THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1875.

[No. 4.

Superintendent's Office,

Auckland, 28th January, 1875.

THE Superintendent deeply regrets to announce that he has this day received, by telegram from the Honourable the Minister for Immigration, the following Official intimation of the destruction by fire of the ship 'Cospatrick,' with immigrants, bound for Auckland.

J. WILLIAMSON,

Superintendent.

Government Buildings,
Wellington, January 27, 1875.

To the Superintendent—
Auckland,

Agent-General telegraphs 8th January—'Cospatrick' totally destroyed by fire in latitude 37 S., longitude E. Believed all perished except three sailors picked up in a boat: only one other boat got away, but not heard of since.

H. A. ATKINSON.
