CAUTION.

Provincial Secretary's Office,
Christchurch, 2nd Sept., 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given, that no person will be allowed to board or quit any vessel arriving from any port or place beyond the Province, until the Quarantine Regulations, now in force, have been duly complied with.

The penalties, in case of an infringement of the regulations will be most strictly enforced.

By order of His Honor the Superintendent,

THOS. WM. MAUDE,
Provincial Secretary.

The following are the Regulations now in force:—

1. The Master of every vessel arriving at any harbor which shall be deemed by the Harbor Master to be liable to Quarantine shall, on being directed so to do by the Harbor Master, cause the same to be anchored in the Quarantine ground appointed for the Harbor, or forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of one hundred pounds.

2. The Master of every vessel so anchored shall neither himself quit, nor permit any Seaman, Passenger, or other person to quit the same until he shall have been duly admitted to pratique, or forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

3. Every Seaman, Passenger, or other person so quitting shall, for every such offence, forfeit the sum of twenty pounds.

4. Every vessel so anchored is to hoist a yellow flag, of not less than six breadths of bunting, at the main by day, and a light by night in a lantern such as is used in Her Majesty's Navy, and to keep the same respectively hoisted until released from Quarantine, or forfeit the sum of twenty pounds.

5. The Master of every vessel so anchored is to deliver to the Harbor Master or other authorized person his bill of health, manifest, log-book, and journal; and he is to fill up a report in the manner pointed out in the Schedule A annexed.

6. The Master of every vessel so anchored who shall suffer any goods, wares, or merchandize, packets, books, letters, or other articles to be unshipped or landed, and any person or persons who shall be concerned in the unshipping or landing of the same, shall forfeit for each and every article so unshipped or landed the sum of twenty pounds.

7. Every person or persons who shall knowingly receive any goods, wares, or merchandize, packets, package, baggage, books, or letters, or any other article whatever from any vessel so anchored shall forfeit for each and every article the sum of twenty pounds.

8. Any person going within the limits of any Quarantine Station when any vessels shall be there at anchor performing Quarantine shall forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

9. If any Officer or person entrusted with orders respecting Quarantine shall in any way neglect his duty, he shall forfeit for such offence the sum of twenty pounds.

10. The Harbor Master shall immediately after his having so anchored any vessel, report the same to the Resident Magistrate and Health Officer, or to the person or persons acting or appointed to act for those functionaries.

11. The Resident Magistrate and Health Officer or Medical Practitioner to be appointed from time to time for that purpose by the Resident Magistrate, shall, upon the receipt of such report, visit the vessel so anchored, and if they shall find that any sickness of an infectious or contagious nature exists, or shall have then recently existed on board of her, they shall submit the information to a Board, consisting of the Resident Magistrate, one or more Justices of the Peace, the superior Officer of the Customs of the Port, the Health Officer, or Medical Practitioner as aforesaid, and one or more legally qualified Medical Practitioners nominated for this purpose by the Resident Magistrate; such Board to be convened by the Resident Magistrate, which Board, or the majority of them, shall have authority to detain such vessel in Quarantine until every symptom of the aforesaid disease shall have disappeared, and until sufficient time to prevent the spread of such disease shall, in the opinion of the Board, have elapsed since the last case disappeared, when the same Board, or the majority of them, have hereby power to release such vessel from Quarantine and admit her to pratique.

12. During the period any vessel may be in Quarantine, the Resident Magistrate and Health Officer shall visit her alongside from time to time, and institute such regulations as the nature of the case may demand, and the Master or Commander shall carry such regulations into effect or forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

Power to Resident Magistrate in certain cases.

The Resident Magistrate at any port for which no Harbor Master is appointed shall have all such powers as are hereinbefore given to Harbor Masters. All penalties hereby imposed shall be recoverable in a summary way.

SCHEDULE A.

Questions required to be answered by the Master or other person in command of any ship or vessel arriving in the Port of Lyttelton from any infected place.

1. What is the tonnage of the vessel and her name?—Answer.
2. What is the Master's name, and are you the Master?—Answer.
3. From whence do you come, and when did you sail?—Answer.
4. At what port have you touched on your passage?—Answer.
5. What vessel have you had intercourse or communication with on your passage, and from whence did they come?—Answer.
6. Have you any, and what bills of health?—Answer.
7. Did the cholera or any other highly infectious and dangerous disease prevail at the place from which you sailed, or at any of the places at which you have touched, or on board of any vessel with which you have had communication: if so, state when and where?—Answer.
8. In the course of your voyage have any persons on board suffered from sickness of any kind? What was the nature of such sickness, and when did it prevail? How many persons were affected by it, and have any of them died in the course of the voyage?—Answer.
9. What number of Officers, Mariners, and Passengers have you on board?—Answer.
10. What was the number of persons on board your vessel when you sailed?—Answer.
11. What is the whole number of persons now ill on board your vessel?—Answer.
12. If there be no sickness now on board, when did the last attack of disease appear, and when did it entirely disappear?—Answer.

A PROCLAMATION

Fixing a day vesting in the Governor powers and authorities contained in "The Native Reserves Amendment Act, 1862."

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight, Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, entitled "The Native Reserves Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted that from and after a day to be fixed by the Governor by Proclamation, to be inserted in the 'Government Gazette' of the Colony, and of also each of the Provinces of New Zealand, all the powers and authorities which by the "Native Reserves Act, 1856," are given to or vested in, or which may be exercised by Commissioners appointed under the Act, shall vest in and may be exercised by the Governor.

Now therefore I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in execution of the said in part recited Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that all such powers and authorities as aforesaid shall vest in and may be exercised by the Governor of the said Colony of New Zealand from and after the First day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

Given under my hand at the Government House at Auckland, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this Fourth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

G GREY.

By His Excellency's command,

ALFRED DOMETT.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

G. G. Gazette, No. 39, August 11th, 1863.

THE RESTRICTION REGARDING WARLIKE STORES NOT TO APPLY TO FRIENDLY NATIVES.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

Auckland, 19th August, 1863.

WHEREAS, by a proclamation published in the 'New Zealand Gazette' of the 6th August, 1863, it was declared the under-mentioned were (among others) to be considered as Warlike Stores, viz. :—

Hayforks, scythes, adzes, and all other edged tools, of whatever description, capable of being used as weapons.

Iron of all kinds capable of being converted into weapons.

Now it is hereby notified for general information, that the above restrictions are only to apply to those districts in which the natives are in arms against her Majesty's Government.
