detract from the exclusively charitable nature of the Trust or result in the distribution of its assets on winding up or dissolution for any purpose that is not exclusively charitable.”

Upon the grounds that granting the order will facilitate the administration of the trust which is at present subject to limitations imposed by the trust deed dated the 18th day of October 1990.

Upon the further grounds that those limitations include the purposes of the trust which, as expressed in the trust deed, are to benefit those persons with intellectual or physical disabilities when the board is increasingly being called upon and is in a good position to assist persons with other disabilities and special needs not strictly to be so described.

Upon the further grounds that the trustees have the power to amend the trust deed but not the appropriate clauses which are effectively entrenched.

Finally upon the further grounds that there have been continuing difficulties with the interpretation of the trust deed because of its formless and confusing provisions which will be redrafted once the matter of what provisions are to be made unalterable is decided by the Court.

Any person desiring to oppose the proposed amendments must give written notice of his or her intention to do so to the Registrar of the High Court at Hamilton, to the trustees of Te Awamutu Gracelands Trust at the address for service specified below and to the Attorney-General at the Crown Law Office, P.O. Box 5012, Wellington, not less than 7 clear days before the said date of hearing.

Dated this 17th day of December 2001.

SIMON BRDANOVIC, Solicitor for the Applicant.

The Address for Service of the Applicant is at the Offices of: Edmonds Judd, 15 Albert Park Drive (P.O. Box 35 or D.X. G.A. 29-009), Te Awamutu.

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand on the 18th day of December 2001, the Tribunal recorded that Lloyd Harlick, of Auckland, implicitly pleaded guilty to charges:

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member:

- who are able to contribute to their whanau, hapu and iwi.

In order to achieve this aim, at a fundamental level, the kura would require support from whanau including that:

- (a) the parents and the wider whanau must be prepared to play an active role in the life of the kura and must be committed to its aims.
- (b) the parents must be committed to developing and providing a reo Māori environment at home.

Purposes:

To provide an educational environment that promotes the educational vision, goals, objectives, management and self-determination of Te Ati Awa, Ngāti Raukawa and

Ngāti Toarangatira. In doing so, Te Kura-o-Whakatupuranga Rua Mano will contribute to closing the gap in educational outcomes between Māori and pakeha:

- (a) It is intended to provide for tamariki from new entrants to Year 13. Priority will be given to the tamariki of Te Ati Awa, Ngāti Raukawa and Ngāti Toarangatira, but if places are available for other children, they will also be considered.
- (b) The parents and the wider whanau must be prepared to play an active role in the life of the kura and must be committed to its vision.
- (c) The parents must be committed to developing and providing a reo Māori environment at home.

Objectives:

He aha te mea nui – he tangata, he tangata, he tangata. The Te Kura-o-Whakatupuranga Rua Mano whanau are strong advocates of the philosophy that the whanau are empowered to be the governors, managers and deliverers of their children's education. All whanau members therefore are contracted to accept the responsibility to ensure that this kura option is a successful option for their children. In practice this means that the kura will adopt a whanau approach to ensure that:

- (a) Matauranga Māori will form the foundation from which the curriculum is developed, to enable people to see the world through Māori eyes;
- (b) the National Education Guidelines are followed and a range of subjects are taught through the medium of te reo Māori;
- (c) the whanau of the tamariki are fully involved in the education of their children and are responsible for the kura;
- (d) the children of the kura will be fluent in te reo Māori and exponents of Matauranga Māori, particularly of that which is Te Ati Awa, Ngāti Raukawa and Ngāti Toarangatira. Those students whose reo is weak or who may struggle with a total immersion environment will be assisted to develop the required reo capacity;
- (e) the children will be high achievers academically, spiritually and culturally, and their academic achievements will give them a choice for tertiary education;
- (f) the special needs and abilities of students are catered for within a Māori learning environment;
- (g) the children will be equipped to become contributors to their whanau, hapu and iwi;
- (h) an appropriate reo Māori environment will be developed in the home of the children;
- (i) all prospective students and their whanau will be interviewed and will go through a hikoitanga (induction process) prior to acceptance; and
- (j) all prospective kaiako and whanau will be interviewed and will go through a hikoitanga (induction process) prior to acceptance.

5. Constitution of the board of trustees—The board of trustees of Te Kura-o-Whakatupuranga Rua Mano shall comprise:

- (a) Five people appointed by the Minister.
- (b) The principal or principal designate.
- (c) Not more than four persons co-opted by the board.

Dated at Wellington this 20th day of December 2001.

TREVOR MALLARD, Minister of Education.
