[Extract from page 80 of New Zealand Gazette,
No. 8, February 4, 1871.]

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, 3rd February, 1871.

IN compliance with recommendations contained in the Reports of the Flax Commission Committee, and of the Joint Committee on Colonial Industries, to the effect that "premiums not exceeding in the whole £500 should be granted for the encouragement of Sericulture in the Colony," and that the development of certain industrial pursuits would often be best promoted by the offer of a bonus on production, the following Rewards are offered, subject to the undermentioned conditions:

A bonus of 50 per cent. on the value realised is offered for the production of the first £1,000 worth of cocoons of the silkworm or eggs of the silkworm produced in the Colony, to be paid on quantities of not less value than £50 or more than £100 produced by any one person.

To any person or persons who shall manufacture within the Colony from New Zealand flax—

For the first 500 reams of Printing Paper, a sum of £400; and a further sum of £250 for the first 500 reams of Packing Paper; and the like sum for the first 10,000 yards of Scrim-cloth suitable for covering flax bales.

CONDITIONS.

The required quantity of each article to be completed before the 30th June, 1872.

The weight of each ream of printing paper to be not less than 30lbs., of each ream of packing paper not less than 40lbs., and of each piece of scrim-cloth of 100 yards in length and double width, not less than 30lbs.

The rewards will be paid on the certificate of an officer to be appointed by the Government that the above conditions have been complied with.

W. GIBBORNE.

A Justice of the Peace.

VICTORIA, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith: To WALTER GRAHAME, of Auckland, in the Province of Auckland, merchant, and all other parties whom it may concern.

WHEREAS an action is now pending in our Supreme Court of New Zealand, Northern District, Province of Auckland, between William Smellie Grahame, formerly of Auckland, merchant, but at present residing in England, plaintiff, and Robert Simpson Thomson, formerly of Auckland, settler, but now of San Francisco, defendant, and in order that the plaintiff may proceed in the said action, we command you, that you and each of you do retain and keep all and singular lands and other hereditaments, monies and chattels, bills, bonds, and other property of whatsoever nature, in the custody or under the control of you or either of you at the time of the service of this writ, belonging to the above-named defendant, or to or in which such defendant shall at that time be legally or equitably entitled or otherwise beneficially interested, and whether solely or jointly with any other person or persons, and all debts of every kind then due by you or either of you to such defendant, although the same or part thereof may be payable only at a future day: until the further order of our said Court, and this you shall in nowise omit.

Witness His Honor Sir George Alfred Arney, Knight, Chief Justice of our said Supreme Court of New Zealand, at Auckland, this first day of March, A.D. 1871.

This writ was issued by John Richmond, of Shortland-street, Auckland, Solicitor for the above-named plaintiff.
