Public Trust

Public Trust Act 2001

The Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 29 April 2004

The following notice is given pursuant to section 50 of the Public Trust Act 2001 ("the Act").

Notice

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice may be cited as the Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 29 April 2004.

(2) The determinations and revocation notified in this notice take effect from and including 22 April 2004.

2. Interpretation—(1) Unless the context otherwise requires:

"agency deposit" means a deposit (not being an investment deposit) held as agent or attorney;

"call deposit" means a deposit (not being an agency deposit, an investment deposit, a protection deposit, a special deposit or a trust deposit) held in the ordinary course of administration, and determined by Public Trust to be held at call;

"deposit" means a sum of money held by Public Trust belonging to any estate, which money for the time being forms part of the Common Fund;

"investment deposit" means a deposit held at call or otherwise as an investment under section 51 of the Act;

"protection deposit" means a deposit, held at call, of tuition, boarding, accommodation or other fees by or on behalf of a student enrolled at a Private Training Establishment within the meaning of Part 18 of the Education Act 1989;

“special deposit” means a deposit held other than at call on behalf of the Crown, or any local authority within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1974;

“trust deposit” means a deposit (not being an agency deposit, an investment deposit, a protection deposit or a special deposit) held on trust:

- (i) for persons not of full age or capacity; or
- (ii) for beneficiaries not entitled to payment at call; or
- (iii) otherwise than at call.

(2) Expressions defined in the Act have the same meaning in this notice as they do in the Act.

3. Rates of Common Fund interest—(1) The rate of Common Fund interest on deposits (other than investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term or protection deposits) shall be that specified in Schedule 1 for the appropriate type of deposits.

(2) The rate of Common Fund interest on each protection deposit associated with a particular Private Training Establishment shall be that specified in Schedule 2 for the appropriate dollar range of the total of those deposits.

(3) The rate of Common Fund interest payable on investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term shall be that specified in Schedule 3 for the appropriate interest payment frequency, term and dollar range.

(4) Despite subparagraph (1), the rate of Common Fund interest payable on deposits made pursuant to an enactment shall be the rate (if any) specified in the enactment.

(5) Despite subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), in particular cases or classes of case, Public Trust and the depositor may agree on a rate of interest payable on investment deposits, protection deposits or special deposits that is different from the rate specified in Schedules 1, 2, or 3 and the agreed rate then applies.

4. Revocation of notice and transitional provisions—

(1) The Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 22 April 2004 is revoked.

(2) The rates of interest specified in Schedules 1 and 2 to this notice do not apply to any period that ends with 21 April 2004 but otherwise operate as from 22 April 2004.

(3) The rates of interest specified in Schedule 3 to this notice:

- (i) do not apply to investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term that commenced prior to 22 April 2004; but
- (ii) do apply to investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term that commenced on or after 22 April 2004.

Rights and Powers

Definitions:

“servient land” means all the land in Computer Register OT381/125.

1. The Crown shall have the right to operate the boreholes (“the boreholes”) on the easement land.
2. The full, free and uninterrupted right for the Crown, its servants, agents, workmen and invitees with any tools, implements, machinery or equipment of whatsoever nature necessary for the purpose, to enter upon and pass and repass by foot over the servient land and to remain there for any reasonable period of time for the purposes of inspecting, cleaning, repairing, maintaining and renewing the boreholes and to take recordings from piezometers and inclinometers inserted into the boreholes for the purpose of monitoring land stability and permeability.
3. The owner shall not:
 - (i) Remove, damage, fill in or interfere with the boreholes in any way; or
 - (ii) except with the prior written consent of the Crown, grow or allow to be grown any trees, shrubs or bushes of any description which will interfere with the rights granted herein; or
 - (iii) except with the prior written consent of the Crown, erect or permit any improvements or fences on the easement land which will interfere with the rights granted herein; and
 - (iv) at any time do anything on the easement land whereby the full and free use and enjoyment by the Crown of the easement rights set out herein are interfered with or affected.

4. In the event of any dispute arising between the Crown and the Owner (the “parties”) in respect of or in connection with this grant of easement and without prejudice to any other right or entitlement they may have under this grant of easement or otherwise, the parties shall explore whether the dispute can be resolved by use of alternative dispute resolution technique or mediation.

5. The rules governing such technique shall be agreed between the parties or as recommended by the New Zealand Law Society or as selected by the chairman of the New Zealand Chapter of LEADR (Lawyers Engaged in Alternative Dispute Resolution).

6. In the event the dispute is not resolved within 28 days of written notice by one party to the other of the dispute, either party may refer the dispute to arbitration under the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1996 or any amendment or re-enactment of it.
