The Government Superannuation Fund Authority hereby determines the methods for calculating interest to be paid and charged under various sections of the Government Superannuation Fund Act 1956 as follows:

- (i) In respect of interest paid, pursuant to sections 18, 42 (3) or 42 (6):

“The rate shall be calculated in respect of each year of the deemed investment as the equivalent of the Fund's after tax investment return for that year, and in respect of any period for which the Fund's investment return has not yet been published or periods of less than a year, the after tax equivalent of the 90 day bank bill rate published by the Reserve Bank for the relevant period.”
