Charitable Trusts Act Notices

Mental Health Foundation of New Zealand

Notice of Application to Vary Terms of a Charitable Trust

In the matter of section 36 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957, and in the matter of Mental Health Foundation of New Zealand, a body duly incorporated under the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act 1957—
Applicant:

Take notice that on the 8th day of July 2002 at 2.15 p.m., or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, the applicant will move the High Court at Auckland for an order amending the terms of the trust and its administration as follows:

1. To make minor wording changes to the objects clause by way of clarification. The principal objects of the trust will remain the same;
2. To reduce the minimum number of trustees from twelve (12) to eight (8);
3. To entitle the chief executive officer of the foundation to attend board meetings, but not to vote;
4. To place a limit of three (3) consecutive terms on the number of times that a board member may be re-appointed;
5. To ensure that a member of the board shall cease to hold office if the member is absent from three (3) consecutive board meetings without reasonable excuse;
6. To place a limitation on the number of times that a chairperson can stand. A chairperson retiring will be eligible for re-election if the chairperson only holds such office for three (3) consecutive terms;
7. To empower the board to do and perform in respect of the trust anything in furtherance of the objects of the trust and the second paragraph of the preamble;
8. To require the board to consider the skills and attributes of nominees in light of the skills and attributes needed by the board at the time to achieve the objects of the foundation;
9. To require the board to use reasonable endeavours to ensure that the population of New Zealand is accurately represented on the board along with consumers of mental health services;
10. To alter representation of Māori on the board from being a fixed number of four (4) to being at least one-third of the board;
11. To insert the following into clause 7 (c):

“The board will endeavour to have Māori representation at all meetings.”

12. To replace the words:

“executive committee”

with the words:

“finance committee”

in clause 7 (c);

13. To provide for resolutions to be signed by a majority of the board instead of all board members;
14. To allow meetings of the board to be called by four (4) instead of six (6) board members;
15. To remove the requirement of having a patron of the foundation and replace it with the ability to appoint either a patron or kaumatua to the board;
16. To insert a definition of:

“property incurred losses and expenses”

 to clarify and limit trustees liabilities when they are acting in good faith and on the reasonable belief that their actions are furthering the objects and interests of the foundation;
17. To widen the foundation’s powers to provide for parts of the trust deed to be varied under special resolution of the board provided that a two-thirds majority of the board (including at least one Māori representative) believes that such variation will facilitate the foundation in carrying out its objects; and
18. To remove the rules of the foundation from the trust deed as there is no legal need for their inclusion.

Upon the grounds that granting the order will facilitate the administration of the trust, which at present is subject to limitations imposed by the trust deed dated the 25th day of October 1990.

Upon the further grounds that the trustees have the power to amend the trust deed, but not changes to the objects of the trust, which will continue to require the prior approval of the High Court.

Upon the further grounds that circumstances primarily in 2002 are quite different to those which prevailed in 1990.

Any person desiring to oppose the proposed amendments must give written notice of his or her intention to do so to the Registrar of the High Court at Auckland, to the trustees of the Mental Health Foundation of New Zealand at the address for service specified below, and to the Attorney-General at the Crown Law Office, P.O. Box 5012, Wellington, not less than 7 clear days before the said date of hearing.

Dated this 29th day of April 2002.

GRAEME WILLIAM HALL, Solicitor for the Applicant.

The Address for Service of the Applicant is at the Offices of: Buddle Findlay, Solicitors, Level Eighteen, PricewaterhouseCoopers Tower, 188 Quay Street (P.O. Box 1433 or D.X. C.P. 24-024), Auckland.

Economic DevelopmentDumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988*Anti-dumping Duties: Notice That Anti-dumping Duties on Hog Bristle Paintbrushes From China May Cease to Apply

Under section 14 (9) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988 ("the Act"), anti-dumping duties imposed on hog bristle paintbrushes from China* will cease to apply to those goods on 29 October 2002 unless, at that date, the goods are subject to review under section 14 (8) of the Act.

Any interested party that might request the Chief Executive of the Ministry of Economic Development to initiate a review before the cessation date referred to above, should be aware that positive evidence justifying the need for a review must be provided to the Chief Executive.

If an application is received which provides positive evidence justifying the need for a review, the Chief Executive must undertake and complete a review investigation, within 180 days of initiation, on whether the anti-dumping duties should continue to be applied.

Positive evidence justifying the need for a review would need to include reasons for believing that the expiry of anti-dumping duties would be likely to lead to the continuation or recurrence of dumping of hog bristle paintbrushes from China and of material injury to the New Zealand industry producing hog bristle paintbrushes.

The reasons should be supported by evidence and not based on mere allegations or assertions.

Radiocommunications Act 1989Statement of Government Policy and Directions to Chief Executive of Ministry of Economic Development

To: The Chief Executive of Ministry of Economic Development.

Pursuant to section 112 of the Radiocommunications Act 1989 ("the Act"), I hereby give you notice that it is part of the general policy of the Government, in relation to your functions, duties and powers under the Radiocommunications Regulations 2001 (“the regulations”)—

A That for the purposes of this notice, any applicant for a non-commercial broadcasting licence must meet the following criteria:

- (i) The applicant must not be a rightholder of a spectrum licence which could be used for the purpose; and
- (ii) the constitution or articles of association of the applicant or funding organisation show it to be clearly non-profit in nature; and
- (iii) the applicant can demonstrate that it does not intend to operate its service at a profit, can identify a permanent fund-raising mechanism to cover its costs, and is demonstrably financially viable and sustainable within existing public funding arrangements; and
- (iv) the format the applicant proposes is not operated by other stations on a “for profit” basis, and must complement and provide alternative services to those offered by existing broadcasters; and
- (v) the applicant is not primarily intending to raise funds for charitable purposes; and
- (vi) the applicant is not paying higher than market rates for salaries or for other services. Such rates of payment would be taken to indicate a de-facto commercial service where proprietors received financial benefits for their services; and
- (vii) advertising (or decoder revenue) is not planned to be more than 50% of the revenue. Taken as a general guideline, this would demonstrate the good faith of the organisation in respect of its intentions to operate on a non-profit basis; and
- (viii) the service is driven by programming tailored to a particular audience rather than the need to deliver a desired audience for advertisers; and

B That the Government’s broadcasting policy objectives are to:

- (i) ensure that all New Zealanders have reasonable and regular access to broadcasting representing the uniqueness and diversity of New Zealand life, recognising that the histories and stories of whanau, hapu and iwi are integral to any description of that life; and
- (ii) meet the information and entertainment needs of as many interests as reasonably possible, including those that cannot be met by commercial broadcasting; and
- (iii) contribute to public awareness of and participation in the political and social debates of the day; and
- (iv) provide for minority interests and increased choice; and
- (v) encourage innovation and creativity in broadcasting while aiming to continually increase audience satisfaction with the quality of the content; and

C That there should be competition in the provision of telecommunication services; and

D That in the granting of radio licences, consideration should be given to permitting a range of uses and users in any given frequency band; and

E That until a decision is made concerning the creation of management rights in bands allocated for broadcasting services, radio licences granted pursuant to Regulation 8 of the Regulations should be limited to:

- (i) maintaining the coverage of services provided by existing licensees; or
- (ii) facilitating the establishment of the service known as National Radio in the FM radio broadcasting band; or
- (iii) implementing new television broadcasting services where the primary objective is the promotion of Maori language and culture; or
- (iv) implementing new television broadcasting services where such services are undertaken otherwise than for profit; and

F That until a decision is made concerning the creation of management rights in bands that are subject to international planning processes for the introduction of new technologies and services, radio licences granted pursuant to Regulation 8 of the Regulations should be limited to:

- (i) facilitating the transition of existing licensed services to alternative frequencies; and
- (ii) demonstrating, subject to protecting existing licensed services, the operation of new technologies; and

G That licensing of New Zealand originated short wave radio broadcasting, in frequency bands below 30 MHz allocated to broadcasting under Article s5 of the ITU International Radio Regulations, should be consistent with the foreign policy of the Government of New Zealand; and

H That adequate provision should be made, in common frequency bands where practicable, for the licensing of services operated by Government departments and Crown agencies, where the primary objective of such services is the protection of life and property; and

I That adequate provision should be made, pursuant to Regulation 9 of the Regulations and in common frequency bands where practicable, for the licensing of classes of low-powered radio transmitters.

Pursuant to the above policies, I hereby direct you as follows:

1. You shall not grant new radio licences for services in the ranges of frequencies:

- (a) 525 kHz to 1705 kHz;
- (b) 88 MHz to 108 MHz,
- (c) 494 MHz to 806 MHz;
- (d) 1461.5 MHz to 1490 MHz;
- (e) 11.7 GHz to 12.2 GHz;

except where the granting of radio licences is necessary for the purpose of:

- (i) maintaining the coverage of services provided by existing licensees; or
- (ii) facilitating, by means of short-term licences, the transition of existing licensed services to alternative frequencies; or
- (iii) demonstrating, by means of short-term licences and subject to the protection of existing licensed services, the operation of new technologies; or
- (iv) facilitating the transfer of the service known as National Radio to the range of frequencies 88 MHz to 108 MHz; or
- (v) implementing new television broadcasting services in the range of frequencies 582 MHz to 614 MHz, where the primary objective is the promotion of Maori language and culture; or
- (vi) implementing new television broadcasting services in the range of frequencies 614 MHz to 646 MHz, where such services are undertaken otherwise than for profit; or

- (vii) facilitating the short-term operation of non-broadcasting services in the range of frequencies 494 MHz to 518 MHz for specific events.

In granting applications for radio licences for television services under subsection (vi), you shall have regard to the following matters:

1. The extent to which the proposed service contributes to Government's broadcasting objectives.
2. The extent to which the proposed service is consistent with the definition of a non-commercial broadcaster.
3. The capability of the proposed service to commence within two years.
4. The extent to which the proposal increases the diversity of programme choice for viewers.
5. The extent to which a proposal can provide non-commercial services not being provided on a national level. These may include Parliamentary broadcasts, educational services such as foreign language programming, religious programming, coverage of minority sports, and New Zealand documentaries and short films.
6. The extent to which the proposal provides access to local and regional programme makers.
7. The extent of geographic coverage possible for non-commercial services, given spectrum capacity.
8. The extent to which time is made available for non-commercial uses, including prime time.
9. The extent to which the proposal can demonstrate that its overall objective is "not for profit".
10. The prospect that the proposal will be implemented.
11. The extent to which the proposal contains sufficient accountability mechanisms to ensure that it delivers on its undertakings to provide services. Arrangements may include:
 - A. mechanisms for equitable allocation of air time amongst all interested users;
 - B. procedures for resolving disputes over allocation of time to users;
 - C. systems for ensuring efficient management of services;
 - D. provision of satisfactory services to the full variety of audiences to be catered for;
 - E. mechanisms for ensuring compliance by all users on the frequency with broadcasting standards;
12. Any potential future public benefit from providing for the transition of services to digital transmission; and
13. Any other benefits the proposal may offer.

2. Application of this notice—You shall comply with the directions set out above in relation to all applications for radio licences, including applications made before the date of this notice but not dealt with before that date.

3. Revocation of previous notices—All previous statements of Government policy made pursuant to section 112 of the Act are hereby revoked.
