Notice

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice may be cited as the “Final Determination: Dumping Investigation in Respect of Canned Peaches from South Africa, Amendment No. 3”, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the notice entitled “Final Determination of Dumping Investigation: Canned Peaches from South Africa” dated 2 August 1996 and published in the New Zealand Gazette, 8 August 1996, No. 82, page 2176 (hereinafter referred to as the principal notice).

For subject goods imported by Brooke Holdings Limited (Brooke Holdings) from Langeberg Foods Limited/Tiger Brands Group (Langeberg), for each can size and grade of canned peaches for which either a Non-Injurious Free on Board or Normal Value (Value For Duty Equivalent) amount has been established (as set out in the table below), the amount by which the Non-Injurious Free On Board amount or Normal Value (Value For Duty Equivalent) amount exceeds the New Zealand Value For Duty of the goods when entered for home consumption.

- B. For subject goods imported by all importers (other than Brooke Holdings) from Langeberg, for each can size and grade of canned peaches for which a Normal Value (Value For Duty Equivalent) amount has been established (as set out in the table below), the amount by which the Normal Value (Value For Duty Equivalent) amount exceeds the New Zealand Value For Duty of the goods when entered for home consumption.

In the case of can sizes that are subject goods but for which separate rates have not been established in the table below, the rate of duty that shall apply shall be based on the estimated Non-Injurious Free On Board amount or estimated Normal Value (Value for Duty Equivalent) amount which will be calculated by reference to the proportion of net weight that it represents when compared to the amount established for a can of the closest size.

Established can sizes and Normal Value (Value for Duty Equivalent) or Non-Injurious Free-on-Board rates. All non-confidential values published in this notice are in South African rand.

Justice

Crimes Act 1961

Reference to the High Court of the Question of the 10 Convictions of Alec Kynaston Waugh for Using a Document With Intent to Defraud

SILVIA CARTWRIGHT, Governor-General
ORDER IN COUNCIL

At Wellington this 28th day of June 2002

Present:

RIGHT HONOURABLE HELEN CLARK PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

Her Excellency the Governor-General, acting under section 406 (a) of the Crimes Act 1961 and on the advice and with the consent of the Executive Council, refers the question of the convictions of Alec Kynaston Waugh for the offence of using a document with intent to defraud to the High Court for hearing and determination. The background to, and the reason for, the reference appear in the Schedule.

Schedule

1. Interpretation—In this Schedule—

applicant means Alec Kynaston Waugh.

Background

2. Conviction and sentence—(1) On 16 March 1998, the applicant was convicted in the District Court at Wanganui on 10 counts of using a document with intent to defraud, contrary to section 229A of the Crimes Act 1961.

(2) On 16 March 1998, the applicant was sentenced by the District Court at Wanganui to a fine of $1,000.00 on each of the charges he was convicted on, and ordered to pay $4,000.00 towards the costs of the prosecution and $130.00 Court costs.

3. Circumstances of applicant's plea of guilty—(1) The applicant was a police officer of 32 years' standing. He appeared in the District Court at Wanganui on 23 February 1998 on 21 charges of using a document with intent to defraud, contrary to section 229A of the Crimes Act 1961. The charges related to claims for reimbursement from his employer of travel expenses and telephone charges. The applicant entered a plea of not guilty. After the prosecution case was heard, the defence elected to call evidence. Counsel for the defence indicated that he intended to call the applicant and 16 other witnesses.

(2) The applicant gave evidence in chief for two days. Just before the afternoon adjournment on the second day, Thursday, 12 March 1998, counsel were called into the Judge's chambers. In chambers, the Judge asked what effect the proceedings could have on the applicant's superannuation and, because counsel seemed unsure, suggested that enquiries be made. The applicant and his counsel decided to check the applicant's pension rights following a conviction via a third solicitor, who contacted Police National Headquarters and relayed the information back to the applicant's counsel.

(3) The information given to the applicant regarding the applicant's pension rights was that—

- (a) in the event that the applicant was convicted of an offence and consequently dismissed, the Police Commissioner had a discretion to withhold the employer's contributions and the applicant would not be entitled as of right to the option of deferring the commencement of the pension; and

- (b) if the applicant were to resign, the resignation would have the effect of enabling the applicant to receive the employer contributions and to have the deferral option; and

- (c) the police would only accept a resignation if it was offered before any conviction was entered against him.

(4) The applicant resigned from the police on Sunday, 15 March 1998, and pleaded guilty to 10 of the charges against him on Monday, 16 March 1998. Soon after this, the applicant discovered that the information regarding his pension rights was incorrect and that his pension was not liable to reduction in the event of dismissal.

(5) Counsel for the Crown advised the applicant's counsel on Thursday, 12 March 1998, that if the applicant continued with his evidence the Crown would have a case of perjury against him. The next day, counsel for the Crown twice raised the issue of a perjury charge if the applicant continued to defend the case. Counsel for the applicant informed the applicant of the perjury threats and advised the applicant that the perjury threats should be taken seriously.

4. Applicant's application for exercise of mercy of the Crown—

(1) The applicant's application for the exercise of the mercy of the Crown in respect of his 10 convictions for using a document with intent to defraud was made on 26 June 2001.

(2) Two of the grounds of the application are that—

- (a) misinformation from the police concerning the effect on the applicant's pension rights were the applicant to be dismissed influenced the applicant's decision to plead guilty; and

- (b) threats of perjury charges if the applicant continued to give evidence influenced the applicant's decision to plead guilty.

5. Documents—(1) The following documentary material was considered in determining the application:

- (a) the petition and two volumes of documents (Appendices 1-76) filed in its support;
- (b) the District Court record;
- (c) the Ministry of Justice file;
- (d) the report of Sir Thomas Thorp dated 29 April 2002 re a petition for the exercise of the Royal prerogative of mercy by Alec Kynaston Waugh, in which Sir Thomas Thorp concludes that—

- (i) while the final decision of the applicant to plead guilty to 10 charges may well have been motivated by other factors than his concern that he might lose pension rights, it is probable that the misinformation about those rights and the perceived need to protect them were the predominant reasons for the applicant's change of plea; and

- (ii) while it is more difficult to assess how far the threats of a perjury charge may have affected the applicant's decision to plead guilty, it is at least probable that to some extent they did.

Reason

6. Reason—The reason for the reference is that the documents described in clause 5 indicate that evidence is available that could lead the High Court to the conclusion that the applicant's pleas of guilty were the result of improper pressures and, therefore, that there may have been a miscarriage of justice.

MARIE SHROFF, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Reference to the Court of Appeal of the Question of the Conviction of Peter Zane Bryers for Sexual Violation by Rape

SILVIA CARTWRIGHT, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At Wellington this 13th day of June 2002

Present:

RIGHT HONOURABLE HELEN CLARK PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

Her Excellency the Governor-General, acting under section 406 (a) of the Crimes Act 1961 and on the advice and with the consent of the Executive Council, refers the question of the conviction of Peter Zane Bryers for the offence of sexual violation by rape to the Court of Appeal for hearing and determination. The background to the reference, and the reason for it, appear in the Schedule.

Schedule

1. Interpretation—In this Schedule—

applicant means Peter Zane Bryers.

Background

2. Information about trial, appeal, and serving of sentence and liability to detention in hospital—(1) On 12 September 1996, the applicant was convicted in the District Court at Auckland on one count of sexual violation by rape.

(2) On 26 September 1996, the applicant was sentenced by the District Court at Auckland to seven years' imprisonment.

(3) On 3 September 1998, the Court of Appeal—

(a) dismissed the applicant's appeal against his conviction; and

(b) dismissed his appeal against sentence.

(4) On or about 7 April 2000, an order was made under section 45 (2) of the Mental Health (Compulsory Assessment and Treatment) Act 1992 as a result of which the applicant served the balance of his sentence as a special patient under that Act. The applicant has ceased to be liable to be detained under his sentence but remains subject to a compulsory treatment order.

3. Circumstances of applicant's plea of guilty—(1) On first appearing in the District Court at Auckland, on 20 May 1996, the applicant was assigned counsel, Mr Adam Couchman, who sought and obtained a referral of the applicant to Forensic Psychiatric Services.

(2) A series of psychiatric reports were commissioned and completed in relation to the applicant's mental state, culminating in a report dated 4 September 1996 by Dr David Chaplow, in which Dr Chaplow concludes that, in his opinion, the applicant was not under legal disability.

(3) On 27 June 1996, because of concerns about the applicant's proposed plea, Mr Adam Couchman sought the leave of the District Court to withdraw from the case, and was replaced by Mr Richard Earwaker.

(4) On 26 August 1996, the applicant gave Mr Earwaker written instructions that the applicant wished to plead guilty to the charge of rape. On 12 September 1996, because of his concerns about the applicant's proposed plea, Mr Earwaker had the applicant confirm his written instructions in the presence of Mr Couchman.

(5) The applicant then pleaded guilty and a conviction was entered.

4. Applicant's first application for exercise of mercy of the Crown—(1) The applicant made an application, by informal letter to the Governor-General in late 1998, for the exercise of the mercy of the Crown in respect of his conviction for sexual violation by rape.

(2) The grounds of the application were—

(a) that the applicant had inadequate legal representation at his trial and, in particular, that the applicant was wrongly advised by his counsel to plead guilty; and

(b) that the complainant had consented to the sexual connection concerned.

(3) The applicant was declined.

5. Applicant's second application for exercise of mercy of the Crown—(1) The applicant made a second application, dated 16 January 2002, for the exercise of the mercy of the Crown in respect of his conviction for sexual violation by rape.

(2) The grounds of the application are, among others, that there is fresh evidence—

(a) that casts doubt on the fitness of the applicant to plead at the time he was called upon to do so; or

(b) that indicates that a defence of insanity may have been available to the applicant.

6. Documents—The applicant tendered the following documents, among others, in support of the application:

(a) an affidavit dated 30 March 2001 by Mr Adam Couchman setting out his—

(i) anxiety about the mental state of the applicant; and

(ii) reasons for withdrawing from the case;

(b) an affidavit dated 30 July 2001 by Mr Richard Earwaker setting out the circumstances of the applicant's pleading guilty to the charge;

(c) a report dated 29 December 2000 by Dr David Chaplow, in which Dr Chaplow concludes that, in his opinion, the applicant, at the time of being called upon to plead, "may have been adversely affected by delusional perceptions swaying him to plead guilty rather than allowing his counsel to put a defence of 'insanity' to the Court".

Reason

7. Reason—The reason for the reference is that the documents described in clause 6 indicate that evidence is available that could lead the Court of Appeal to the conclusion that the applicant may not have been fit to plead at the time he was called upon to do so, or may have had available to him a defence of insanity, and that a miscarriage of justice might have occurred.
