VOL. XIII.]

TUESDAY, MARCH 13, 1866.

[No. XXIII.]

PROCLAMATION

By His Honor SAMUEL BEALEY, Esq.,
Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury.

WHEREAS on the Twenty-third day of September, 1865, I, SAMUEL BEALEY, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, did, by virtue of the powers vested in me in that behalf, issue a Proclamation declaring certain Districts to be infected Districts under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," and making certain regulations for the destruction of diseased cattle, and for the preventing the removal or transportation of cattle from the said infected Districts into the Province of Canterbury:

And whereas it is expedient to annul the said Proclamation, now therefore I, SAMUEL BEALEY, Superintendent as aforesaid, do hereby proclaim and declare that the said Proclamation shall be void and of none effect from and after the Fifth day of April 1866.

Given under my hand, at Christchurch, this Twelfth day of March, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

S. BEALEY,
Superintendent.

By His Honor's command,

EDW. JOLLIE,
Provincial Secretary.

PROCLAMATION

By His Honor SAMUEL BEALEY, Esq.,
Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, appointing Quarantine Ground under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861."

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," it is inter alia enacted that the Governor may, by order in Council, from time to time appoint places for quarantine grounds under the said Act, and make regulations for the management of such quarantine grounds, and fixing the fees and charges thereof; and for the destroying of diseased cattle, and for landing and driving of cattle under the said Act, and generally for regulating and enforcing the performance of duties thereby imposed on Inspectors, and on Masters of ships or vessels:

And whereas the Governor in Council hath, by warrant under his hand, delegated to me, SAMUEL BEALEY, so long as I shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, the several powers vested in the Governor by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth, and tenth sections of the said Act, subject to being rescinded as in the said Act is provided, and subject to the regulations issued by the Governor in Council:

Now therefore I, the said SAMUEL BEALEY, by virtue of the powers vested in me, do hereby appoint all that portion of the Province of Canterbury to the west of the dividing range to be a quarantine ground under the said Act, from and after the Fifth day of April, 1866.

Given under my hand, at Christchurch, this Twelfth day of March, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

S. BEALEY,
Superintendent.

By His Honor's command,

EDW. JOLLIE,
Provincial Secretary.

By His Honor SAMUEL BEALEY, Esq., Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, declaring certain Districts to be infected under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861."

WHEREAS by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," it was provided that the Governor in Council might, by warrant under his hand, from time to time delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the said Colony all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or Governor in Council by the said Act, subject to such regulations as he might think fit, and might from time to time rescind such delegation:

And whereas the said Governor hath, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to SAMUEL BEALEY, Esq., so long as he shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, the several powers vested in the said Governor, by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth, and tenth sections of the said Act; subject to being rescinded as in the said Act provided, and subject to the regulations issued by the Governor, on the Eighteenth day of September, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and to any other regulations to be from time to time duly made:

Now therefore I, the said SAMUEL BEALEY, by virtue of such powers in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare that after the date hereof the several Colonies of Australia, (that is to say,) the Colony of Victoria, of New South Wales, of Queensland, of South Australia, and Western Australia, as well as the Colony of Tasmania, and the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Islands of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be deemed to be infected districts within the meaning of the said Act: And I do further proclaim and declare the following regulations for prohibiting the importation of cattle into the Colony of New Zealand from such districts, and for the landing or driving of such cattle, destroying of diseased cattle, imported, landed, or driven contrary to these regulations.

- I. If any person shall import any cattle from either or any of the said infected districts into the Colony of New Zealand, unless upon quarantine ground, and after having obtained from an Inspector of Cattle a quarantine certificate he shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds for every head of cattle so imported into the Colony of New Zealand.

- II. If any person shall land or cause to be landed, or assist in landing any cattle coming from either of the said infected districts in or upon any part of the Colony of New Zealand, unless upon a quarantine ground, and after having obtained a quarantine certificate he shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds for every head of cattle so landed.
- III. It shall be lawful for, and the duty of any Inspector of Cattle, or Police Constable, to destroy or cause to be destroyed any cattle which shall be imported or landed contrary to these regulations.
- IV. If any person shall wilfully impede or obstruct any Inspector of Cattle, or any Police Constable acting under the authority of these regulations, every person so offending shall and may be seized and detained by such person so acting as aforesaid, or any person or persons he may call to his assistance, until such offender or offenders can be taken before two Justices of the Peace, and shall be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds.
- V. These Regulations shall take effect from and after the Fifth day of April, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Given under my hand at Christchurch, this Twelfth day of March, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

S. BEALEY,
Superintendent.

By His Honor's command,

EDW. JOLLIE,
Provincial Secretary.

By His Honor SAMUEL BEALEY, Esq., Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, declaring certain Districts to be infected under "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861."

WHEREAS by "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," it was provided that the Governor in Council might, by warrant under his hand, from time to time delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the said Colony, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or Governor in Council by the said Act, subject to such regulations as he might think fit, and might from time to time rescind such delegation:

And whereas the said Governor hath, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to SAMUEL BEALEY, Esq., so long as he shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, the several powers vested in the said Governor by the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Ninth, and Tenth Sections of the said Act, subject to being rescinded as in the said Act provided, and subject to the Regulations issued by the Governor in Council on the Eighteenth day of September, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and to any other Regulations to be from time to time duly made:

Now therefore I, SAMUEL BEALEY, by virtue of such powers in me vested, do hereby proclaim and declare, that after the date hereof the several Provinces of the Colony of New Zealand, that is to say, the Provinces of Otago and of Southland in the Middle Island, and the Provinces of Auckland and of Taranaki in the North Island, shall be deemed to be infected Districts within the meaning of the said Act: And I do further proclaim and declare the following Regulations for the destruction of diseased cattle, and for the preventing and regulating the removal or transportation of cattle from the said several infected Districts into the Province of Canterbury.

- I. If any person shall import, drive, or remove, or cause to be imported, driven, or removed, or assist in driving or removing any cattle from either of the said infected Districts into the Province of Canterbury, except upon quarantine ground, and the authority of a quarantine certificate, such person shall be liable to a penalty of Fifty Pounds for every head of cattle so imported, driven, or removed.

- II. It shall be lawful for any Inspector of Cattle or Police Constable to destroy or cause to be destroyed any cattle which shall pass into this Province from either of the said Districts contrary to these Regulations.
- III. If any person shall wilfully impede or obstruct any Inspector, or any Police Constable acting under the authority of these Regulations, every person so offending shall and may be seized and detained by such person so acting as aforesaid, or any person or persons he may call to his assistance, until such offender or offenders can be taken before two Justices of the Peace, and shall be liable to a penalty of Fifty Pounds.
- IV. These Regulations shall take effect from and after the Fifth day of April, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Given under my hand, at Christchurch, this Twelfth day of March, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

S. BEALEY,
Superintendent.

By His Honor's command,

EDW. JOLLIE,
Provincial Secretary.
