Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision (Member Adjudicated Bankrupt, Guilty of Conduct Unbecoming of an Accountant, and Breaching the Code of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held on the 23rd day of July 2003, the tribunal recorded that John James Penny, of Auckland, pleaded guilty to the following charges and admitted the following particulars:

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30:

- the member has been adjudicated bankrupt;
- the member has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an accountant;

- the member has breached the Code of Ethics of the Institute (FP5, EP8).

IN THAT:

- on or about the 12th day of June 2002, the member was adjudicated bankrupt;
- in accordance with a judgement of the District Court dated the 15th day of January 2003 and as a matter of fact, the member was involved as a chartered accountant, and as a consultant and associate in an organisation. As a result of an equity interest advertised in the New Zealand Herald and by the member's actions and the member's employee's actions, members of the public have obtained judgement against the member for the loss of their interest of $61,917.38 resultant upon a breach by the member of the Securities Act which in turn rendered the sale invalid and of no effect.

The tribunal found the member guilty as charged and the particulars proven.

Orders of the Tribunal:

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that John James Penny be removed from the institute's Register.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that John James Penny pay to the institute the sum of $5,360.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In reaching its decision, the tribunal considered that, given the judgement against the member involving serious breaches of the Securities Act, it would not be in the interests of the public nor the profession for the member to remain as a member of the institute.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the New Zealand Herald, the New Zealand Gazette and the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal:

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the Institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Dated this 25th day of July 2003.

A. N. FRANKHAM, Tribunal Chairman.

Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision (Member Guilty of Conduct Unbecoming of an Accountant, and Breaching the Code of Ethics and Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held on the 23rd day of July 2003, the tribunal recorded that a member of Auckland pleaded guilty to the following charges and admitted the following particulars:

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30:

- the member has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an accountant;
- the member has breached the Rules and Code of Ethics of the Institute (Rule 21 and FP3 and 5).

IN THAT:

In relation to a complaint from a client to the professional conduct committee, the member failed within a reasonable and proper time to reply to correspondence from the committee despite two reminders.

The tribunal found the member guilty as charged and the particulars proven.

Orders of the Tribunal:

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (c) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the member pay a monetary penalty of $3,000.00.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (f) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the member's practice be reviewed by the practice review board and that it report its findings to the professional conduct committee.
- (c) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (k) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the member be censured.
- (d) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the member pay to the institute the sum of $1,949.75 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In reaching its decision, the tribunal considered the member's conduct in relation to the matters described above to be a serious matter.

Non-response to institute inquiries makes it impossible for the institute to properly investigate complaints.

The tribunal also noted that the matters raised by way of explanation for the conduct could impinge on the member's ability to conduct their practice to the required standard.

A review by the practice review board was therefore considered desirable.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the New Zealand Herald, the New Zealand Gazette and the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand without reference to the member's name but with reference to the locality.

Right of Appeal:

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Dated this 25th day of July 2003.

A. N. FRANKHAM, Tribunal Chairman.

An overview of reviewing the levies

Each year, ACC reviews the levies it charges for the seven accounts that make up the ACC scheme.

From August – early September	The ACC Board consults with levy payers on levy rate proposals and options.
September	The ACC Board considers the submissions.
October	The ACC Board makes recommendations to Government about any changes to the levy rates for the following levy year.
1 April	The regulations and new levy rates come into effect for all ACC accounts (except the Motor Vehicle Account).
1 July	The regulations and new levy rates for the Motor Vehicle Account come into effect.

Why do levies change?

There are a number of factors that affect levy rates. These include the forecast trends in injury and death rates, the duration and cost of their rehabilitation or compensation, and economic factors such as inflation and interest rates.

ACC meets the ongoing cost of claims from:

1. the levies it collects each year; and
2. the interest it earns by investing any unspent levies or reserves.

Had interest rates not decreased, ACC would have been able to hold levy rates stable or reduce them. However, falling interest rates reduce the future earnings expected from ACC's investments and increase ACC's liability for past accidents. In most cases, improving effective rehabilitation and injury prevention activities have let ACC absorb the impact of the fall in interest rates. However, some levies have to change.

Proposals for each accountEarners' Account

Earners and self-employed people pay a composite earners' levy made up of the Earners' Account levy and the Earners' Account residual levy.

The composite earners' levy covers the cost of non-work injuries and is based on their earnings.

ACC proposes:

- that the current 2003/2004 composite earners' levy rate of $1.07 per $100.00 of earnings (or $1.20, G.S.T. inclusive) be maintained for the 2004/2005 levy year.

Motor Vehicle Account

Motorists pay for motor vehicle injuries through a composite motor vehicle levy made up of the Motor Vehicle Account levy, the Motor Vehicle Account petrol levy, and the Motor Vehicle Account Residual levy. ACC uses a vehicle classification system based mostly on vehicle type. Motor vehicle owners pay a levy based on the type of vehicle owned.

The ACC Motor Vehicle Account covers the cost of all injuries involving motor vehicles on public roads.

ACC proposes:

- that the composite average levy rate for motorists decreases by 3.3% from $211.96 to $205.04 per vehicle.
- that the current 9 classifications and their rates be retained for 2004/2005.
- the levy for non-petrol powered goods vans/truck/utility vehicles increases in its relativity to standard non-petrol powered vehicles, from 116% to 121%. This to reflect the increasing distances travelled by these vehicles.
- to consult on a number of options for petrol-powered vehicles and how the average composite levy is split between the Motor Vehicle Account levy and the Motor Vehicle Account petrol levy.

Residual Claims Account

Employers and self-employed people fund the Residual Claims Account.

The Residual Claims Account pays for all work injury claims before 1 July 1999 plus non-work injury claims before 1 July 1992.

ACC proposes:

- that the current 2003/2004 average residual claims levy of $0.31 per $100.00 of payroll or self-employed income be maintained for the 2004/2005 levy year.
- that the current 41 risk groups (or pricing pools) be retained for 2004/2005.

Employers' Account

Employers fund the Employers' Account.

The Employers' Account meets the costs of workplace injuries to employees that occur after 1 April 1999, and not covered by private insurance.

ACC proposes:

- that the average Employers' Account levy (after Workplace Safety Management Practices discounts) be increased from $0.90 to $0.95 per $100.00 of payroll.
- two risk grouping options as the basis for setting levies for individual classifications – the current 130 sub-industry groupings and the 56 industry groupings.
- some changes to 14 individual classifications to match recent claims experience.
- renaming one individual classification to clarify coverage.

Self-Employed Work Account

Self-employed people fund the Self-Employed Work Account.

The Self-Employed Work Account meets the costs of workplace injuries to self-employed that occur after 1 July 1999.

ACC proposes:

- that the average Self-Employed Work Account levy be increased from $1.79 to $1.83 per $100.00 of earnings.
- two risk grouping options as the basis for setting levies for individual classifications – the current 130 sub-industry groupings and the 56 industry groupings.
- some changes to 14 individual classifications to match changing market conditions.
- renaming one individual classification to clarify coverage.

Looking ahead

The Minister for ACC has asked that ACC reviews a number of options relating to the coverage and funding of its accounts. These options do not form part of the 2004/2005 levy proposals, but could affect future levy years.

ACC is presenting these options now so that levy payers have the opportunity to give preliminary comments on the issues and possible solutions. Three specific issues are being considered:

- Whether the Self-Employed Work Account should be combined with the Employers' Account.
- Whether work-related motor vehicle injuries should be allocated to work accounts rather than the Motor Vehicle Account.
- Whether diesel and non-petrol vehicles should pay some of their motor vehicle levy by road user charges.

Statement of Tertiary Education Priorities Notice 2003

Under section 159AC of the Education Act 1989, and following consultation with the Tertiary Education Commission, the Associate Minister of Education (Tertiary Education) gives the following notice.

Notice

1. This notice may be cited as the Statement of Tertiary Education Priorities Notice 2003.

2. This notice applies from the date of its publication.

Statement of Tertiary Education Priorities

The Government has set a new strategic direction for the tertiary education system to ensure that it is more strategically aligned to the needs of New Zealand and has a greater focus on excellence.

This new direction is outlined in the Tertiary Education Strategy 2002-2007 ("the strategy").

Derived from this strategy is the Statement of Tertiary Education Priorities (STEP).

The role of the STEP is to outline the short-to-medium term priorities that Government expects government agencies and publicly funded tertiary education organisations (public and private providers and industry training organisations) to focus on in order to achieve the goals articulated in the strategy.

This second STEP restates the priorities outlined in the interim STEP that was released on 9 July 2002.

As such, the key priority for the period of this STEP is to develop the infrastructure and process to support the new tertiary education system.

This includes:

- understanding the key changes and strategies articulated in the strategy and incorporating them into the internal planning strategic and business processes of all tertiary education organisations;
- the development of the Tertiary Education Commission as a strong and credible organisation;
- the implementation of the new steering instruments such as charters and profiles and funding reform; and
- the continuation of the dialogue amongst stakeholders established during the public consultation on the strategy and the exploration of collaborative relationships across the system.

All government agencies and tertiary education organisations are expected to begin to respond to the strategy's key change messages and to contribute to its specific strategies.

The key change messages are:

- greater alignment with national goals.
- stronger linkages with business and other external stakeholders.
- effective partnership arrangements with Māori communities.
- increased responsiveness to the needs of, and wider access for, learners.
- more future-focused strategies.
- improved global linkages.
- greater collaboration and rationalisation within the system.
- increased quality, performance, effectiveness, efficiency and transparency.
- a culture of optimism and creativity.

The six specific strategies are:

- 1 Strengthen system capability and quality.
- 2 Te rautaki mātauranga Māori – contribute to the achievement of Māori development aspirations.
- 3 Raise foundation skills so that all people can participate in our knowledge society.
- 4 Develop the skills New Zealanders need for our knowledge society.
- 5 Educate for Pacific peoples' development and success.
- 6 Strengthen research, knowledge creation and uptake for our knowledge society.

The particular objectives that government agencies and publicly funded tertiary education need to focus on to advance these specific strategies are outlined in the STEP.

The STEP can be viewed at this web site:

Environmental Risk Management Authority

Hazardous Substances and New Organisms Act 1996

Determination of Hazardous Substances

Pursuant to section 26 of the Hazardous Substances and New Organisms Act 1996, the Environmental Risk Management Authority hereby determines the following substances are not hazardous:

- Fluoropolymers, a class of polymers analogous to polyolefins in which some or all of the hydrogen atoms have been replaced by fluorine (and possibly other halides). Further, the definition is limited to those fluoropolymers (not containing additives) with a number average molecular weight greater than 10,000 amu and with residual monomer, catalyst and solvent impurities present at levels less than 0.1%. In addition, polymers that are cationic (or potentially cationic) or those that are water absorbing are specifically excluded from this definition.
- Polyethers, a class of polymers made up of monomer units linked by recurring ether linkages. For the purposes of this determination, no heteroatoms may be present other than the oxygen atoms involved in the ether linkage. Further, the definition is limited to those polyethers (not containing additives) with a number average molecular weight greater than 10,000 amu and with residual monomer, catalyst and solvent impurities present at levels less than 0.1%. In addition, polymers that are cationic (or potentially cationic) or those that are water absorbing are specifically excluded from this definition.

- Polyamides, a class of polymers that have recurring amide groups as an integral part of the main polymer backbone. For the purposes of this determination, no heteroatoms may be present other than those comprising the amide linkage. Further, the definition is limited to those polyamides (not containing additives) with a number average molecular weight greater than 10,000 amu and with residual monomer, catalyst and solvent impurities present at levels less than 0.1%. In addition, polymers that are cationic (or potentially cationic) or those that are water absorbing are specifically excluded from this definition.
- Thermoplastic polyesters, solid polymers with recurring ester groups as an integral part of the main polymer backbone where no heteroatoms may be present other than the oxygen atoms involved in the ester linkage. Further, the definition is limited to those polyesters (not containing additives) with a number average molecular weight greater than 10,000 amu and with residual monomer, catalyst and solvent impurities present at levels less than 0.1%. In addition, polymers that are cationic (or potentially cationic) or those that are water absorbing are specifically excluded from this definition.
- Polyolefins, fully saturated hydrocarbons comprising only carbon and hydrogen with no other functional groups present. Further, the definition is limited to those polyolefins (not containing additives) with a number average molecular weight greater than 10,000 amu and with residual monomer, catalyst and solvent impurities present at levels less than 0.1%. In addition, polymers that are cationic (or potentially cationic) or those that are water absorbing are specifically excluded from this definition.
- Vinyl polymers (either homopolymers or co-polymers) made from the following monomers:
 - Vinyl chloride
 - Vinylidene chloride
 - Esters of acrylic or methacrylic acid
 - Styrene
 - Vinyl acetate (and its vinyl alcohol hydrolysis product)
 - Acrylonitrile
 - Butadiene
 - Ethene

Further, this definition is limited to those vinyl polymers (not containing additives) with a number average molecular weight greater than 10,000 amu and with residual monomer, catalyst and solvent impurities present at levels less than 0.1%. In addition, polymers that are cationic (or potentially cationic) or those that are water absorbing are specifically excluded from this definition.
- Polycarbonates, defined as polymers made up of monomers (aliphatic or aromatic) linked by repeating carbonate units along the polymer backbone. For the purposes of this determination, no heteroatoms may be present other than the oxygen atoms involved in the carbonate linkage. Further, the definition is limited to those polycarbonates (not containing additives) with a number average molecular weight greater than 10,000 amu and with residual monomer, catalyst and solvent impurities present at levels less than 0.1%. Notes to the Financial Statements for the Year Ended 31 March 2003

1. Statement of Accounting Policies

The ASB Bank Community Trust (“the trust”) is the reporting entity. The trust was formed on 30 May 1988 through the creation of a trust deed in compliance with the Trustee Banks Restructuring Act 1988. Under the terms of the trust deed, the trust was settled with 60 million $1 fully paid ordinary shares in ASB Bank Limited representing 100% of the issued capital. As at 31 March 1988, the net tangible asset backing of those 60 million shares was $147,655,000. In 1989, 45 million shares were sold to the Commonwealth Bank of Australia for $252,000,000 which was then donated to the ASB Charitable Trust. In October 2000, the remaining 15 million shares were sold to the Commonwealth Bank of Australia for $545,000,000.

The measurement basis adopted is that of historical cost adjusted for the revaluation of certain assets. Reliance is placed on the fact that the trust is a going concern. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Financial Reporting Act 1993.

Consolidated Financial Statements

Consolidated financial statements have not been prepared as the subsidiary companies have not traded since incorporation.

Bank

Bank is stated as the balance in the bank account rather than the balance as per the cash book.

Statement of Cash Flows

Cash comprises cash at bank and call deposits but does not include cash or deposits held by the fund managers. Therefore, the statement of cash flows does not reflect the cash flows within the fund managers’ portfolios.

Dividends

Dividends are recognised as income when they are received by the trust. They are recorded net of any imputation tax credits.

Donations

Donations are accounted for as they are committed to be distributed to eligible organisations as approved by the trustees.

Expenses

Some expenses are shared jointly with the ASB Charitable Trust. Whilst each trust bears its own specific costs, the joint expenses are allocated between each trust on the basis of the number of applications processed by each.

Joint expense allocations were:

	2003	2002
This trust	50%	50%
ASB Charitable Trust	50%	50%

Foreign Currencies

All amounts denominated in foreign currencies are converted to New Zealand dollars at balance date and all realised and unrealised gains and losses are recognised in income and expenditure for the period.

Investments

Investment in managed funds and other investments are stated at market value. Any gains or losses are recognised in income and expenditure for the period. Investment transactions are recorded by the fund managers on a settlement date basis.

Financial Instruments

All assets and liabilities of the trust are financial instruments and are recognised in the balance sheet. All financial instruments are recorded at market value or fair value or are not materially different from market value or fair value.

The trust uses financial instruments with off balance sheet risk to reduce exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. Forward exchange contracts are entered into to hedge foreign currency transactions. These are converted to the New Zealand dollar rate at balance date with all realised and unrealised gains and losses being recognised in the income and expenditure statement.

The quantitative disclosures required by FRS 31 Disclosure of Information about Financial Instruments have been included throughout the financial statements where material.

Reserves

Transfers to the capital maintenance reserve are based on the annual movement in the consumer price index. Transfers to all other reserves from the unallocated surplus are made at the discretion of the trustees.

Taxation

Taxation includes both current and deferred tax. Deferred tax is calculated using the comprehensive liability method. Deferred tax assets are recognised when future taxable income is certain.

Changes in accounting policies

There have been no material changes in accounting policies during the period.

9. Financial InstrumentsCurrency Risk

The trust invests in securities that are denominated in foreign currencies and therefore, result in a currency risk. In order to minimise the currency risk, foreign currency assets are hedged.

Interest Rate Risk

The trust, through its fund managers, invests in securities that are subject to interest rate risk. The trust actively monitors this risk and changes asset allocations and maturity profiles accordingly.

Credit Risk

The trust, in the normal course of business, enters into arrangements with other parties. These arrangements give rise to credit risk for the trust and hence policies and procedures are maintained so that this risk is minimised. No collateral is required in respect of financial assets.

For all classes of financial assets held by the trust, the maximum credit risk exposure to the trust is the carrying value as disclosed in the financial statements at balance date.

Due to the diversification of the investment portfolio and the policies and procedures in place, there is no significant concentrations of credit risk.

Fair Values

All financial instruments are carried at market value.

Notes to the Financial Statements for the Year Ended 31 March 20031. Statement of Accounting Policies

The ASB Charitable Trust (“the trust”) is the reporting entity. The trust was formed on 31 May 1989 through the creation of a trust deed by the ASB Bank Community Trust and a donation of $252,000,000.

The measurement basis adopted is that of historical cost adjusted for the revaluation of certain assets. Reliance is placed on the fact that the trust is a going concern. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Financial Reporting Act 1993.

Bank

Bank is stated as the balance in the bank account rather than the balance as per the cash book.

Statement of Cash Flows

Cash comprises cash at bank and call deposits but does not include cash or deposits held by the fund managers. Therefore, the statement of cash flows does not reflect the cash flows within the fund managers’ portfolios.

Depreciation

Depreciation is provided over the useful life of the assets. Buildings are depreciated on a straight line basis. Vehicle, office equipment and furniture are depreciated on a diminishing value basis. The rates used are those recommended by the Inland Revenue Department.

Dividends

Dividends are recognised as income when they are received by the trust and exclude imputation tax credits.

Donations

Donations are accounted for as they are committed to be distributed to eligible organisations as approved by the trustees.

Expenses

Some expenses are shared jointly with the ASB Bank Community Trust. Whilst each trust bears its own specific costs, the joint expenses are allocated between the trusts on the basis of the number of applications processed by each.

Joint expense allocations were:

	2003	2002
This trust	50%	50%
ASB Bank Community Trust	50%	50%

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are valued at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Foreign Currencies

All amounts denominated in foreign currencies are converted to New Zealand dollars at balance date and all realised and unrealised gains and losses are recognised in income and expenditure for the period.

Investments

Investments are stated at market value. Any gains or losses are recognised in income and expenditure for the period.

Investment transactions are recorded by the fund managers on a settlement date basis.

Financial Instruments

All assets and liabilities of the trust with the exception of fixed assets are financial instruments and are recognised in the balance sheet. All financial instruments are recorded at market value or fair value or are not materially different from market value or fair value.

The trust uses financial instruments with off balance sheet risk to reduce exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. Forward exchange contracts are entered into to hedge foreign currency transactions. These are converted to the New Zealand dollar rate at balance date with all realised and unrealised gains and losses being recognised in the income and expenditure statement.

The quantitative disclosures required by FRS 31 Disclosure of Information about Financial Instruments have been included throughout the financial statements where material.

Reserves

Transfers to the capital maintenance reserve are based on the annual movement in the consumer price index.

Transfers to all other reserves from the unallocated surplus are made at the discretion of the trustees.

Taxation

The trust has been accorded tax exempt status in New Zealand and Australia but is liable to taxation on investment income in some other overseas countries. Tax on overseas income is accounted for as a reduction of that income.

Changes in accounting policies

There have been no material changes in accounting policies during the period.

9. Financial Instruments

Currency Risk

The trust invests in securities that are denominated in foreign currencies and therefore, result in a currency risk. In order to minimise the currency risk, foreign currency assets are hedged.

	2003 $000	2002 $000
Foreign currency denominated assets	267,476	323,198
Less foreign currency contracts	195,262	221,077
Unhedged exposure	72,214	102,121

Interest Rate Risk

The trust, through its fund managers, invests in securities that are subject to interest rate risk. The trust actively monitors this risk and changes asset allocations and maturity profiles accordingly.

Credit Risk

The trust, in the normal course of business, enters into arrangements with other parties. These arrangements give rise to credit risk for the trust and hence policies and procedures are maintained so that this risk is minimised. No collateral is required in respect of financial assets.

For all classes of financial assets held by the trust, the maximum credit risk exposure to the trust is the carrying value as disclosed in the financial statements at balance date.

Due to the diversification of the investment portfolio and the policies and procedures in place, there is no significant concentrations of credit risk.

Fair Values

All financial instruments are carried at market value.

10. Foreign Currency Monetary Assets

As at 31 March, the trust had the following foreign currency monetary assets that were not hedged.
