Liquidator's Section 245 Notice to Creditors

To all known creditors:

Notice is hereby given by the liquidator, pursuant to section 245 (1) (b) of the Companies Act 1993, that:

1. The liquidator does not consider that a meeting of creditors should be called for the purpose specified in section 243 (1) [(a)] [(b)] of the Companies Act 1993.
2. The reason why the liquidator so decided is that the liquidator is satisfied that the value of the assets of the company available for distribution to unsecured creditors, not being creditors entitled to be paid in the order of priority set out in Schedule 7 of the Act, is not likely to exceed 20 cents in every dollar owed to such creditors.
3. No such meeting will therefore be called unless a creditor gives notice in writing to the liquidator, within 10 working days after receiving this notice, requiring a meeting to be called.

Dated this 7th day of November 2003.

JUGDIS HIRA PARBHU, Liquidator.

Initiation of Dumping Investigation: Galvanised Wire From China and Malaysia

Notice is hereby given that, acting pursuant to section 10 (1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, and under delegated authority from the Chief Executive of the Ministry of Economic Development, I have initiated an investigation to determine both the existence and effect of the alleged dumping of the goods described in the Schedule to this notice originating from China and Malaysia, being satisfied that sufficient evidence has been provided that:

- (a) the goods imported or intended to be imported into New Zealand are being dumped; and
- (b) by reason thereof, material injury to an industry is being threatened, and also being satisfied that the collective output of those New Zealand producers who have, in writing, expressed support for the application constitutes:

- (a) 25 percent or more of total New Zealand production of like goods produced for domestic consumption (assessed during the most recent representative period, being not less than 6 months); and
- (b) more than 50 percent of the total production of like goods produced for domestic consumption (as so assessed) by those New Zealand producers who have, in writing, expressed support for or opposition to the application.

Radiocommunications Regulations 2001

Radiocommunications Regulations (General User Radio Licence for Aeronautical Model Control Short Range Devices) Notice 2003

Pursuant to Regulation 9 of the Radiocommunications Regulations 2001 ("the Regulations") made under section 116 (1) (b) of the Radiocommunications Act 1989, and acting under delegated authority from the chief executive, I give the following notice.

Notice

1. Short title and commencement—(1) This notice is the Radiocommunications Regulations (General User Radio Licence for Aeronautical Model Control Short Range Devices) Notice 2003.

(2) This notice comes into force on 6 November 2003.

2. General user radio licence—A general user radio licence is granted for the transmission of radio waves for the purpose of remote control of aeronautical model short-range devices in accordance with the terms, conditions and restrictions of this notice.

3. Terms, conditions and restrictions—(1) The ranges of frequencies, power of transmissions permitted within those ranges of frequencies and designated uses of frequencies permitted pursuant to this licence are those prescribed in the Schedule to this notice.

(2) Transmitters must conform to technical standards as prescribed in notices made under Regulation 32 (1) (b) of the Regulations.

(3) Frequency use is on a shared basis and the chief executive does not accept liability under any circumstances for any loss or damage of any kind occasioned by the unavailability of frequencies or interference to reception.

(4) Should interference occur to services licensed pursuant to a radio licence or a spectrum licence, the chief executive reserves the right to require and ensure that any transmission pursuant to this general user radio licence change frequency, reduce power or cease operation.

(5) The chief executive or any inspector duly authorised by him shall be granted by the licence holder at all reasonable times entry to any place, premises or building for the purposes of ensuring compliance with this licence.

Public Trust

Public Trust Act 2001

The Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 6 November 2003

Pursuant to sections 50 (1) and 50 (5) of the Public Trust Act 2001 (“the Act”), the following notice is given.

Notice

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice may be cited as the Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 6 November 2003.

(2) The determinations and revocation notified in this notice take effect from and including 30 October 2003.

2. Interpretation—(1) Unless the context otherwise requires:

“agency deposit” means a deposit (not being an investment deposit) held as agent or attorney;

“call deposit” means a deposit (not being an agency deposit, an investment deposit, a special deposit or a trust deposit) held in the ordinary course of administration, and determined by Public Trust to be held at call;

“deposit” means a sum of money held by Public Trust belonging to any estate, which money for the time being forms part of the Common Fund;

“investment deposit” means a deposit held at call or otherwise as an investment under section 51 of the Act;

“special deposit” means a deposit held other than at call on behalf of the Crown, or any local authority within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1974;

“trust deposit” means a deposit held on trust:

- (i) for persons not of full age or capacity; or
- (ii) for beneficiaries not entitled to payment at call; or
- (iii) otherwise than at call (not being a special deposit).

(2) Expressions defined in the Act have the same meaning in this notice as they do in the Act.

3. Rates of Common Fund interest—(1) The rate of Common Fund interest payable on a deposit (other than an investment deposit repayable at the end of a fixed term) shall be that specified in Schedule 1 for the appropriate type of deposit.

(2) The rate of Common Fund interest payable on an investment deposit repayable at the end of a fixed term shall be that specified in Schedule 2 for the appropriate term and dollar range.

(3) Despite subparagraph (1), the rate of Common Fund interest payable on a deposit made pursuant to an enactment shall be the rate (if any) specified in the enactment.

(4) Despite subparagraph (1), in particular cases or classes of case, Public Trust and the depositor may agree on a rate of interest payable on a special deposit that is different from the rate specified in Schedule 1 and the agreed rate then applies.

4. Revocation of notice and transitional provisions—

(1) The Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 23 October 2003 is revoked.

(2) The rates of interest specified in Schedule 1 to this notice do not apply to any period that ends with 29 October 2003 but otherwise operate as from 30 October 2003.

(3) The rates of interest specified in Schedule 2 to this notice:

- (i) do not apply to investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term that commenced prior to 30 October 2003; but
- (ii) do apply to investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term that commenced on or after 30 October 2003.
