TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1860.

[No. VI.]

Provincial Council Chambers,
Tuesday, April 24, 1860.

HIS Honor the Superintendent prorogued the Provincial Council this day with the following

ADDRESS.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Council—

I have to declare my assent on behalf of his Excellency the Governor to "The Cattle Trespass Ordinance."

The labours of this special Session having come to a close, I have to congratulate you and the province on the satisfactory result of your deliberations, and trust that I shall be successful in my endeavour to give effect to your resolutions respecting the tunnel and railway. I may state that I do not apprehend any serious difficulty in the accomplishment of your wishes. Thanking you for your assistance during the Session, I have now to declare this Council to be prorogued until Friday, the 10th day of August next.

WILLIAM SEFTON MOORHOUSE,
Superintendent.

PROCLAMATION.

I, WILLIAM SEFTON MOORHOUSE, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, in exercise of the powers enabling me in that behalf, do hereby this day prorogue the Provincial Council of the said province until the Tenth day of August next, and the said Provincial Council is hereby prorogued accordingly.

Given under my hand, at Christchurch, this twenty-fourth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

WILLIAM SEFTON MOORHOUSE,
Superintendent.

By his Honor's command,
CHARLES ROBERT BLAKISTON,
Provincial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance of the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Canterbury, entitled the "Trespass of Cattle Ordinance," Session XII, No. 1, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent from time to time, by notice in the 'Government Gazette' of the Province, to nominate and appoint fit persons to be Arbitrators under the provisions of the said Ordinance, and to cause Public Pounds to be erected and maintained within the province, and by writing under his hand to appoint fit and proper persons to be Pound-keepers, and to remove the same and appoint others in their stead.

Now therefore I, WILLIAM SEFTON MOORHOUSE, the Superintendent of the said province, in pursuance of the provisions of the above recited Ordinance, enabling me in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare that all persons heretofore appointed to act in accordance with the provisions of certain Ordinances, entitled "The Trespass of Cattle Ordinance," Session II, No. 7; and "The Trespass of Cattle Amendment Ordinance," Session X, No. 4, shall be deemed and taken to be Arbitrators and Pound-keepers within the meaning of the Ordinance first above recited; and all places or enclosures heretofore by law erected and maintained for the impounding of cattle under the said Ordinance, shall be deemed and taken to be Public Pounds within the meaning of "The Trespass of Cattle Ordinance," Session XII, No. 1.

Given under my hand, at Christchurch, this twenty-fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

WILLIAM SEFTON MOORHOUSE,
Superintendent.

By his Honor's command,
CHARLES ROBERT BLAKISTON,
Provincial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!
