General Notices

Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity, Conduct Unbecoming and Breaching the Code of Ethics)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held on the 30th day of July 2003, at which the member attended by teleconference and was represented by counsel, the tribunal recorded that Brett William Knock pleaded guilty to the following charges and admitted the following particulars:

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member has been guilty of:

- misconduct in a professional capacity (Particular 2);
- conduct unbecoming an accountant (Particulars 1 (a), (b), (c), (d), (e));
- breach of the institute's Code of Ethics, specifically, Fundamental Principles 1 and 5, and Ethical Guidelines No. 13 and No. 47.

IN THAT

- In the course of practice as a chartered accountant in public practice, the member:
 - (a) held client funds, totalling $30,000.00, in a trading account for two years when the funds should have been paid to I.R.D.;
 - (b) failed properly to advise the member's client as to his responsibilities to file annual returns of income;

- (c) failed to obtain sufficient and/or additional information from the member's client to enable the completion of taxation returns;

- (d) failed properly to respond to requests from I.R.D. for outstanding returns to be dealt with and/or failed to advise the member's client of this matter;

- (e) improperly exposed the member's client to I.R.D. interest and penalties which the member subsequently paid on the client's behalf;

- In the course of the final determination hearing before the institute's professional conduct committee and after taking legal advice, the member volunteered that he had misappropriated client funds to the value of a minimum of $300,000.00.

The tribunal found the member guilty as charged and the particulars proven.

Orders of the Tribunal

Following consideration of evidence and submissions for the professional conduct committee and submissions on behalf of the member, the tribunal made the following orders;

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the name of Brett William Knock be removed from the institute's Register.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Brett William Knock pay to the institute the sum of $2,782.00

(inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In reaching its decision, the tribunal considered that the misconduct described above demonstrated a serious lack of integrity, and that it would not be in the interests of the public nor the profession for the member to remain as a member of the institute.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the New Zealand Herald, the New Zealand Gazette and the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Dated this 31st day of July 2003.

Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity, Negligence or Incompetence in a Professional Capacity, Conduct Unbecoming and Breaching the Code of Ethics)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held on the 23rd day of July 2003, at which the member was present, and a continued hearing on the 31st day of July 2003, which the member attended by teleconference, the tribunal recorded that Philip Roger Young pleaded not guilty to the following charges and denied the following particulars:

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30:

- the member has been guilty of misconduct in a professional capacity (particulars 1 (a), 1 (b), 1 (c), 1 (d), 1 (e), 1 (f), 1 (g) and 2);
- the member has been guilty of negligence or incompetence in a professional capacity and that this has been of such a degree or so frequent as to reflect on the member's fitness to practise as an accountant and/or tends to bring the profession into disrepute (particulars 1 (a), 1 (b), 1 (c), 1 (d), 1 (e), 1 (f), 1 (g) and 2);
- the member has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an accountant (particulars 3 and 4);
- the member has breached the Code of Ethics of the Institute (EP 53, 54 and FP 2 and 5) (particulars 1, 2, 3 and 4).

IN THAT

- In respect of a complaint by the Chairman of the Practice Review Board:
 - (a) the member and/or the member's company, Progressive Business Centre Limited, borrowed money from the associated finance entities Omega

Finance Limited and/or Omega Group (NZ) Limited;

- (b) the member failed to have the financial statements of Omega Finance Limited and/or Omega Group (NZ) Limited audited;
 - (c) the member allowed Baywater Finance Limited (an associated finance company) to receive moneys from the public without having issued a current prospectus as required by the Securities Act;
 - (d) despite a warning that the prospectus in relation to Baywater Finance Limited had expired on the 31st day of August 2002, the member failed to correct the position;
 - (e) without a correct prospectus and despite the warning referred to in 1 (d) above, the member continued to receive deposits and roll over current deposits and make loans to customers;
 - (f) the member operated Baywater Finance Limited in breach of clause 5.4 (b) of the trust deed in that the member failed to operate the business in an efficient, prudent and businesslike manner and/or in breach of the Securities Act;
 - (g) the member operated the said company in such a manner as to invite a section 30 notice pursuant to the Corporations (Investigation and Management) Act 1989, thus indicating the company was "at risk".
- The member operated a corporate practice without approval (Rule 19).
 - In the course of corresponding with the institute and/or the appeals council, the member has engaged in intemperate and offensive remarks concerning the investigator and members of the professional conduct committee.
 - In the course of corresponding with Inland Revenue, the member faxed an offensive statement to a female officer.

The tribunal found all the particulars to be proven, except in relation to (f), where it made no determination on whether the member failed to operate the business in an efficient, prudent and businesslike manner.

The tribunal made its determinations based on submissions and evidence presented by both the professional conduct committee and the member.

Taking into account the cumulative effect of the proven particulars, the tribunal found the member guilty as charged.

Orders of the Tribunal

Following consideration of evidence and submissions for the professional conduct committee and by the member, the tribunal made the following orders:

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the name of Philip Roger Young be removed from the institute's Register.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Philip Roger Young pay to the institute the sum of $12,878.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In reaching its decision, the tribunal considered the wide-ranging nature of the particulars, their seriousness and the member's unwillingness and/or inability to recognise the failures that the member has been guilty of.

These factors led the tribunal to conclude that it would not be in the interests of the public nor the profession for the member to remain as a member of the institute.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the New Zealand Herald, the Waikato Times, the New Zealand Gazette and the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30:

- the member has been guilty of misconduct in a professional capacity;
- the member has been guilty of conduct unbecoming an accountant;
- the member has been guilty of supplying information to the institute which is false or misleading;
- the member has breached the institute's Code of Ethics, specifically, Fundamental Principles 1 and 5, and Ethical Guideline No. 1, clause 5.

IN THAT

- In relation to his conduct as a chartered accountant, the member:
 - (a) incorrectly advised the institute and/or the member's partners in a professional accounting firm ("the firm") and/or the National Business Review that the member had no direct or indirect financial interest in a company ("the company") when, through a discretionary trust ("the trust") and/or because of the member's creditor relationship with the company, the member thought he had such an interest, or intended to have such an interest;
 - (b) failed to disclose to the institute and/or the member's partners in the firm and/or the National Business Review the existence (and details) of the trust and its interest in the company and/or the member's creditor relationship with the company, when the member was specifically asked whether he had a direct or indirect financial interest in the company;

- (c) demonstrated a lack of professional integrity and professional judgment by entering into an arrangement designed to conceal the member's and/or his family's intended financial interest in the company and then relying on those arrangements to deny any such interest in his dealings with the institute;
- (d) either caused or potentially caused the firm to breach the institute's independence requirements by undertaking the audits of two companies associated with the company when the member and/or his family intended that the member and/or his family would have a direct or indirect material financial interest in the company and the member failed to disclose this interest or intended interest;
- (e) put the member's firm in a position where it had to resign the audits for the two associated companies;
- (f) supplied false or misleading information to the institute:
 - (i) by stating, in a letter to the institute dated the 28th day of February 2002, that the member did not have a direct or indirect financial interest in the company (when the member intended to have such an interest); or
 - (ii) by stating, at a meeting with the institute on the 4th day of December 2002, that the member did have a direct or indirect financial interest in the company (when, as the member then alleged, he did not have such an interest) but intended to have such an interest; or
 - (iii) by stating (or allowing it to be stated) in a letter from the firm to the institute that the member had advanced $600,000.00 to the company by way of a loan (when, the member then alleged, he became a creditor of the company for this sum by default).
- (g) wasted institute resources through inconsistent representations to institute staff and/or the member's partners at the firm as to his interest in the company.

The tribunal found the member guilty as charged and the particulars proven.

Orders of the Tribunal

Following consideration of evidence and submissions for the professional conduct committee and submissions made on behalf of the member, the tribunal made the following orders:

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31(b) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Richard Anthony Johnston be suspended from membership of the institute for a period of three years from the date of written notice of these orders.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.31(c) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Richard Anthony Johnston pay a monetary penalty of $15,000.00.
- (c) Pursuant to Rule 21.31(d) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Richard Anthony Johnston's certificate of public practice be cancelled and returned to the institute forthwith.
- (d) Pursuant to Rule 21.31(k) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Richard Anthony Johnston be censured.

- (e) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Richard Anthony Johnston pay to the institute the sum of $18,270.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In reaching its decision, the tribunal considered that the conduct described above involved deliberate concealment of a material factual position, which demonstrated a serious lack of integrity.

The tribunal took into account that no client had suffered and that the member had co-operated with the institute and pleaded guilty.

The tribunal, however, considered that the fine and suspension reflected the seriousness of the misconduct.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the

New Zealand Herald, the National Business Review, the New Zealand Gazette and the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Dated this 31st day of July 2003.

A. N. FRANKHAM, Tribunal Chairman.

The group consists of West Coast Community Trust and its subsidiary West Coast Community Trust Charitable Company Limited. These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the 1993 Financial Reporting Act. The group has applied all the differential reporting exemptions allowed with the exception of SSAP3 – Accounting for Depreciation.

2. Measurement System

The measurement system adopted is that of historical cost.
