- (b) misled the recipient or recipients of his cheques as to the reason for their being dishonoured and/or the reason that he intended to purchase the property; and/or
- (c) presented numerous cheques to various parties that were subsequently dishonoured; and/or
- (d) was adjudicated bankrupt in the Tauranga High Court on the 22nd day of April 2005; and/or
- (e) included a property purchase as a taxable expense on his goods and services tax return filed with the Inland Revenue Department, when he should reasonably have known that the funds were not available for settlement of this purchase; and/or

- (f) included a property purchase as a taxable expense on his goods and services tax return filed with the Inland Revenue Department, when he should reasonably have known that this was a private residence and not a deductible expense; and/or
- (g) had not completed the minimum number of hours of continuous professional development as required in Appendix 1 of the Rules of the Institute.

Reasons

The evidence showed erratic behaviour by the member; signing contracts, entering into sale and purchase agreements, signing cheques for substantial amounts of money which have subsequently been dishonoured and with no obvious means of covering payment. The member was declared bankrupt in April 2005.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision of the tribunal be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and the Bay of Plenty Times with mention of the member's name and locality.

Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand (Member Guilty of an Offence Punishable by Imprisonment)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held in public on the 7th day of December 2005, which the member attended and was not represented by counsel, the tribunal found David Norman Arthur, of Auckland, guilty of the following charge and that he admitted the following particular.

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30:

The member has been convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment and the conviction reflects on his fitness to practice accountancy and/or tends to bring the profession into disrepute.

Particulars

IN THAT on or about the 3rd day of July 2004, at the High Court in Auckland, the member was found guilty of an offence under the Misuse of Drugs Act 1975 in that he supplied a Class A drug, methamphetamine, to young people at a party and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of two years.

Reasons

The tribunal, having considered all the evidence and the requirement for members of the institute to be of good character and reputation, agreed that a criminal conviction does reflect on a member's fitness to practise as well as tending to bring the profession into disrepute.

Pursuant to Rule 21.52 (b), the tribunal made an order prohibiting publication of the allegations made by the member in the course of his evidence to the tribunal against named individuals and any circumstances which might lead to their identification. The reasons for the non-publication order are to protect individuals who were not present to defend themselves and the allegations were made in relation to matters not before the tribunal as they related to the circumstances of his criminal conviction.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the name of David Norman Arthur be removed from the institute's Register of members.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that David Norman Arthur pay to the institute the sum of $1,000.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

- (c) Pursuant to Rule 21.52 (b) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal made an order prohibiting publication of the allegations made by the member in the course of his evidence to the tribunal against named individuals and any circumstances which might lead to their identification.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision of the tribunal be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and the New Zealand Herald with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity and Breaching the Institute's Code of Ethics)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held in public on the 7th day of December 2005, at which the member was in attendance and was not represented by counsel, Bruce Frederick McCullough, of Wellington, pleaded guilty to the following charges (1) and (2) and admitted the following particulars (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e).

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member is guilty of:

- (1) misconduct in a professional capacity; and/or
- (2) breaching the institute's code of ethics (1995), specifically EP29.

Particulars

IN THAT in his role as a chartered accountant in public practice, the member:

- (a) prepared two sets of financial statements for his client's Company A for the year ended the 31st day of March 2002 that contained significant differences in the statement of operating results and the statement of financial position; and/or
- (b) knew, or reasonably should have known, that one set of financial statements for the year ended the 31st day of March 2002 would be provided to a bank and that the other would be filed with the Inland Revenue Department; and/or
- (c) prepared two sets of financial statements for his client's Company A for the year ended the 31st day of 31 March 2003 that contained significant differences in the statement of operating results and the statement of financial position; and/or

- (d) knew, or reasonably should have known, that one set of financial statements for the year ended the 31st day of March 2003 would be provided to a bank and that the other would be filed with the Inland Revenue Department; and/or
- (e) knew that the financial statements provided to the bank for the year ended the 31st day of 31 March 2002 and/or the 31st day of March 2003 contained false and/or incorrect and/or misleading information.

Reasons

It was the unanimous view of the tribunal that this is a fundamental issue of professionalism and integrity. Preparing two sets of accounts by design and not by accident and to do so repeatedly is not acceptable behaviour by a member of the institute.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the name of Bruce Frederick McCullough be removed from the institute's Register of members.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Bruce Frederick McCullough pay to the institute the sum of $3,036.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision of the tribunal be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and the Dominion Post with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity, Conduct Unbecoming an Accountant and Breaching the Rules of the Institute)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held in public on the 7th day of December 2005, which the member elected not to attend and was not represented by counsel, the tribunal found Edward Wayne Dick, of Auckland, guilty of the following charges and the following particulars proven.

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member is guilty of:

- (1) misconduct in a professional capacity; and/or
- (2) conduct unbecoming an accountant; and/or
- (3) breaching the rules of the institute (Rule 21.2 (b)); and/or
- (4) failing to respond promptly to the communications from the Institute; and/or
- (5) failing to pay sums due to the institute by the date specified for payment; and/or
- (6) failing to comply with orders made by the professional conduct committee and the disciplinary tribunal.

Particulars

IN THAT in relation to a complaint to the professional conduct committee, the member:

- (a) unreasonably delayed transferring a client's records to a new accountant, despite repeated assurances that the records would be forwarded; and/or
- (b) allowed taxation arrears, use of money interest and penalties to be incurred for the client between 2001 and 2004, and did not notify the client of the problem; and/or
- (c) failed to action the client's instructions causing the client's company to be struck off and the client to incur costs of reinstatement; and/or
- (d) failed to adequately respond to the new accountants' queries about the matters referred to in particulars (b) and (c) above.

AND IN THAT in relation to a complaint to the professional conduct committee and since the disciplinary tribunal decision against the member for failing to respond to the professional conduct committee dated the 5th day of April 2005, the member has failed within a reasonable and proper time to reply to requests and/or requirements of the committee as contained in a letter dated the 4th day of May 2005, and/or telephone messages left in July 2005, and/or a letter dated the 23rd day of August 2005.

AND IN THAT the member has failed to pay the following sums due to the institute within the specified timeframe:

- (a) $5,000.00, being the monetary penalty ordered by the disciplinary tribunal on the 5th day of April 2005;
- (b) $2,836.00, being costs and expenses ordered by the disciplinary tribunal on the 5th day of April 2005;
- (c) $1,500.00, being costs ordered by the professional conduct committee on the 5th day of August 2004;
- (d) $1,500.00, being the monetary penalty ordered by the disciplinary tribunal on the 23rd day of April 2004;
- (e) $1,006.00, being costs and expenses ordered by disciplinary tribunal on the 23rd day of April 2004;
- (f) $1,849.50, being the cost of the member's practice review undertaken on the 17th day of March 2004.

AND IN THAT the member has failed to comply with the order of the disciplinary tribunal dated the 5th day of April 2005 that his practice be subject to regular practice review by failing to co-operate with the practice review board's attempts to undertake a practice review.

Reasons

The member has displayed a very cavalier attitude and a total disregard for his responsibilities as a member of the institute. He has treated the professional conduct committee and practice review with contempt and he has failed to pay the institute significant amounts of money owed. The member's failure to communicate with a fellow member in relation to a client, his failure to action a client's instructions and the order by the disputes tribunal for the member to pay the client damages in respect of taxation penalties and use of money interest were noted by the tribunal.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the name of Edward Wayne Dick be removed from the institute's Register of members.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Edward Wayne Dick pay to the institute the sum of $3,164.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision of the tribunal be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and the New Zealand Herald with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

- (a) for each eligible child of the applicant for whom no payment of childcare assistance under section 61GA of the Act is being made; and
- (b) for the attendance of the eligible child at an approved early-childhood programme during the applicant's attendance at the school or (in the case of a correspondence school) equivalent study and for not more than 40 weeks in a year.
- 13.3 The matters referred to in clause 13.2 are:
- 13.3.1 the level of the applicant's educational qualifications;
- 13.3.2 the likely benefit to the applicant of participating in secondary education;
- 13.3.3 whether the applicant is likely to participate or continue to participate in secondary education without the assistance of childcare payments;
- 13.3.4 whether it is reasonable to expect the applicant, or the applicant's spouse or partner (if any), or the applicant's parents to provide financial support or other support towards the applicant's childcare needs to enable the applicant to participate in secondary education;
- 13.3.5 the availability of any suitable secondary education or early childhood education places, or both; and
- 13.3.6 any other matters the chief executive considers relevant.
- 13.4 Nothing in this Part obliges the chief executive to grant childcare payments to any particular applicant.

14 Rate of childcare payments

- 14.1 The amount of childcare payments payable in respect of any week is:
- a – b but not more than c
- 14.2 No childcare payment is payable in respect of any week in which b is greater than a.
- 14.3 In this clause—
- a is the weekly cost—
- (a) of the eligible child's attendance at the approved early-childhood programme based on—
- (i) the actual hourly fee payable; or
- (ii) if a periodic flat fee is payable, the average hourly fee payable obtained by dividing the periodic flat fee by the number of hours during the period

c is $6.00 per hour multiplied by the number of hours per week for which the child is enrolled to participate in the programme but not more than $180 a week.

15 Payment during absences of eligible child

- 15.1 If an approved early-childhood programme charges a fee for holding open the places of eligible children who are absent from the programme when the programme is available—

- (a) childcare payments may continue to be paid for an eligible child for any continuous period of not more than 30 working days when the child is absent from the programme because—

(i) the child or applicant is injured or ill; or

(ii) of a family bereavement; or

(iii) the child is on holiday; or

(iv) of other reasonable circumstances; and

- (b) childcare payments may be ceased where an eligible child is absent from the programme for a continuous period of 15 working days or more and none of the circumstances in paragraph (a) (i) to (iv) exist.

16 Notification of absences of eligible child

- 16.1 It is a condition of any grant of childcare payments under this Part that, within a reasonable time after an eligible child for whom childcare payments are granted is absent from the approved early-childhood programme concerned,—

- (a) the applicant must notify the approved early-childhood service or early-childhood care arranger (as the case may be) of the child's absence; and

- (b) the approved early-childhood service or approved early-childhood care arranger in respect of the programme to whom any payment of assistance is made under clause 17.1 must notify an officer of the department and the appropriate Family Start or Early Start worker of the child's absence.

- 16.2 Nothing in clause 16.1 (a) limits the applicant's obligations under section 80A of the Act (as applied to this programme by clause 4.1).

17 Childcare payments usually payable to approved early-childhood service or early-childhood care arranger

- 17.1 Childcare payments under this Part must be paid for each eligible child (as the case may be) to—

- (a) the approved early-childhood service providing the approved early-childhood programme; or
- (b) the approved early-childhood care arranger that arranged the scheme under which the approved early-childhood programme is provided.

17.2 Clause 17.1 does not prevent the chief executive from paying a lump sum childcare payment directly to an applicant if—

- (a) the sum represents an underpayment of the amounts—
 - (i) that should have been paid to the approved early-childhood service in respect of the eligible child's participation in the approved early-childhood programme it provides; or
 - (ii) that should have been paid to an approved early-childhood care arranger in respect of the eligible child's participation in an approved early-childhood programme provided under a scheme it arranged; and
- (b) the applicant has already paid the amount of the underpayment to the respective approved early-childhood service or approved early-childhood care arranger.

18 Overpayments recoverable

If, because an eligible child has ceased to be enrolled or has been absent from an approved early-childhood programme, childcare payments under this Part have been paid in excess of the amount the applicant was entitled to under this Part, the amount of the excess is recoverable from—

- (a) the applicant; and
- (b) to the extent it was paid to an approved early-childhood service or early-childhood care arranger under this programme, from that service or arranger.

19 Application of clauses 7 and 8

- 19.1 Clauses 7 and 8 apply to this Part as if young parent childcare payments were an allowance under Part 1.
- 19.2 Despite clause 19.1, childcare payments granted under this Part end (if they have not ended earlier) on the date that is the first of the following dates:
- (a) In the case of a single applicant, the date on which the applicant ceases to be a dependent child of his or her parent or guardian.
 - (b) The date on which the applicant turns 18.
 - (c) The date on which the applicant becomes eligible for an allowance under Part 1.
- 19.3 Childcare payments that end in accordance with clause 19.2 cannot be granted again or renewed, but the applicant may apply for an allowance under Part 1."

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the amendment, but is intended to explain its general effect.

This amendment to the Training Incentive Allowance Programme provides for a pilot to make provision for payment of young parent childcare payments to encourage certain teenage parents selected by the chief executive to remain in, or return to, secondary education. Commerce Commission

Commerce Act 1986

Commerce Act (Intention to Declare Control: Transpower New Zealand Limited) Notice 2005

Part 4A of the Commerce Act 1986 ("the Act") came into effect on 8 August 2001 and, among other things, requires the Commerce Commission ("Commission") to implement a targeted control regime for the regulation of large electricity lines businesses (lines businesses) – namely electricity distribution businesses (distribution businesses) and Transpower New Zealand Limited (Transpower).

The Targeted Control Regime

The purpose of subpart 1 of Part 4A is to promote the efficient operation of markets directly related to electricity distribution and transmission services through targeted control for the long-term benefit of consumers by ensuring that suppliers:

- are limited in their ability to extract excessive profits; and
- face strong incentives to improve efficiency and provide services at a quality that reflects consumer demands; and
- share the benefits of efficiency gains with consumers, including through lower prices.

As part of the targeted control regime, the Commission must set thresholds for the declaration of control in relation to lines businesses, assess those businesses against the thresholds it has set, identify any business that breaches the thresholds, and determine whether or not to make a declaration of control in relation to all or any of the goods or services supplied by a lines business identified as having breached a threshold.

The thresholds are effectively a screening mechanism for the Commission to identify lines businesses whose performance may warrant further examination and, if necessary, control.

On 6 June 2003, after consulting with interested parties as to possible thresholds, the Commission set two thresholds – a CPI-X price path threshold and a quality threshold – applicable until 31 March 2004 for distribution businesses, and 30 June 2004 for Transpower.

These initial thresholds were set by the Commerce Act (Electricity Lines Thresholds) Notice 2003 published as a Supplement to the New Zealand Gazette, 6 June 2003, No. 62, page 1685.

The Commission reset the thresholds for all distribution businesses for a five-year regulatory period from 1 April 2004, and for Transpower from 1 July 2004 for a period of one year.

The 2004 reset thresholds for Transpower were set by the Commerce Act (Transpower Thresholds) Notice 2004 published as a Supplement to the New Zealand Gazette, 30 June 2004, No. 81, page 2019. Transpower's thresholds were reset for a further one year period from 1 July 2005.

The 2005 reset thresholds for Transpower were set by the Commerce Act (Transpower Thresholds) Notice 2005 published as a Supplement to the New Zealand Gazette, 29 June 2005, No. 98, page 2277.

Before making a declaration of control, the Commission is required under section 571 to:

- publish its intention to make a declaration and invite interested persons to give their views on the matter; and
- give a reasonable opportunity to interested persons to give those views; and
- have regard to those views.

Intention to Declare Control

Transpower New Zealand Limited owns and operates New Zealand's high-voltage electricity transmission network (the National Grid), linking generators to distribution companies and major industrial users. Transpower is a State-Owned Enterprise.

The Commission has assessed Transpower against the initial thresholds set from 6 June 2003, and has identified Transpower as having breached the price path threshold at the first assessment date (6 September 2003) and the second assessment date (30 June 2004).

In addition, the Commission has assessed Transpower against the thresholds from 1 July 2004, and has identified Transpower as having breached this reset price path threshold at the third assessment date of 30 June 2005.

Having undertaken analysis following the price path threshold breaches, the Commission has formed an intention to make a declaration of control in respect of electricity transmission services supplied by Transpower and is inviting interested persons to give their views on the matter.

Time and Manner for Interested Persons to Give Their Views

The Commission will release a paper setting out the reasons for its intention to declare control, which will be based on the Commission's preliminary conclusions from its post breach inquiry and analysis undertaken to date.

This paper will be released on or about 27 January 2006.

There will be a submission period on the paper in order to give interested persons a reasonable opportunity to give their views.

The due date for written submissions is Wednesday, 15 February 2006 at 5.00 p.m.

Cross-submissions will be due by Tuesday, 22 February 2006 at 5.00 p.m.

The Commission will aim to make a final decision and publish its decision paper by Friday, 17 March 2006 at 5.00 p.m.

Any comments and questions on this notice may be sent by email to:

electricity@comcom.govt.nz

or by post to Network Performance Group, Commerce Commission, P.O. Box 2351, Wellington; or by facsimile (04) 924 3700.

Submission requirements are:

- electronic copies of submissions should ideally be sent in PDF format, although Word is equally acceptable. Written or non PC-generated submissions will be scanned by Commission staff and converted to PDF;
- a single hard copy should only be supplied if it is not possible to provide submissions electronically. Submitters need only staple in the top left corner, as spiral or spine bound copies will be unbound for ease of producing additional copies if required;
- all submissions will be published on the Commission's web site (the Commission recognises that there will be instances where information may genuinely be confidential. The Commission requires parties to provide a "public version" of confidential material, which at least conveys the thrust of the material (or argument) without disclosing sensitive information. This public version should be given to the Commission when an application for confidentiality of that information is sought); and
- submissions must show the organisation's name and address, date and be duly signed. In the case of personal submissions, a contact address and telephone number is required, and the submission is to be signed with the submitter's name printed beneath the signature. Personal submissions will have their contact address and telephone number removed for the purpose of publishing on the Commission's web site, as only their name will be disclosed.

Electronic copies of submissions should be emailed to:

electricity@comcom.govt.nz

Hard copies of submissions should be mailed to:

1. Pursuant to section 172I of the Electricity Act 1992, I notify the amendment of the Electricity Governance Rules 2003 ("Rules") under section 172H of the Electricity Act 1992.

2. The empowering provision for the electricity governance regulations in relation to which the Rules are made is section 172D (1) (4) of the Electricity Act 1992 ("Act").

The amendment is to insert the core grid determination into the Rules as Schedule F3A – Core Grid Determination, into Section III of Part F.

4. Pursuant to section 172Z (4) of the Act, the reasons for my decision to amend the Rules are that:

- (a) Rule 5A of Section III of Part F requires the Electricity Commission to determine the most appropriate core grid determination. In accordance with the Act and the Rules, the Electricity Commission has done so.

 - (i) the Electricity Commission's Board ("Board") to determine grid reliability standards;
 - (ii) the Board to publish statements of opportunities;
 - (iii) Transpower to prepare grid upgrade plans; and
 - (iv) other parties to appraise opportunities for transmission investment and transmission alternatives.

5. These Rules come into force on 20 January 2006.

6. Copies of the Rules may be inspected free of charge or purchased from the Electricity Commission, Level Seven, ASB Bank Tower, 2 Hunter Street, Wellington. The Rules can also be viewed on the Electricity Commission web site:

Dental Council of New Zealand

Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003

Notice of Scopes of Practice and Prescribed Qualifications

Issued by the Dental Council of New Zealand, pursuant to sections 11 and 12 of the Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003, the following scope replaces the Scope of General Dental Hygiene Practice published in a Supplement to the New Zealand Gazette, 20 May 2005, No. 81, page 1927.

Scope of General Dental Hygiene Practice

The scope of practice for dental hygiene is set out in the documented Detailed Scope of General Dental Hygiene Practice produced and published from time to time by the Dental Council of New Zealand.

Dental hygiene practice is a subset of the practice of dentistry, and is commensurate with a dental hygienist's approved education, training and competence.

A dental hygienist's major role is in the provision of oral health education and the prevention of oral disease to promote healthy oral behaviours. A dental hygienist's primary task is in prevention and non-surgical treatment of periodontal diseases. A dental hygienist guides patients' personal care to maintain sound oral tissues as an integral part of their general health.

Dental hygienists practise in a team situation with clinical guidance provided by a practising dentist or dental specialist¹.

Prescribed Qualifications

- Certificate in Dental Hygiene issued by Otago Polytechnic and approved experience in the provision of oral health services within the scope of dental hygiene practice; or
- New Zealand Defence Force training programme in Dental Hygiene and approved experience in the provision of oral health services within the scope of dental hygiene practice; or
- Diploma in Dental Hygiene issued by a New Zealand educational institution; or
- Bachelor of Health Science (Endorsement in Dental Hygiene), University of Otago; or
- undergraduate dental hygiene degree or diploma from an Australian Dental Council accredited educational institution; and registration with an Australian State licensing Board; or
- undergraduate dental hygiene degree or diploma, or undergraduate dental degree; and a pass in the DCNZ Dental Hygiene Registration Examination; or
- an undergraduate dental hygiene degree or diploma or undergraduate dental degree and a pass in the USA National Board Dental Hygiene Examination or Canadian National Dental Hygiene Certification Examination and a pass in a USA or Canadian regional or state board dental hygiene clinical examination; and registration with a USA or Canadian dental authority²; or

- a General Dental Council (GDC) accredited undergraduate dental hygiene degree or diploma from the United Kingdom; and registration with the GDC²; or
- a Certificate or Diploma in Dental Hygiene conferred by the GDC; and registration with the GDC².

For applications received before 19 September 2004:

- New Zealand Dental Association Operating Auxiliaries Course and hold a prescribed qualification for the Scope of General Dental Therapy and a minimum of 600 clinical hours' experience subsequent to 1 July 2001 in the provision of oral health services within the scope of dental hygiene practice; or

- Bachelor of Dental Surgery, University of Otago and a minimum of 600 clinical hours' experience subsequent to 1 July 2001 in the provision of oral health services within the scope of dental hygiene practice.

The following scope is a new Scope of Practice to be added to the Dental Technicians Scopes of Practice published in a Supplement to the New Zealand Gazette, 20 May 2005, No. 81, page 1927.

Scope for Implant Assisted Overdentures

Clinical procedures associated with the design, manufacture, trial fitting and repair of removable complete and partial implant overdentures prescribed and fitted by a practising dentist or dental specialist.

Prescribed Qualification

Registration as a Clinical Dental Technician plus evidence of appropriate training, completion of eight documented cases and a competency attestation from an appropriately qualified dentist or dental specialist³.

Key to Annotations

¹Clinical guidance means the professional support and assistance provided to a dental hygienist by a practising dentist or dental specialist as part of the provision of overall integrated care to the patient group. Dental hygienists and dentists/specialists normally work from the same premises providing a team approach. Clinical guidance may be provided at a distance but appropriate access must be available to ensure that the dentist or specialist is able to provide guidance and advice, when required, and maintain general oversight of the clinical care outcomes of the patient group.

Dental hygienists are responsible and accountable for their own clinical practice within their scope of practice but the dentist or dental specialist is responsible and accountable for the clinical guidance provided.

Further detail on the working relationship between dental hygienists and dentists will be set out in the relevant Dental Council Code of Practice.

²Following research and consultation, the Dental Council agreed at a meeting held on 29-30 November 2005 to prescribe this qualification.

³The prescribed qualification above will be available until 1 June 2006. Thereafter the prescribed qualification for registration in the additional scope of removable complete and partial implant overdentures on oral implants will be an accredited qualification in Implant Overdentures practice, issued by an approved New Zealand educational institution.
