SATURDAY, APRIL 23, 1864.

[No. XVII.]

PROCLAMATION.

I, SAMUEL BEALEY, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby, pursuant to the provisions of the "Heathcote Bridge Ordinance, 1862," notify that the bridge lately erected on the said River Heathcote, at a part thereof in continuation of the Sumner Road, is open for public traffic; and that tolls may be levied, under the said Ordinance, at rates not exceeding the under-mentioned sums:—

- For every horse, ass, or mule Three-pence.
- For every horse, ass, mule, or other beast, with pack, Three-pence.
- For all horned cattle driven without packs, per head... Two-pence.
- For every wheeled vehicle drawn by one horse or other beast Six-pence.
- For every additional horse or other beast drawing such vehicle Three-pence.
- For every sheep, lamb, goat, or pig, in one drove not exceeding one hundred, One halfpenny.
- For every additional sheep, lamb, goat, or pig One farthing.
- Double the above tolls before the hours of six a.m., and after nine p.m.

Given under my hand at Christchurch, this Twenty-first day of April, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

S. BEALEY,
Superintendent.

BY-LAWS OF THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF LYTTELTON.

WHEREAS it is necessary for the preservation of the health of the inhabitants of the town that proper provision be made for the periodical removal of night-soil, rubbish, &c., by duly authorised persons, and for the further suppression of nuisances, be it therefore enacted by the Municipal Council of Lyttelton as follows:—

1. That the owner or occupier of any dwelling-house within the town upon whom a notice in writing shall have been served by the Inspector of Nuisances requiring him so to do, shall, within fourteen days after receiving such notice, provide the privy erected for the use of such dwelling-house with an iron or other fit pail, properly fitted with a close cover; and if such owner or occupier shall refuse or neglect to comply with such notice he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two pounds, together with a further penalty of Twenty shillings for every succeeding week after the expiration of the said fourteen days during which he shall refuse or neglect to comply with the terms of such notice.

2. That no cesspool shall be made on any premises within the town after the proclamation of this by-law in the Provincial Government Gazette, nor shall any cesspool be allowed to remain on any such premises after the expiration of two calendar months next following such proclamation, unless in either case the owner or occupier shall have obtained a written authority, signed by the Chairman of the Council, to construct a cesspool in accordance with the requirements of the Council, and shall have complied with the terms of such authority. That any person contravening the provisions of this by-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

3. That any person who shall throw, or lay, or shall cause, or permit to be thrown or laid, any night-soil upon any street, road, or way, or on any place within the Municipality not appointed for that purpose by the Council, shall, upon conviction for every such offence, pay a sum not less than Two pounds, or more than Ten pounds; nevertheless, any person having a garden containing not less than one-eighth of an acre of land may use night-soil thereon, provided no public nuisance be committed thereby.

4. That any person who shall throw or lay, or cause or suffer to be thrown or laid, any ashes, dust, dirt, rubbish, offal, dung, soil, blood, house-slops, or other filth or annoyance on the carriage or footway of any street, roadway, or other public place within the Municipality, or shall permit any offensive accumulation thereof upon the premises in his occupation, shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty for every such offence of any sum not exceeding Fifty shillings.

5. That the Town Scavenger shall go round the town at such times as the Council may appoint, to collect night soil, rubbish, &c.; and all night soil shall be collected and thrown into the sea below high water mark between the hours of 10 p.m. and 7 a.m. only. That any person other than the occupier or the said Town Scavenger, or labourers employed by him, unless authorised by the said Council, removing such night soil, rubbish, &c., shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two pounds.

6. That if the owner or occupier of any premises within the Municipality, shall, after after the expiration of twenty-four hours' notice for that purpose shall have been given to him, refuse to allow the Inspector of Nuisances, or other person duly authorised for the purpose by the Council, at all reasonable times to enter upon the premises in his occupation, to inspect the sanitary condition thereof, or for any other purpose that the said Council or its officers may lawfully require, he shall be liable, for every such refusal, to a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds.

Passed in the Municipal Council, this Eight day of April, 1864.

W.M. DONALD,
Chairman.

Assented to by me, this Nineteenth day of April, 1864.

S. BEALEY,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF IMMIGRATION COM- MISSIONERS.

SHIP "INDIAN EMPIRE."

The "Indian Empire" having been placed in quarantine, the Commissioners were prevented making the usual examination of the ship and passengers on arrival.

On visiting the emigrants when admitted to pratique, the Commissioners were satisfied with the conduct of the ship as far as could then be ascertained.

The fittings had been removed from the between decks before the Commissioners' visit.

The Hospital accommodation was satisfactory.

The Commissioners recommend that the full gratuities be paid to the Surgeon and Officers.

WM. DONALD,
RICH'D. R. ARMSTRONG.
