Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand
—Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal (Member Guilty of Conduct Unbecoming an

Particulars (j) and (l) and charges 1, 3 and 5 were withdrawn.

The charges and particulars were as follows:

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member is guilty of:

- (1) (withdrawn);
- (2) conduct unbecoming an accountant; and/or
- (3) (withdrawn);
- (4) breaching the Rules and/or the institute’s Code of Ethics, specifically Rule 18.2 and/or 19.2(c) and/or the fundamental principle(s) of integrity and/or professional behaviour and/or Appendix 1 of the Code of Ethics; and/or
- (5) (withdrawn).

Particulars

IN THAT

In her role as a chartered accountant and in relation to complaints, the member:

- (a) has offered and/or continues to offer accounting services to the public without holding a certificate of public practice in breach of Rule 18.2; and/or
- (b) is a director and shareholder of Arnerich & Associates Limited, a company which offers accounting services to the public, without the consent of council, in breach of Rule 19.2(c); and/or
- (c) failed to comply with an undertaking to the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, dated 15 December 2006, to completely cease advertising accounting services, in that she displayed a sign advertising her accounting services outside her house on or about 14 March 2007 and/or sent a letter printed on Arnerich & Associates Limited letterhead on or about 28 March 2007 and/or sent emails which inferred a relationship between herself and Arnerich & Associates Limited on or about 8 March 2007 and/or 22 March 2007 and/or 1 April 2007, in breach of the fundamental principle(s) of integrity and/or professional behaviour and/or Rule 1 and/or paragraph 30 of the Code of Ethics; and/or
- (d) failed to comply with an undertaking to the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, dated 15 December 2006, to not actively pursue or take on new clients until a certificate of public practice was obtained, in that she informed the professional conduct committee that she purchased a block of fees from another member in February 2007 in breach of the fundamental principle(s) of integrity and/or professional behaviour and/or Rule 1 and/or paragraph 30 of the Code of Ethics; and/or

- (e) failed to comply with an undertaking to the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, dated 15 December 2006, to take all steps to regulate the practice of Arnerich & Associates Limited, as soon as possible, in that she has not obtained her certificate of public practice, in breach of the fundamental principle(s) of integrity and/or professional behaviour and/or Rule 1 and/or paragraph 30 of the Code of Ethics; and/or
- (f) downloaded and/or otherwise transferred files from the client database of A & Associates to her home computer without authority and in breach of the fundamental principle(s) of integrity and/or professional behaviour and/or Rule 12 of the Code of Ethics; and/or
- (g) downloaded and/or otherwise transferred, precedents and templates from the practice of A & Associates to her home computer without authority and in breach of the fundamental principle(s) of integrity and/or professional behaviour and/or Rule 12 of the Code of Ethics; and/or
- (h) instructed an associate to provide to her, to download and/or otherwise transfer, client database records and/or precedents and templates and/or other documents, from the practice of A & Associates in breach of the fundamental principle(s) of integrity and/or professional behaviour and/or Rule 12 and/or Appendix 1 paragraph 3 of the Code of Ethics; and/or
- (i) admitted downloading and/or otherwise transferring files from the client database and/or precedents and templates and/or other documents from the practice of A & Associates, without forethought to the consequences and/or the sensitivity of the documents to A & Associates, in breach of Rule 9 and/or Rule 14 of the Code of Ethics; and/or
- (j) (withdrawn);
- (k) misled the public by advertising and using stationery which implied that she had the approval to offer accounting services to the public from the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, in breach of the fundamental principle of integrity and/or Rule 2 of the Code of Ethics; and/or
- (l) (withdrawn).

Reasons

This case involves a member not holding a certificate of public practice who was employed by a sole practitioner who passed away after a period of illness.

The member has foolishly and impatiently proceeded to offer accounting services to the public in the expectation that a certificate of public practice was imminent.

The member has conspired with an associate to obtain intellectual property from the deceased’s practice for personal advantage. The member has admitted breaching the terms of an undertaking given to the institute not to actively pursue or take on new clients.

As to publication, the tribunal is not persuaded that the member’s desire for anonymity outweighs the interests of the public and the institute’s members.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (c) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Tracey Joy Arnerich pay to the institute a monetary penalty of $7,000.00.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (k) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Tracey Joy Arnerich be censured.

(c) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Tracey Joy Arnerich pay to the institute the sum of $17,000.00 (inclusive of GST) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee and the cost of the publicity.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the decision of the disciplinary tribunal will automatically be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal and on the institute's website and the tribunal directed that the decision be published in the Western Leader, the New Zealand Gazette and the New Zealand Herald with mention of the member's name and locality.

The publicity in the Chartered Accountants Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and on the website will be the full version of the notice of decision, and the version in the Western Leader and the New Zealand Herald will be the abbreviated version of the notice of decision with reference to the full decision on the institute's website.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Dated this 28th day of November 2007.

R. J. O. HOARE, Chairman, Disciplinary Tribunal.

Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand —Notice of decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal (Member Guilty of Incompetence in a Professional Capacity and Breaching the Institute's Rules and/or Code of Ethics)

At a hearing of the disciplinary tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held in public on 26 November 2007, at which the member was in attendance and represented by counsel, Kwok-Chi (Paul) Tsui, a chartered accountant of Auckland, admitted particulars (a), (b), (c) and (d) and pleaded guilty to charges (2) and (3). Charge (1) was withdrawn.

The charges and particulars were as follows:

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member is guilty of:

- (1) (withdrawn);
- (2) incompetence in a professional capacity that has been of such a degree and/or so frequent as to reflect on his fitness to practise as an accountant and/or tends to bring the profession into disrepute; and/or
- (3) breaching the Rules and/or the Code of Ethics, specifically Rule 20.6(d) and/or the fundamental principle of Integrity (Rule 2) and/or the fundamental principle of Competence (Rule 7 and/or

8) and/or the fundamental principle of Quality Performance (Rule 9 and/or Rule 11).

Particulars

In his role as a chartered accountant in public practice, the member:

- (a) In relation to Institute A:
 - (i) undertook assurance work in the form of an attestation to the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) dated 18 August 2006 and in doing so failed to comply with the practice review board's directive in accordance with Rule 20.6(d) not to do so, pursuant to their letter to him dated 8 March 2005; and/or
 - (ii) failed to prepare sufficient documentation to carry out an assurance engagement, being a professional attestation for NZQA dated 18 August 2006, in breach of Review Engagement Standard, RS-1; and/or
 - (iii) made a false or misleading statement, in that he signed an attestation to NZQA dated 18 August 2006 that included a statement that his work was conducted in accordance with the Professional Engagement Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, when this was not the case, in breach of the fundamental principle of integrity; and/or
 - (iv) made a false or misleading statement, in that he signed an attestation to NZQA dated 18 August 2006 that included a statement that he had no relationship with the entity other than in his role as an independent chartered accountant, when this was not the case as his firm also undertook compilation engagements for this client, in breach of the fundamental principle of integrity; and/or
- (b) In relation to Company B:
 - (i) failed to make proper enquiry and/or prepare appropriate documentation to support numerous transactions in the compilation of the 2005 financial statements in breach of Compilation Standards' 6 (Documentation) and/or 7 (Perusal) and/or the fundamental principle of quality performance; and/or
 - (ii) prepared an income tax return based on the financial statements that contained the entries referred to in Particular (b)(i), in breach of TG-1 and/or EG-2; and/or
 - (iii) incorrectly filed the 2005 income tax return IR4, including the annual imputation return, and in doing so demonstrating a breach of TG-1 and/or EG-2 and/or the fundamental principle of quality performance; and/or
 - (iv) failed to produce in a timely manner the supporting documentation and source documents required by the professional conduct committee pursuant to letters dated 29 January 2007 and/or 15 February 2007 and/or 20 March 2007; and/or
- (c) In relation to the compilation engagement for Company C:
 - (i) failed to maintain sufficient documentation to substantiate the inventory balance of $358,616.00 as at 31 March 2003, in breach of Compilation Standards' 6 (Documentation) and/or 7 (Perusal) and/or the fundamental principle of quality performance; and/or

- (ii) failed to make proper enquiry into expenses introduced through a credit to the shareholder's current account in the 2002 and/or 2003 financial statements, where the amount reported as shareholder's drawings was significantly lower than appeared reasonable in breach of Compilation Standards' 6 (Documentation) and/or 7 (Perusal) and/or the fundamental principle of quality performance; and/or
- (iii) prepared an income tax return based on the financial statements that contained the entries referred to in Particular (c)(i) and/or (c)(ii), in breach of TG-1 and/or EG-2;
- (d) Failed to address a number of issues raised by practice review in the review completed in August 2004, in breach of the fundamental principle of competence and/or the fundamental principle of quality performance and/or the statement of compilation engagement standards.

Reasons

The tribunal noted that the member has not been charged with misconduct or negligence but only incompetence. There is no suggestion of lost money or client complaints and the tribunal has taken this into account.

But the incompetence has been exhibited repeatedly over many years and despite the assistance of practice review. It goes beyond mere technical non-compliance and is so significant as to reflect on the member's fitness to practise and this tends to bring the profession into disrepute.

The member has relied on information furnished by clients without any real knowledge of whether it is true or false.

The member's inability to satisfactorily answer the questions put to him by the professional conduct committee and the practice review board reinforce the level of his incompetence.

The tribunal is gravely concerned with the protection of the public.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (d) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the certificate of public practice held by Kwok-Chi (Paul) Tsui be cancelled.

- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Kwok-Chi (Paul) Tsui pay to the institute the sum of $14,000.00 (inclusive of GST) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee and the cost of the publicity.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the decision of the disciplinary tribunal will automatically be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal and on the institute's website, and the tribunal directed that the decision be published in the New Zealand Gazette and the New Zealand Herald with mention of the member's name and locality.

The publicity in the Chartered Accountants Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and on the website will be the full version of the notice of decision, and the version in the New Zealand Herald will be the abbreviated version of the notice of decision with reference to the full decision on the institute's website.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Approval of the Revised New Zealand Equivalent to International Accounting Standard 1 Presentation of Financial Statements (NZ IAS 1) (Notice No. 80)

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to section 29 of the Financial Reporting Act 1993 ("the Act"), that the Accounting Standards Review Board has approved the New Zealand Equivalent to International Accounting Standard 1 Presentation of Financial Statements (NZ IAS 1), which has been submitted to it by the Financial Reporting Standards Board of the New Zealand Institute of Chartered Accountants.

The revised NZ IAS 1 is:

- to apply to all reporting entities and groups, the Crown and all departments, offices of Parliament and Crown entities, and all local authorities (each of which is defined in the Act) other than where expressly exempted by its terms, the terms of any other approved financial reporting standard or by law;

- to apply to annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2009; and
- a Regulation for the purposes of the Regulations (Disallowance) Act 1989.

Earlier application of the revised NZ IAS 1 is permitted only where an entity complies, or has complied, with New Zealand Equivalent to International Financial Reporting Standard 1 First-time Adoption of New Zealand Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards for an annual period beginning on or after 1 January 2005.

The revised NZ IAS 1 supersedes NZ IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements (2004).

The board therefore resolves to withdraw NZ IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements (2004) when the revised NZ IAS 1 becomes effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2009.

Where early application of the revised NZ IAS 1 is permitted for an entity, NZ IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements (2004) is deemed to be withdrawn in relation to that entity upon such early application.

Copies of the revised NZ IAS 1 may be inspected free of charge at, and will be made available for purchase from, the offices of the New Zealand Institute of Chartered Accountants, 40 Mercer Street (PO Box 11342), Wellington, and 27–33 Ohinerau Street (PO Box 3334), Auckland.

Dated this 28th day of November 2007.

WARWICK HUNT, Chairman, Accounting Standards Review Board.
