Notice of Application to Vary Terms of a Charitable Trust

In the High Court of New Zealand, Hamilton Registry

M. No. 295/01

In the matter of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and in the matter of the estate of Valerie Mary Doreen Collier (deceased), and in the matter of an application by Marie Roberta Taylor, homemaker of Auckland—Applicant:

Notice is hereby given that Marie Roberta Taylor, as trustee of the will of Valerie Mary Doreen Collier ("Mrs Collier"), deceased farmer, late of Ngutunui, has filed in the office of the High Court at Hamilton an application for approval of a scheme varying the terms of her will under which her residuary estate is held.

Under Mrs Collier's will, the residue of her estate is to be held for various objects.

Under this scheme, the residue of her estate is to be held by a charitable trust to be known as The VMD Collier Charitable Trust upon trust to pay the capital and the income of the trust fund from time to time to assist and improve the circumstances under which sick and elderly persons in New Zealand die and to provide for such persons assistance, comfort or facilities.

A copy of the said scheme and the report of the Attorney-General thereon may be inspected, free of charge, at the office of the Registrar of the High Court at Hamilton or at the offices of Messrs Dix Koretz & Millar, Solicitors, Lawrence Street, Otorohanga.

The application has been set down for hearing in the High Court at Hamilton on Friday, the 10th day of May 2002.

Any person wishing to oppose the scheme is required to give notice of his or her intention to do so to the Registrar of the High Court at Hamilton and to the said Marie Roberta Taylor at the offices of Messrs Dix Koretz & Millar, Solicitors, Otorohanga, at the above address and the Attorney-General not less than 7 clear days before the date set down for hearing.

This advertisement is inserted by John Lindsay Millar of the firm of Dix Koretz & Millar, Solicitors, Lawrence Street (P.O. Box 41 or D.X. G.A. 29-503), Otorohanga (telephone: (07) 873 7179 or facsimile (07) 873 8326), as solicitor for the applicant Marie Roberta Taylor.

Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998

Notice of Exemption—URBUS Property Limited

The commission, pursuant to section 81 of the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998, exempts URBUS Property Limited (“URBUS”) from the application of section 17 of that Act in relation to prohibited cross-involvements in an electricity lines business and an electricity supply business.

The exemption is subject to the following terms and conditions, that:

- (a) URBUS shall not charge any tenant it supplies with electricity, for the use of or related to, any electricity lines business that URBUS owns or operates;
- (b) URBUS shall not prevent the access to its electricity lines, on reasonable terms and within a reasonable time, that any electricity supply business may require to supply electricity to any tenant connected to such lines;
- (c) URBUS shall not enforce any clause in any lease or other agreement with its tenants that requires a tenant to be supplied with electricity by URBUS, so that any tenant shall be free to choose that tenant's electricity supplier;

- (d) URBUS will use its best endeavours to provide such reasonable information that any tenant taking a supply of electricity from URBUS may request to enable that tenant to assess competitive options available to it for the supply of electricity;
- (e) URBUS does not generate electricity;
- (f) only administration costs directly relating to the provision of the lines service by URBUS may be passed on to tenants;
- (g) any administration costs must be clearly identified as such in tenants' invoices; and
- (h) URBUS provide to the commission on 30 June each year, all information necessary to demonstrate, to the commission's satisfaction, compliance by URBUS with (f) and (g) above.

The commission may vary or revoke this exemption in accordance with section 81 (5) of the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998.

The exemption takes effect from the date of publication of this notice in the New Zealand Gazette.

Notice of Exemption—Capital Properties New Zealand Limited and its subsidiary Capital Properties (Wellington) Limited

The commission, pursuant to section 81 of the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998, exempts Capital Properties New Zealand Limited ("CPNZ") and its subsidiary Capital Properties (Wellington) Limited ("CPW") from the application of section 17 of that Act in relation to prohibited cross-involvements in an electricity lines business and an electricity supply business.

The exemption is subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (a) Neither CPNZ nor CPW will charge any tenant, for the use of or related to, any electricity lines business owned or operated by CPNZ or CPW;
- (b) CPNZ and CPW will allow access to electricity lines owned by them or in their control, on reasonable terms and within a reasonable time, to any electricity supply business to enable such electricity supply business to supply electricity to any tenant of CPNZ or CPW connected to such lines;
- (c) Neither CPNZ nor CPW will enforce any obligation, in any lease or other agreement with their tenants, that requires a tenant to obtain electricity from or through CPNZ or CPW to enable any tenant to obtain electricity from or through any electricity supplier;
- (d) CPNZ and CPW will use their best endeavours to provide such reasonable information that any tenant being supplied electricity by either CPNZ or CPW may request, to enable that tenant to assess competitive options available to it for the supply of electricity; and
- (e) Neither CPNZ nor CPW generates, or is interested in the generation of, electricity.

In addition, the commission, pursuant to section 81 of the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998, exempts from the applications of sections 17, 18 and 30 of the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998 any business or involvement or interest in relation only to any future property investment and management activities that CPNZ and CPW might undertake, and in respect of which sections 17, 18 and/or 30 would apply.

The exemption to any business or involvement or interest in respect of any future property investment and management activities that CPNZ or CPW might undertake is given subject to the following terms and conditions being fully observed by the business or involvement or interest to which the exemption applies:

- (a) The terms and conditions as set out above in relation to the exemption given to the cross-involved entities; and
- (b) That CPNZ and/or CPW informs the commission of the details of any future property investment and/or management activity, within 20 working days (as that term is defined in the Commerce Act 1986) from the day following the day it undertakes the activity, that is likely to breach the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998 and for which CPNZ, CPW and/or any other persons are likely to rely on this exemption.

The commission may vary or revoke this exemption in accordance with section 81 (5) of the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998.

The exemption takes effect from the date of publication of this notice in the New Zealand Gazette.

British Settlements Act 1887

Officer of the Government of Ross Dependency Appointed

SILVIA CARTWRIGHT, Governor-General

Background:

- A. An Order in Council dated 30 July 1923* ("the order") made under the British Settlements Act 1887 (UK) appoints the Governor-General of New Zealand to be the Governor of the Ross Dependency ("the Governor") and vests in the Governor certain powers:
- B. The order empowers the Governor to make rules and regulations for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency:
- C. Regulations made by the Governor on 14 November 1923† provide that all persons appointed by the Governor may be empowered to do such things as may be necessary or desirable to ensure that the laws in force in the Dependency are duly observed and complied with in every respect, and to do all things necessary or expedient for the peace, order, and good government of the Dependency, and to safeguard and preserve Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty over and in respect of the Dependency:
- D. It is now expedient that Luke Thomas Jon Haddleton be appointed an officer of the Government of the Dependency:

Now therefore I, Dame Silvia Cartwright, the Governor-General of New Zealand, and as such the Governor of the Dependency, appoint to be an officer of the Government of the Dependency while he acts as Senior New Zealand Representative at Scott Base during the period beginning with this appointment and ending with the close of 10 October 2002.

I confer on Luke Thomas Jon Haddleton, while he holds office as an officer of the Government of the Dependency, all the powers exercisable in New Zealand by a Justice of the Peace, and also the powers exercisable in New Zealand by a Coroner.

Luke Thomas Jon Haddleton is to exercise his functions at such places within the Dependency as may be directed by an officer of the Government of the Dependency who has the general executive and administrative authority in preserving Her Majesty's rights and sovereignty and the laws in force in the Dependency.

As witness the hand of Her Excellency the Governor-General as the Governor of the Ross Dependency, this 14th day of March 2002.

PHIL GOFF, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Trade.

| Overall condition             | Check the general condition of the vehicle visually.Check that there are no obvious signs that may indicate that the vehicle is unsafe.   |                |               |
| Steering system               | Rotate the steering wheel back and forth quickly by 30 degrees about its straight-ahead position. In addition, for power steering, with the engine running, turn the steering wheel from lock to lock. There should be no abnormal noise, stiffness or looseness.   |                |               |
| Power steering                | Check the power steering for correct fluid level and for leaks.   |                |               |
| Tyre pressure                 | Check all tyre pressures and set to manufacturer's recommended pressures.   |                |               |
| Tyre condition                | Check that all road tyres have at least the minimum legal tread depth and that there are no cuts or bulges on tyre treads or sidewalls.   |                |               |
| Wheels and rims               | Check that there is no wheel or rim damage that could affect safe operation of the vehicle.   |                |               |
| Lighting system               | Check that all lights function correctly and that there are no broken lamp lenses.Check headlight aim if the vehicle is to be driven at night.  |                |               |
| Master cylinder and reservoir | Check for correct brake fluid level and for leaks.  |                |               |
| Brake pedal                   | Check that there is no excessive brake pedal travel or softness   |                |               |
| Brake hydraulic system        | Check the system integrity by putting full pressure on the brake pedal with the engine running and hold this for 20 seconds. There should be no creep of the pedal and there should be a minimum of 20% brake-pedal travel before it contacts the floor or any stop.  |                |               |
| Service brakes (foot brake)   | In a suitable location, check by driving the vehicle in a straight line on a level surface and lightly applying the foot brake. There should be no abnormal noise or knocking from the brakes, and no discernible pull on the steering wheel from the straight-ahead position. The vehicle should then be driven and the foot brake fully applied. Both front wheels should lock at the same time (unless ABS is fitted) and there should be no discernible deviation from the straight-ahead position. |                |               |

| Parking brake                     | Check the parking (hand) brake for excessive travel.Check that it will stop the vehicle.  |  |  |
| Seatbelt condition                | Check for each seatbelt fitted that the buckle fastens correctly, the webbing is not frayed and the anchorage bolts are secure.   |  |  |
| Airbag system                     | Check for each airbag fitted that the warning lamp indicates the airbag is operating correctly.   |  |  |
| Exhaust system                    | Check that there is no abnormal noise from the exhaust system that would suggest there is a leak or it is not properly mounted.   |  |  |
| Windscreen and windscreen wipers  | Check that the windscreen is not cracked in the vision area.Check that the windscreen washers and wipers are working and that the wiper blades are in good condition. |  |  |
| External projections/fittings | Check that there are no fittings or damage to the vehicle bodywork that could increase the risk of injury to pedestrians or other road users.                             |  |  |
| Rearview mirror                   | Check that the interior mirror, and for a goods vehicle the external mirrors, is in good condition, adjustable and affords the driver a clear view of the road behind.    |  |  |

Schedule 2*Vehicle Safety Check Inspection Requirements—Heavy Vehicles (GVM>3500kg)

| Item to be Checked                                  | Inspection Requirements   | Checked | Passed |
|--|--|----------------|---------------|
| Overall condition  | Check the general condition of the vehicle visually.Check that there are no obvious signs that may indicate that the vehicle is unsafe.  |                |               |
| Steering system  | Check the condition of the steering by turning the steering wheel from lock to lock whilst driving at slow speed. There should be no abnormal noise, stiffness or looseness. The steering wheel should then be rotated back and forth quickly about its straight-ahead position (by about 30 degrees) with the vehicle stationary. There should be no knocking or looseness.   |                |               |
| Power steering   | Check the power steering for correct fluid level and for leaks.Check power steering pump drive-belt for serviceability and correct tension.  |                |               |
| Tyre pressure and condition                                | Check that the tyre inflation is suitable for the journey.Check all road tyres for damage.Check that the tread depth is within legal requirements.   |                |               |
| Wheels and rims  | Check that there is no damage to wheels or rims that could affect the safe operation of the vehicle.Check wheel nuts for tightness.Check security of the spare wheel.  |                |               |
| Lighting system  | Check that all lights function correctly and that there are no broken lamp lenses.Check headlight aim if the vehicle is to be operated in the hours of darkness or in poor visibility.   |                |               |
| Brake hydraulic system and master cylinder (as applicable) | Check the system integrity by putting full pressure on the brake pedal with the engine running and hold this for 20 seconds. There should be no creep of the pedal and there should be a minimum of 20% brake-pedal travel before it contacts the floor or any stop.Check the brake master cylinder for correct brake fluid level and for leaks.   |                |               |
| Brake air system (as applicable)                           | Check brake pipes and fittings for air leaks and for damage.Check that the air-brake reservoir is clear of fluids (drain).Charge the air system by running the engine. With the engine stopped, apply the service brake fully 5 times. The low air pressure warning must not come on. Apply the service brake repeatedly until the low air pressure warning comes on. Start the engine and check that the full system pressure is achieved within reasonable time. |                |               |
| Service brakes (foot brake)                                | Check that the service brake is functioning correctly by driving the vehicle in a straight line on a level surface and lightly applying the foot brake. There should be no abnormal noise or knocking from the brakes. During this test, the steering wheel should be very lightly held and there should be no discernible pull from the straight-ahead position.  |                |               |

| Horn                                  | Check that the horn functions correctly.  |  |  |
| Exhaust system                        | Check that there is no abnormal noise from the exhaust system that would suggest there is a leak or it is not properly mounted.   |  |  |
| Glazing and windscreen wipers         | Check that the windscreen and other glazing necessary for driving visibility is clear, clean and is not damaged in the vision area, and that the windscreen washers and wipers are working correctly.   |  |  |
| Bodywork and chassis                  | Check the vehicle bodywork and chassis for damage and corrosion that is likely to affect its safe operation. If the vehicle is fitted with a tilting cab, check that it is properly locked.Check that any parts shipped with the vehicle are secured and/or tied down.Drive the vehicle at a low speed and in low gear, push down the accelerator pedal fully then release it repeatedly. Check that there is no abnormal noise from the driveline that would indicate excessive wear or looseness. |  |  |
| Mirrors                               | Check the mirrors to ensure they are securely mounted, adjustable and afford the driver a clear view of the road behind.  |  |  |
| Over-dimension permit (as applicable) | If the vehicle is over-dimension, a permit is to be obtained for the single journey. (A permit can be obtained from the over-dimension permit issuing office.)  |  |  |

Schedule 3*Annex B Conditional Permit for Operation of an Uncertified Vehicle

This conditional permit applies to a vehicle to which section 6 of Land Transport Rule: Vehicle Standards Compliance 2002 (“the rule”) applies, that has not been certified for entry or re-entry into service (“an uncertified vehicle”), and is to be operated under the conditions in 10.3 (1) and for the purposes in 10.4 of the rule.
