Health

Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001

Designation of Auditing Agency

Pursuant to section 32 of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001 (“the Act”), the Director-General of Health designates Bureau Veritas Quality International (“the auditing agency”) to audit the provision or likely future provision of the following kinds of health care services:

Hospital Care (as defined in section 4 (1) of the Act) excluding children’s health services and maternity services

Rest Home Care (as defined in section 6 (2) of the Act)

Residential Disability Care (as defined in section 4 (1) of the Act) excluding sensory disability

This designation is subject to the following conditions:

1. The auditing agency must ensure that where it audits the provision of health care services for people with physical disabilities, or intellectual disabilities, or psychiatric disabilities or mental illnesses, the auditing agency observes the following:

- For audits involving services for people with physical disabilities, a person with a pronounced physical disability must fully participate in all aspects of the audit.
- For audits involving services for people with intellectual disabilities, a person with an intellectual disability (accompanied by a support person where necessary), or a close family or whanau member of a person with an intellectual disability, must participate in all aspects of the audit.

- For people with psychiatric disabilities or mental illnesses, a past or present consumer of mental health services must fully participate in all aspects of the audit.

2. The auditing agency must inform the Ministry of Health immediately by way of written notice if there is any change to their accreditation status with JAS-ANZ.

This notice revokes in its entirety the notice that first designated Bureau Veritas Quality International, pursuant to section 32 of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001, published in the New Zealand Gazette, 8 August 2002, No. 94, page 2552.

Dated at Wellington this 7th day of October 2002 and expiring on the 7th day of October 2005.

Justice

Crimes Act 1961

Reference to the High Court of the Question of the Sentence of Benjamin Tuitama for Aggravated Robbery

SILVIA CARTWRIGHT, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At Wellington this 7th day of October 2002

Present:

RIGHT HONOURABLE HELEN CLARK PRESIDING IN COUNCIL
 Her Excellency the Governor-General, acting under section 406 (a) of the Crimes Act 1961 and on the advice and with the consent of the Executive Council, refers the question of the sentence of Benjamin Tuitama for the offence of aggravated robbery to the High Court for reconsideration. The background to, and the reason for, the reference appear in the Schedule.

Schedule

1. Interpretation—In this Schedule:

“the applicant” means Benjamin Tuitama.

Background

2. Conviction and sentence—(1) On 30 March 2000, the applicant was convicted in the District Court at Otahuhu on one count of aggravated robbery, contrary to section 235 (1) (c) of the Crimes Act 1961.

(2) On 18 May 2000, the applicant was sentenced by the District Court at Otahuhu to four years and nine months' imprisonment.

3. Circumstances surrounding the applicant's sentencing

(1) The applicant and two other persons robbed a Shell service station in Otahuhu on the morning of 27 February 2000. On 5 March 2000, the applicant voluntarily attended at the police station when advised by one of his co-accused that the police wished to speak with him about the incident. At the police station, the applicant made a confession. The applicant indicated to police that he intended to admit the offending once he was brought before the court.

(2) The applicant appeared in the District Court at Otahuhu the following day and was assigned counsel. The applicant advised counsel of his wish to plead guilty immediately, but was persuaded to defer entering that plea until 30 March 2000.

(3) The applicant informed his counsel that his two co-accused intended to enter the Odyssey House programme before entering a plea so that the co-accused could deal with alcohol and drug abuse issues, which were allegedly contributing factors to their offending. The applicant's counsel advised the applicant that his attendance at the Odyssey House programme might be regarded by the Court as prevarication and that delaying the Court process for this purpose might also be seen as a failure by the applicant to promptly and fully accept responsibility for his actions.

(4) On the basis of that advice, the applicant entered a plea of guilty to the charge of aggravated robbery when he reappeared before the Court on 30 March 2000. The applicant was convicted on that date and sentenced on 18 May 2000 to four years and nine months' imprisonment.

(5) An appeal to the High Court against his sentence, on 26 September 2000, was dismissed, and an application for special leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal was also dismissed.

(6) Subsequently, on 20 December 2000, the applicant's two co-offenders were sentenced to terms of three years' imprisonment respectively. The Judge sentencing the applicant's two co-offenders concluded that there were no significant differences between the level of culpability of the two co-offenders and the applicant. The sentencing Judge also indicated that there were no personal factors significant enough to justify a disparity in sentence between the applicant and his co-offenders. The difference that appears to have most influenced the Judge's decision to impose lesser sentences on the applicant's two co-offenders was the steps that the co-offenders had taken towards rehabilitation through attendance at the Odyssey House programme.

(7) On learning of the sentences imposed on his co-offenders, the applicant filed a further application for special leave to appeal to the Court of Appeal on the basis of the disparity of treatment between him and his co-offenders. That application was dismissed on 20 June 2001 because the Court of Appeal has jurisdiction to grant such leave only in relation to questions of law.

4. Applicant's application for exercise of mercy of the Crown—(1) The applicant's application for the exercise of the mercy of the Crown in respect of his sentence for his conviction for aggravated robbery was made on 16 July 2001.

(2) The ground of this application is that the only material difference between the applicant's circumstances and those of his two co-offenders is that he chose to accept his counsel's advice to promptly plead guilty, rather than attend the treatment programme that was proffered. The applicant contends that, in the circumstance of the case, the marked disparity between the sentence imposed on the applicant and the sentences imposed on his two co-offenders gives an impression of injustice. The applicant also contends that the disparity may bring the administration of justice into disrepute.

5. Documents—The following documentary material was considered in determining the application:

- (a) The petition;
- (b) R v. Tuitama (CA44/O1, 20 June 2001, Gault, Robertson, Hammond JJ);
- (c) notice of the applicant's appeal to the Court of Appeal and supporting material;
- (d) Tuitama v. Police (High Court, Auckland, A131/00, 26 September 2000, Fisher J);
- (e) information, summary of facts, police statement, victim impact statement, pre-sentence report, references, reparation report, and sentencing notes relating to the applicant's trial; and
- (f) pre-sentence reports on the applicant's co-offenders.

Reason

6. Reason—The reason for the reference is that the documents described in clause 5 indicate that, in the circumstances of the case, the marked disparity between the sentence imposed on the applicant and the sentences imposed on his co-offenders may be seen as unfair and could tend to undermine the administration of justice.

MARIE SHROFF, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Reference to the Court of Appeal of the Question of the Conviction of Michael Thomas Palmer for Assault With Intent to Injure

SILVIA CARTWRIGHT, Governor-General

ORDER IN COUNCIL

At Wellington this 7th day of October 2002

Present:

RIGHT HONOURABLE HELEN CLARK PRESIDING IN COUNCIL

Her Excellency the Governor-General, acting under section 406 (a) of the Crimes Act 1961 and on the advice and with the consent of the Executive Council, refers the question of the conviction of Michael Thomas Palmer for the offence of assault with intent to injure to the Court of Appeal for reconsideration. The background to, and the reason for, the reference appear in the Schedule.

Schedule

1. Interpretation—In this Schedule:

“the applicant” means Michael Thomas Palmer.

Background

2. Conviction, sentence and appeal—(1) On 12 October 2000, the applicant was convicted in the District Court at Whangarei on one count of assault with intent to injure, contrary to section 193 of the Crimes Act 1961.

(2) On 7 November 2000, the applicant was sentenced by the District Court at Whangarei to six months' imprisonment, suspended for nine months, and five months' periodic detention.

(3) The applicant's appeal against conviction was dismissed by the Court of Appeal on 30 March 2001. The sole ground of the appeal was that errors by his trial counsel cumulatively rendered the conviction unsafe and unsatisfactory, occasioning a miscarriage of justice.

3. The circumstances surrounding the applicant's conviction—(1) The applicant was the father of two of the complainant's children and on 27 March 2000 was staying with the complainant on a weekend visit. Both the complainant and the applicant had been drinking heavily.

An incident occurred in the early hours of the morning of 27 March 2000 between the applicant and the complainant in which the complainant was injured.

(2) The complainant claimed that the applicant attacked her. She gave evidence that she had been sitting in a chair in the lounge of her home when the applicant entered the room and punched and kicked her several times. Her daughter then entered the room, intervened and the applicant ceased his attack.

(3) Ms Gestro, the daughter, testified that she had been for a short walk outside the house and had observed the assault through the lounge window on her return. She had first observed her mother in a chair and the applicant leaning down to her. Ms Gestro initially thought that her mother had fallen over due to the amount of alcohol she had consumed and that the applicant was helping her up. However, she then saw the applicant punch her mother several times and kick her. She ran around to the back door of the house and entered the lounge. As she entered the lounge she observed that the applicant had her mother in his left hand and was about to punch her with his right. Ms Gestro yelled at the applicant and he stood back.

(4) Ms Gestro also gave evidence that, after the incident, her mother had blood coming out of her mouth, her right temple was slightly swollen and, later on, a bruise appeared below the right eye on the side of her head.

(5) The attending police officer gave evidence that, when questioned shortly after the incident, the applicant said that the complainant had attacked him, that he hit the complainant once in the head with an open hand, and that he saw blood coming from her mouth and assumed it was because of the blow. The applicant claimed to have acted throughout the incident in self-defence. The police officer testified that he saw redness to the side of the complainant's face and redness to the knuckles of the applicant.

(6) The applicant gave evidence that the complainant had attacked him, that he pushed her into a chair and that every time she tried to get out of it he pushed her down to prevent her harming either of them. The complainant's daughter then entered the room and told him to leave her mother alone. This calmed the complainant, who stopped trying to get out of the chair and attack the applicant. The applicant denied ever punching or kicking the complainant.

4. Applicant's application for exercise of mercy of the Crown—(1) The applicant's application for the exercise of the mercy of the Crown in respect of his conviction for assault with intent to injure was made on 23 October 2001.

(2) The ground of the application is the discovery of a new witness, Mr Reginald Tripp, who claims to have observed the movements of Ms Gestro outside the house at the time in question. Mr Tripp claims that Ms Gestro first became aware of the altercation while standing outside his own property, at a point where she could not have seen inside the lounge. According to him, Ms Gestro then ran into the house through the front door, not the back door, without passing in front of the lounge window. Mr Tripp's evidence, if accepted, would discredit Ms Gestro's claim to have witnessed the incident.

5. Documents—(1) The following documentary material was considered in determining the application:

- (a) The petition and the accompanying material filed in its support;
- (b) police job sheets relating to the incident;
- (c) affidavit of Reginald William Tripp dated 18 December 2001;
- (d) affidavit of Matthew Bruce Palmer dated 20 December 2001;
- (e) letters dated 11 and 25 February 2002 from R. S. Garbett, defence counsel at trial;
- (f) letter dated 11 March 2002 from P. J. Magee, the prosecutor at trial;
- (g) letters dated 13 January 2002 and 25 February 2002 from Senior Sergeant Stokes, New Zealand Police; and
- (h) the report of an independent barrister and solicitor, Mr G. Winter, dated 15 July 2002, concerning his interview of Mr Tripp.

Reason

6. Reason—The reason for the reference is that the documents described in clause 5 indicate that fresh evidence is available that is of sufficient weight and cogency to justify re-opening the applicant's case by means of a referral to the Court of Appeal.

MARIE SHROFF, Clerk of the Executive Council.

Public Trust

Public Trust Act 2001

The Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 17 October 2002

Pursuant to sections 50 (1) and 50 (5) of the Public Trust Act 2001 ("the Act"), the following notice is given.

Notice

1. Title and commencement—This notice may be cited as the Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 17 October 2002.

(2) The determinations and revocation notified in this notice take effect from and including 15 October 2002.

2. Interpretation—(1) Unless the context otherwise requires:

"agency deposit" means a deposit (not being an investment deposit) held as agent or attorney;

"call deposit" means a deposit (not being an agency deposit, an investment deposit, a special deposit or a trust deposit) held in the ordinary course of administration, and determined by Public Trust to be held at call;

"deposit" means a sum of money held by Public Trust belonging to any estate, which money for the time being forms part of the Common Fund;

"investment deposit" means a deposit held at call or otherwise as an investment under section 51 of the Act;

"special deposit" means a deposit held other than at call on behalf of the Crown, or any local authority within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1974;

"trust deposit" means a deposit held on trust:

(i) for persons not of full age or capacity; or

(ii) for beneficiaries not entitled to payment at call; or

(iii) otherwise than at call (not being a special deposit).

(2) Expressions defined in the Act have the same meaning in this notice as they do in the Act.

3. Rates of Common Fund interest—(1) The rate of Common Fund interest payable on a deposit (other than an investment deposit repayable at the end of a fixed term) shall be that specified in Schedule 1 for the appropriate type of deposit.

(2) The rate of Common Fund interest payable on an investment deposit repayable at the end of a fixed term shall be that specified in Schedule 2 for the appropriate term and dollar range.

(3) Despite subparagraph (1), the rate of Common Fund interest payable on a deposit made pursuant to an enactment shall be the rate (if any) specified in the enactment.

(4) Despite subparagraph (1), in particular cases or classes of case, Public Trust and the depositor may agree on a rate of interest payable on a special deposit that is different from the rate specified in Schedule 1 and the agreed rate then applies.

4. Revocation of notice and transitional provisions—

(1) The Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 10 October 2002 is revoked.

(2) The rates of interest specified in Schedule 1 to this notice do not apply to any period that ends with 14 October 2002 but otherwise operate as from 15 October 2002.

(3) The rates of interest specified in Schedule 2 to this notice:

- (i) do not apply to investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term that commenced prior to 15 October 2002; but
- (ii) do apply to investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term that commenced on or after 15 October 2002.

IAG New Zealand Limited

Insurance Companies (Ratings & Inspections) Act 1994

Change of Rating—IAG New Zealand Limited

Pursuant to the terms of the Insurance Companies (Ratings & Inspections) Act 1994, the rating agency

Standard & Poor's confirmed on the 3rd day of October 2002, that IAG New Zealand Limited has retained their very strong "AA" category counterparty and insurer financial strength ratings, but that the rating would be downgraded from "AA+" (negative outlook) to "AA" (stable outlook).

The "AA" category rating means IAG New Zealand Limited will continue to be one of New Zealand's highest rated non-government financial institutions.
