WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the session thereof holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it was amongst other things enacted that for each of the Provinces established in the said Colony by the said Act there should be a Superintendent and a Provincial Council, to be elected and constituted under and subject to the provisions in that behalf therein contained, and that it should be lawful for the Superintendent of any of the said Provinces to prorogue the Provincial Council thereof, from time to time whenever he should deem it expedient so to do.

Now, therefore, I, the Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, (one of the Provinces aforesaid) do proclaim and declare that I do hereby, in pursuance of the power vested in me in that behalf by the said Act, prorogue the Provincial Council of the said Province of Auckland, and that the said Provincial Council is prorogued accordingly.

PROCLAMATION.

By ROBERT GRAHAM, Esquire,
Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, in the Colony of New Zealand.

WHEREAS an infectious disease known as Pleuro-Pneumonia has broken out amongst the cattle in the Province of Auckland, and it is desirable to check the spread of such disease.

And whereas by a warrant under the hand of His Excellency the Governor, bearing date the fourteenth day of September, 1864, the said Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, delegated to the Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, certain powers conferred upon him by the "Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," subject to certain regulations to be made by the Governor in Council under the said recited Act.

Now, therefore, I, Robert Graham, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Auckland, in pursuance of such delegation hereby revoke the Proclamation issued by me upon the 20th day of August, 1864, in so far as it defines the limits of the Infected Districts, and I do hereby proclaim and declare that from and after the day of the date hereof, that part only of the Province of Auckland, lying South of a straight line running West from the South Head of Wangarei Harbour, to the West Coast, shall be and be deemed to be an Infected District, within the meaning of the "Diseased Cattle Act, 1861." And in further pursuance of such delegations, I, the said Superintendent, do hereby make and ordain the following regulation, which shall be in force in the said district of the Province of Auckland.

REGULATIONS.

1. The said proclaimed district shall, for the purposes of the said Act, be called and known as the "Auckland District."

2. Any person who shall knowingly or wilfully drive over or along any road or highway cattle which may be infected with any infectious or contagious disease, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £200.

3. Any person who shall knowingly keep in his possession or on his premises any cattle so infected, and shall not give notice to some Inspector appointed under the said Act, shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding £200.

4. It shall be lawful for any Inspector appointed under the said Act to enter upon all or any lands in any district which may have been declared to be an infected district in pursuance of the said Act, for the purpose of inspecting any cattle which may be on such lands; and if any such Inspector shall find any cattle on such lands infected as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him to give notice thereof to the owner of any such cattle, or the person having charge of the same, or the occupier of the lands on which such cattle may be running or depasturing, and shall at the same time require any of such persons to forthwith destroy any such cattle, and to bury or burn the carcasses thereof to the satisfaction of such Inspector. And if any person being thereto lawfully required shall refuse to carry out such direction or requisition, or shall neglect to do so within a reasonable time after being so required, he shall forfeit and pay any penalty not exceeding £200.

5. If any person shall refuse or neglect to kill or bury any such cattle as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any Inspector duly appointed under the said Act to take such steps as to him shall seem fit for destroying such cattle, and burying the carcasses thereof, and all costs, charges, and expenses incurred by any such Inspector in killing or burying any such cattle shall be paid by the person so neglecting or refusing to kill or bury such cattle, and shall be recovered in addition and by the same means as any penalty inflicted by the said Act; Provided that such penalty, together with such costs, charges, and expenses, shall not exceed in the whole the sum of £200.

6. It shall be lawful for any Inspector appointed under the said Act to take such steps as to him shall seem fit for destroying all cattle which may be infected as aforesaid, wherever such cattle may be found, and without giving such notice as aforesaid, and to take the necessary steps for burying or burning the carcasses of any such cattle ~~whenever they may be so destroyed.~~

7. It shall be lawful for any such Inspector as aforesaid to kill or cause to be killed any cattle which he may have reason to suspect are infected as aforesaid.

8. It shall be lawful for any such Inspector to inspect all or any public Slaughter Houses or other places where cattle are or may be slaughtered, for the purpose of examining the carcasses of cattle there slaughtered; and if it shall appear to such Inspector that any carcasses are the carcasses of cattle infected as aforesaid, he shall cause such carcasses to be forthwith burned or buried.

9. No person in the District of Auckland, proclaimed as aforesaid, shall permit or suffer the carcasses of any cattle infected or otherwise, to remain unburied or unburnt on his premises, or on any land in his occupation, for a longer period than 12 hours, and any person offending against this Regulation shall forfeit and pay any penalty not exceeding £50: Provided that this regulation shall not extend to cases of cattle slaughtered for the purposes of human food.

10. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct, impede, or interfere with any Inspector in the lawful discharge of his duty, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £200.

11. No person shall drive, or permit to be driven, or transport, or remove any cattle whatever from the said Infected District to that part of the Province of Auckland lying to the North of the said line, under a penalty not exceeding £200.
