General Notices

Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision (Provisional Member Guilty of Breaching the Rules and/or Code of Ethics)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand on the 8th day of February 2002, the Tribunal recorded that Max Kelly Greer, a provisional member of Tauranga, pleaded guilty to charges:

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member:

- has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an accountant.
- has breached the Code of Ethics – FP5.

IN THAT

In the course of applying for and subsequently obtaining employment with an accounting firm, the member:

- improperly represented that he was a qualified chartered accountant when, in fact, he was not;
- improperly claimed that he held PCE1 and PCE2 qualifications when, in fact, he did not hold such qualifications;
- presented a reference of employment in circumstances when he knew it was false;
- presented a curriculum vitae in circumstances when he knew it falsely represented his qualifications;
- prepared a false curriculum vitae;
- prepared a false reference of employment.

Orders of the Tribunal:

- Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the Disciplinary Tribunal ordered that the name of Max Kelly Greer, of Tauranga, be removed from the Institute's Register.
- Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the Disciplinary Tribunal ordered that Max Kelly Greer pay to the Institute the sum of $3,708.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the Disciplinary Tribunal and the investigation by the Professional Conduct Committee.

In reaching its decision, the Tribunal emphasised the importance of members maintaining their integrity and that of the Institute. The Tribunal expressed concern at the nature of the charges.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the Disciplinary Tribunal directed that the decision be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand and the New Zealand Gazette with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 28 days after the notification of this Tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the Appeals Council of the Institute against the decision.

No decision, other than the direction as to publicity, shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the Appeals Council.

Dated this 11th day of February 2002.

MARK SHENNAN, Secretary, Disciplinary Tribunal.

Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision (Accounting Technician Member Guilty of Breaching the Rules and/or Code of Ethics)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand on the 8th day of February 2002, the Tribunal recorded that Malcolm Desmond Rabbitt, an accounting technician member of Alexandra, pleaded guilty to charges:

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member

- has breached the rules and/or code of ethics of the Institute.

IN THAT

- The member has been offering accounting services to the public through Rabbitt Accountancy Services in breach of Rule 18.2 of the Institute's rules due to the member not holding a certificate of public practice and in circumstances when the member is not entitled to be issued with a certificate of public practice by virtue of Rule 18.4; and/or
- in breach of Rule 18.1 (b), the member has engaged in conduct from which it may be reasonably inferred that the member has been offering accounting services to the public;
- the member has failed within a reasonable and proper time to reply to correspondence from the Professional Conduct Committee and Institute – Rule 21.30 (ha) and FP3.

The Tribunal noted that the member had submitted his resignation from the Institute but that it had not been accepted.

Orders of the Tribunal:

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the Disciplinary Tribunal ordered that the name of Malcolm Desmond Rabbitt, of Alexandra, be removed from the Institute's Register.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the Disciplinary Tribunal ordered that Malcolm Desmond Rabbitt pay to the Institute the sum of $3118.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the Disciplinary Tribunal and the investigation by the Professional Conduct Committee.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the Disciplinary Tribunal directed that the decision be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand, the New Zealand Gazette, the Otago Daily Times and the Central Otago News with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 28 days after the notification of this Tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the Appeals Council of the Institute against the decision.

No decision, other than the direction as to publicity, shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the Appeals Council.

Social Development

Social Security Act 1964

Earnings Supplement (Pilot) Programme

Pursuant to section 124 (1) (d) of the Social Security Act 1964, the Minister of Social Services and Employment establishes and approves the following welfare programme for special assistance.

Dated at Wellington this 31st day of January 2002.

MARIAN L. HOBBS, for Minister of Social Services and Employment.

Programme

1. Title—This programme is the Earnings Supplement (Pilot) Programme.

2. Commencement—This programme comes into effect on 1 February 2002.

3. Period for which programme effective—This programme continues in effect until the earlier of the following dates and then expires:

- The date on which amount of money expended under it equals the amount of money for the time being appropriated for the purposes of the programme;
- 30 June 2003.

4. Purpose—The purpose of this programme is:

- to trial an earnings supplement approach to making work pay for former beneficiaries in a specific industry and geographical location; and
- for that purpose, to improve the prospects of former beneficiaries selected by the department who have entered full-time and unsubsidised employment in the forestry industry in the East Coast region of remaining in that employment by providing a supplement to their earnings while they are learning their jobs, becoming work hardened, or both.

5. Interpretation—(1) In this programme, unless the context otherwise requires:

“Act” means the Social Security Act 1964.

“applicant” means a person who has applied in writing to the department for a supplement.

“approved employer” means an employer of forestry workers for the time being approved by the chief executive for the purposes of this programme.

“earnings supplement payment” or “supplement” means the special assistance under clause 7 of this programme.

“East Coast region” means area for the time being described as the East Coast administrative region of the department.

“forestry worker” means a person principally employed to plant, prune or thin trees.

“initial employment” means the period of employment after the employment commenced.

“work start grant” means the special assistance under clause 10 of this programme.

(2) Terms otherwise defined in section 3 (1) of the Act have the meanings so defined.

6. Application of Social Security Act 1964—(1) Sections 3 (1), 12, 62, 74 (a), 74A, 76, 80BD (1), 81, 82 (other than 82 (6) and (7)) and 84 of the Act apply to this programme as if an earnings supplement payment were a benefit under the Act.

(2) Nothing in subclause (1) limits or affects the application of any other provision of the Act to this programme.

7. Earnings supplement payments—(1) Subclause (2) applies to an applicant if:

- (a) the applicant is in full-time employment as a forestry worker for an approved employer within the boundaries of the East Coast region; and
- (b) the applicant was formerly in receipt of an income-tested benefit under the Act (not being an orphan’s benefit or an unsupported child’s benefit) that was cancelled because the applicant entered that employment; and
- (c) the applicant expects to remain employed as a forestry worker for at least 13 weeks after that employment commenced; and
- (d) the employer of the applicant is not receiving a wage subsidy from the department or any other person in respect of the applicant’s employment.

(2) The chief executive may, having regard to the matters set out in subclause (3), grant to an applicant to whom this subclause applies, earnings supplement payments at the rates and for the period set out in the appropriate Part of the Schedule.

(3) The matters referred to in subclause (2) are:

- (a) the period that has elapsed since the applicant entered the employment;
- (b) the degree of motivation of the applicant to become employed in and to make a career in the forestry industry;
- (c) the suitability of the applicant for employment as a forestry worker;
- (d) the numbers of applicants for assistance under this programme and the amount of money for the time being available to grant earnings supplement payments under it;
- (e) any other matters the chief executive considers relevant.

8. Commencement and payment of earnings supplement payments—(1) Unless subclause (4) applies, earnings supplement payments are payable in respect of each week of the applicant’s period of initial employment specified in the appropriate Part of the Schedule, commencing on the later of:

- (a) the week the applicant commenced the employment, if the application for the supplement is received before or within 10 working days after the date on which the applicant commenced the employment; or
- (b) the week the application for the supplement is received.

(2) Where subclause (1) (b) applies, the applicant must not be paid any earnings supplement payments for the period prior to the week in which the application for the supplement is received.

(3) Subclause (4) applies where:

- (a) an applicant has previously been in receipt of a supplement (“the previous supplement”) under this programme; and
- (b) the previous supplement ended before the end of the maximum period of initial employment referred to in the appropriate Part of the Schedule, because the applicant lost his or her employment as a forestry worker.

(4) Where this subclause applies:

- (a) the Schedule applies as if the period of employment in respect of which the previous supplement was paid was counted as part of the applicant’s initial employment; and
- (b) payments of the supplement may be made only in respect of the remaining period of the applicant’s initial employment (as so counted) referred to in the appropriate Part of the Schedule, commencing in the week the employment commenced; and
- (c) the appropriate Part of the Schedule is the Part that applied to the applicant when the previous supplement was payable.

(5) No earnings supplement payment is payable in respect of any week in which the applicant is absent from New Zealand.

9. Ending of earnings supplement payments—(1) Earnings supplement payments end:

- (a) when the maximum period of initial employment specified in the appropriate Part of the Schedule ends; or
- (b) earlier in accordance with section 80BD (1) of the Act.

(2) Despite subclause (1) (b), earnings supplement payments do not end earlier than the time referred to in subclause (1) (a) if:

- (a) the applicant moves out of the East Coast region but continues to be employed as a forestry worker by the same employer or another approved employer; or
- (b) the applicant’s employment with the approved employer terminates by reason of the applicant’s resignation, but the applicant commences employment as a forestry worker with another approved employer within a period of 5 working days of the termination.

10. Work start grant—(1) The chief executive may, having regard to the matters in clause 7 (3), make to an applicant to whom clause 7 (1) applies, a work start grant of not more than $500 towards the expenses incurred by the applicant for job-related clothing or equipment needed to commence employment as a forestry worker if:

- (a) the applicant has been granted, for the purposes of paying those expenses, a grant for specific transition to work expenses under, and as defined in, the Work Start Grant programme established and approved under section 124 (1) (d) of the Act; and
- (b) the amount of the grant under that programme is insufficient to pay those expenses.

(2) A grant under subclause (1) is in addition to the grant for those expenses under the Work Start Grant programme.

(3) Every grant made under subclause (1) must be paid:

- (a) where practicable, to the person providing the applicant with the job-related clothing or equipment; or
- (b) in the discretion of the chief executive, to the applicant.

Schedule

Canterbury Land District—Timaru District Council

First Schedule

Nature of Easement	Area m ²	Being	Marked
1. Telecommunication	1301	Part Lot 2, D.P. 75410 (part C.T. 43B/1200).	"B" on S.O. Plan 19582.
2. Right to convey electricity		Part Lot 2, D.P. 75410 (part C.T. 43B/1200).	"X-Y" on S.O. Plan 19582.
3. Telecommunication Protection Corridor	4207	Part Lot 2, D.P. 71349 (part C.T. 41B/846).	"A" on S.O. Plan 19582.

Definitions

"Line" means a "line" and "existing lines" as defined in the Telecommunications Act 1987.
"Telecommunication" has the meaning given to that word in the Telecommunications Act 1987.
"Works" means "works" and "existing works" as defined in the Telecommunications Act 1987.

Rights and Powers

The transferee shall have the full, free, uninterrupted and unrestricted right, liberty and privilege for the grantee, its employees, agents and contractors from time to time and at all times:

- to erect, install, occupy, use, operate and maintain works and lines for the purposes of telecommunication on, under and over the land, over which the telecommunication easement is granted; and
- to lay and maintain electricity cables under the land over which the easement of the right to convey electricity is granted and to use such electricity cables for the purposes of conveying electricity; and

3. to transmit and receive signs, signals, impulses, writing, images, sounds, instructions, information or intelligence of any nature over the land over which the telecommunication protection corridor easement is granted.
4. to enter upon the lands over which the easements for telecommunication and the right to convey electricity are granted, with or without vehicles and with materials, machinery and implements, and to remain there for the purposes of laying, maintaining, inspecting, repairing, renewing, replacing or altering any lines, works or electricity cables as the case may be and opening up the soil of that land to such an extent as may be necessary and reasonable in that regard, subject to the condition that as little disturbance as possible is caused to the surface of the land and that the surface is restored as nearly as possible to its original condition and any other damage done by reason of the aforesaid operations is required.

Second Schedule

Terms and Conditions of Easements

1. The telecommunication easement land may be fenced or left unfenced at the discretion of the grantee.
2. The registered proprietor of the land, subject to the telecommunication protection corridor easement, shall not grow or permit to be grown any trees, shrubs or bushes of any description on the easement land which will interfere with the rights granted.
3. The registered proprietor of the telecommunication protection corridor easement shall be permitted to graze the land but shall not in any way cause obstruction to or interfere with the transmission of signs, signals and impulses over the land.
4. The grantee may take such measures as it reasonably thinks necessary for the safety of persons or property on the telecommunication purposes easement land including without limitation the right to erect fences, signs and notices warning of any danger.
5. Nothing shall be construed to limit, remove, alter or restrict any rights, powers, remedies or actions which the grantee may have under the Telecommunications Act 1987 or any statutory amendment or re-enactment thereof.
6. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with these agreements shall be resolved by arbitration under the Arbitration Act 1996 and its amendments. The arbitrator shall decide the dispute according to the substantive law of New Zealand.
