VOL. XIII.]

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1866.

[No. XXXV.]

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, passed in the Twenty-second year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled the "Provincial Reserved Bills Act, 1858," it was enacted that whenever any Bill shall have been passed by the Provincial Council of any Province, and shall have been reserved by the Superintendent for the signification of the Governor's pleasure thereon, such Bill shall not have any force or authority within the said Province until the Superintendent shall signify, either by speech or message to the Provincial Council, or by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette" of the said Province, that such Bill has been laid before the Governor, and that the Governor has assented to the same: And whereas a Bill entitled "The Provincial Council Extension Ordinance, 1866," was passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Canterbury, and the same was reserved by the Superintendent of the said Province, for the assent of his Excellency the Governor. Now therefore, I, SAMUEL BEALEY, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury aforesaid, do hereby proclaim and declare that the aforesaid Bill has been laid before his Excellency the Governor, and that his Excellency has assented to the same.

Given under my hand at Christchurch, this Twenty-sixth day of April, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

S. BEALEY,
Superintendent.

By his Honor's command,

EDW. JOLLIE,
Provincial Secretary.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, passed in the Twenty-second year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled, the "Provincial Reserved Bills Act, 1858," it was enacted that whenever any Bill shall have been passed by the Provincial Council of any Province, and shall have been reserved by the Superintendent for the signification of the Governor's pleasure thereon, such Bill shall not have any force or authority within the said Province until the Superintendent shall signify, either by speech or message to the Provincial Council, or by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette" of the said Province, that such Bill has been laid before the Governor, and that the Governor has assented to the same: And whereas a Bill entitled, "White's Little River Tramway

Vol. 13.—No. 35.

Ordinance, 1866," was passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Canterbury, and the same was reserved by the Superintendent of the said Province, for the assent of His Excellency the Governor. Now, therefore, I, SAMUEL BEALEY, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury aforesaid, do hereby proclaim and declare that the aforesaid Bill has been laid before His Excellency the Governor, and that His Excellency has assented to the same.

Superintendent.

By His Honor's command,

EDW. JOLLIE,
Provincial Secretary.

Provincial Secretary's Office,
Christchurch, April 26, 1866.

HIS Honor the Superintendent directs the publication of the following Letter from the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, for general information.

EDW. JOLLIE,
Provincial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Wellington, April 25, 1866.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 54, of the 16th ultimo, forwarding the "Provincial Council Extension Ordinance, 1866," which you had reserved for the signification of the Governor's pleasure thereon.

In reply, I have to inform your Honor that his Excellency the Governor has been pleased to assent to that Ordinance, and I herewith return to you the duplicate, with His Excellency's assent duly noted thereon.

When this Ordinance was forwarded to the Governor, a Proclamation dissolving the Provincial Council of Canterbury, and warrants for the appointment of Polling places, and Writs for the new Elections were also sent for His Excellency's signature, but have not yet been returned; the Government is consequently unable at present to move further in this matter.

In the mean time it is advisable that the usual notification by your Honor of the Governor's assent to the enclosed Act should be published in the "Provincial Gazette" of Canterbury, as soon as possible.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E. W. STAFFORD.

Provincial Secretary's Office,
Christchurch, April 26, 1866.

HIS Honor the Superintendent directs it to be notified that he has been pleased to appoint to be Gaoler at the Hokitika Gaol.

GEORGE DALE

EDW. JOLLIE,
Provincial Secretary.
