Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision (Member Guilty of an Offence Punishable by Imprisonment and Failing to Respond to the Institute)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held in public on 7 February 2006, at which the member was not in attendance and was not represented by counsel, Vijay Sen Sethi (suspended member), of Auckland, was found guilty of the following charges (1) and (2) and the following particulars (a) and (b) were proven.

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member:

- (1) has been convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment and the conviction reflects on his fitness to practise accountancy and/or tends to bring the profession into disrepute; and/or
- (2) has failed to respond promptly to communications from the institute.

Particulars

IN THAT

- (a) on or about 24 June 2005, at the Auckland District Court, he was found guilty of an offence under section 229A (b) of the Crimes Act 1961 in that he used a document with intent to defraud and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment; and/or

Reasons

Fraud is a very serious offence and is unacceptable behaviour for a member of the institute. The conviction reflects on his fitness to practise as an accountant and it tends to bring the profession and the institute into disrepute.

Orders of the Tribunal

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Notice is hereby given that, acting pursuant to section 10 (1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, under delegated authority from the Chief Executive of the Ministry of Economic Development and having received an application, I have initiated an investigation to determine both the existence and effect of the alleged dumping of the goods described in the Schedule to this notice originating from the People's Republic of China, being satisfied that sufficient evidence has been provided that:
