Health

Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001

Designation of Auditing Agency

Pursuant to section 32 of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001 (“the Act”), the Director-General of Health designates Verification New Zealand Limited (“the Auditing Agency”) to audit the provision or likely future provision of the following kinds of health care services:

- Hospital Care (as defined in section 4(1) of the Act)
- Rest Home Care (as defined in section 6(2) of the Act)
- Residential Disability Care (as defined in section 4(1) of the Act)

This designation is subject to the following conditions:

1. The auditing agency must ensure that where it audits the provision of health care services for people with physical or sensory disabilities, or intellectual disabilities, or psychiatric disabilities or mental illnesses, the auditing agency observes the following:
 - For audits involving services for people with physical or sensory disabilities, a person with a pronounced physical or sensory disability must fully participate in all aspects of the audit.
 - For audits involving services for people with intellectual disabilities, a person with an intellectual disability (accompanied by a support person where necessary), or a close family or whānau member of a person with an intellectual disability, must participate in all aspects of the audit.

- For people with psychiatric disabilities or mental illnesses, a past or present consumer of mental health services must fully participate in all aspects of the audit.
2. The auditing agency is required to conduct Health and Disability focused audits, together with a compliance audit against the requirements of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001 annually.
 3. The auditing agency is required to conduct Health and Disability Services Sector focused management reviews annually.
 4. The auditing agency is required to provide written details of its internal appeals process to all clients.

This notice, which expires on 25 January 2010, revokes in its entirety the notice that designated Verification New Zealand Limited, pursuant to section 32 of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001, published in the New Zealand Gazette, 8 April 2004, No. 41, page 1022.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of January 2007.

Social Development

Social Security Act 1964

Transition to Work Grant Programme

Pursuant to section 124(1)(d) of the Social Security Act 1964, the Minister for Social Development and Employment establishes and approves the following welfare programme for special assistance.

Dated at Wellington this 23rd day of January 2007.

DAVID BENSON-POPE, Minister for Social Development and Employment.

Programme

1. Title—This programme is the Transition to Work Grant Programme.

2. Commencement—This programme comes into effect on 30 April 2007.

3. Purpose—The purpose of this programme is to support people to move into employment by providing non-recoverable financial assistance for essential costs relating to seeking work, attending job interviews, moving into work and transitioning from one job to another.

4. Interpretation—(1) In this programme, unless the context otherwise requires:

52-week period, in relation to a grant, means the 52 weeks immediately preceding the date of application for the grant

Act means the Social Security Act 1964

applicant means a person applying for a grant under this programme employment means paid employment, but does not include:

- (a) employment as a sex worker or as an operator of a business of prostitution (as those terms are defined in the Prostitution Reform Act 2003); or
- (b) employment in any other occupation of a kind that provides, or directly facilitates the provision of, services:
 - (i) for the sexual gratification of one or more other persons; and
 - (ii) that are provided for payment or other reward (irrespective of whether the reward is given to the person providing the services or another person).

exceptional circumstances includes situations where a person:

- (a) has been granted an exemption from enrolment under section 22 of the Education Act 1989;
- (b) is the parent of a dependent child or has a spouse or partner who is dependent on the person;
- (c) relies on any form of state assistance; or
- (d) is in extreme hardship.

full-time employment means:

- (a) employment under a contract of service or apprenticeship requiring the employee to work, whether on time or piece rates, an average (when calculated over a period of 4 consecutive weeks) of at least 30 hours a week; or
- (b) employment for any number of hours regarded as full-time employment for the purposes of an award, agreement or contract relating to the employment.

grant means a transition to work grant, being the special assistance under this programme working age benefit means any of the following benefits:

- (a) an unemployment benefit;
- (b) a sickness benefit;
- (c) a domestic purposes benefit;
- (d) an emergency benefit (other than an emergency benefit payable under section 17(2)(c) of the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001);
- (e) an independent youth benefit;
- (f) an invalid's benefit;
- (g) a widow's benefit;
- (h) New Zealand superannuation if the applicant is the spouse or partner of a person who has elected to receive the appropriate rate set out in clause 2 of Schedule 1 to the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001; or

- (i) a veteran's pension if the applicant is the spouse or partner of a person who has elected to receive the appropriate rate set out in clause 2 of Schedule 11 to the War Pensions Act 1954.

(2) Expressions defined in section 3(1) of the Act have the same meaning in this programme.

5. Application of the Social Security Act—(1) Sections 12, 62, 63, 64, 66, 66A, 66B, 68, 68A, 71, 73, 74, 74A, 76, 77, 80A, 81, 82(7), 82A, 84 and 86J of the Act apply to this programme and to any applicant as if the grant was a benefit.

(2) Nothing in subclause (1) limits or affects the application of any other section of the Act.

6. Eligibility—A person is eligible for a grant if he or she is 18 years or over (or who is under the age of 18 years if exceptional circumstances apply) and:

- (a) is interacting with the department to find full-time employment (not being temporary employment);
- (b) is interacting with the department to find temporary, seasonal or part-time employment if the chief executive considers that it is not appropriate or reasonable in the circumstances to require the applicant to enter full-time employment of a permanent kind;
- (c) is registered with Student Job Search;
- (d) will enter full-time employment (not being temporary employment); or
- (e) will enter temporary, seasonal or part-time employment if the chief executive considers that it is not appropriate or reasonable in the circumstances to require the applicant to enter full-time employment of a permanent kind.

7. Ineligibility—(1) But a person is not eligible for a grant if he or she:

- (a) has cash assets (including the cash assets of his or her spouse or partner, if any) of more than:
 - (i) in the case of a single person, the amount in clause 1 of Schedule 31 to the Act; or
 - (ii) in the case of a person who is married, in a civil union, in a de facto relationship or is a sole parent, the amount in clause 2 of that Schedule; or
- (b) is a person whose income (including the income of his or her spouse or partner, if any) is more than the appropriate amount set out in Part 2 of Schedule 31 to the Act;
- (c) is a recipient of New Zealand superannuation payable under the New Zealand Superannuation and Retirement Income Act 2001 or a veteran's pension payable under Part 6 of the War Pensions Act 1954, unless the chief executive considers the circumstances of the applicant mean that a grant is appropriate and reasonable in the circumstances.

(2) An applicant is not eligible for a grant to enter:

- (a) employment-related training (except for training paid for by the employer as part of the employment the applicant is entering), education, voluntary work or work experience; or
- (b) a job seeker development activity.

8. Application form must be completed—(1) A grant may be made to an applicant only if an application form for the purpose is completed in writing by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) The form must be provided by the chief executive.

9. Costs—(1) The chief executive may, in his or her discretion, make a grant to assist an applicant who has an immediate need for financial assistance for one or more of the following kinds of essential costs:

- (a) Job seeking expenses, meaning costs involved with seeking work and attending and participating in job interviews, including:
 - (i) clothing costs;
 - (ii) child care costs;
 - (iii) the cost of an interpreter;
 - (iv) transport costs;
 - (v) the costs of tattoo removal if the applicant is referred to a tattoo removal service by a registered medical practitioner.
 - (b) Job placement expenses, meaning costs that an applicant will need to incur to enter employment (other than training costs) including:
 - (i) the cost of any necessary job-related clothing or equipment (not being clothing or equipment the employer is required to supply to comply with the employer's obligations under the Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992);
 - (ii) the cost of any necessary job-related safety equipment required in order to take up employment that the employer is not required to supply in order to comply with any enactment;
 - (iii) child care costs up to the date of the applicant's first payment of wages or salary for their new employment;
 - (iv) transport costs up to the date of the applicant's first payment of wages or salary for their new employment;
 - (v) the costs of tattoo removal if the applicant is referred to a tattoo removal service by a registered medical practitioner;
 - (vi) relocation costs, if the applicant needs to relocate his or her place of residence to take up employment.
 - (c) Bridging finance expenses, meaning essential living expenses for an applicant (other than a student undertaking holiday employment) who:
 - (i) requires assistance in the period between the last payment of their working age benefit (or where relevant, the last payment of their wages or salary) and the applicant's first payment of wages or salary; and either
 - (A) will enter full-time employment (not being temporary employment) within a period of less than 4 weeks after the date of application for the grant; or
 - (B) will have their working age benefit cancelled upon entering full-time employment (not being temporary employment).
- (2) A grant may not be made for costs if the applicant has not taken all necessary steps to obtain any financial assistance towards such costs from any source from which he or she may be eligible to receive such assistance.
- 10. Amounts of grants—(1) The chief executive must not make grants to an applicant of more than $1,500.00 in total during a 52-week period.
- (2) No grant of the following kinds must exceed:
- (a) $300.00 for job seeking expenses under clause 9(1)(a); or

- (b) an amount of $250.00 per week, or be made for a period of more than 2 weeks at any time, for bridging finance under clause 9(1)(c).

11. Payment of grants—(1) Every grant made in relation to the purchase of goods and services is to be paid:

- (a) where practicable, to the person providing the goods or services for which the grant was made; or
- (b) at the discretion of the chief executive, to the applicant.

(2) Every grant for bridging finance is to be paid to the applicant.

12. Obligations—(1) An applicant who seeks assistance for job placement expenses under clause 9(1)(b) or bridging finance under clause 9(1)(c) must provide the chief executive with confirmation of the starting date of the employment for which the assistance is required.

(2) When required by the chief executive, an applicant must provide proof of essential costs for job seeking expenses under clause 9(1)(a) and for job placement expenses under clause 9(1)(b).

(3) A person in receipt of a grant must attend and participate in any interview with an officer of the department as required.

13. Revocation—The Work Start Grant Programme* and the Pathways Payment Programme† are revoked.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the programme, but is intended to explain its general effect.

This programme, which comes into effect on 30 April 2007, replaces the Work Start Grant Programme and the Pathways Payment Programme. This programme provides non-recoverable financial assistance to meet the essential costs of moving into employment for the purpose of removing financial barriers to entering employment.

General Section

Animal Health Board

Biosecurity Act 1993

Notice of Movement Controls for Bovine Tuberculosis

Pursuant to section 131(2) of the Biosecurity Act 1993, the Animal Health Board Incorporated declares those parts of New Zealand described in the Schedule to this notice to be Controlled Areas for the purpose of enabling the limitation of the spread of bovine tuberculosis.

Pursuant to section 131(3)(a) of the Biosecurity Act 1993, the Animal Health Board Incorporated gives notice that the movement of cattle and deer within the Controlled Areas is restricted and regulated to the extent and subject to the conditions specified below.

Notice

1. Definitions

In this notice, unless the context otherwise requires:

“Herd” means:

- (a) a group of cattle, or deer, or cattle and deer, that is managed as one unit; or
- (b) a group of cattle, or deer, or cattle and deer, that is kept within the same enclosure or behind the same fence.

“Herd of Origin” means the herd with which a cattle beast or a deer is, for the time being, grazing.

“Order” means the Biosecurity (National Bovine Tuberculosis Pest Management Strategy) Order 1998.

“Controlled Area” means an area specified in the Schedule to this notice.

2. Testing Prior to Movement From or Within Controlled Areas

2.1 No cattle beast or deer aged 90 days or more may be moved:

- (a) from any Controlled Area to a place outside that Controlled Area; or
- (b) within any Controlled Area from its Herd of Origin, or the place or establishment at which the animal is being kept to a place other than a place occupied by the owner or person in charge of the cattle beast or deer unless it has undergone, within 60 days prior to the date of movement, a negative test for bovine tuberculosis in accordance with the Order.

2.2 The restriction on movement in 2.1 does not apply where an animal is being moved directly to a place of slaughter.

2.3 Notwithstanding 2.1, an animal may be exempted from the requirement for a test in accordance with the Animal Health Board Tuberculosis Operational Plan.

This declaration takes effect from 1 March 2007.

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of February 2007.

WILLIAM MCCOOK, Chief Executive, Animal Health Board Incorporated.
