PROCLAMATION

By His Honor WILLIAM SEFTON MOORHOUSE, Esq., Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury.

WHEREAS, by an Act bearing date the Eighth day of October, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, passed by the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, by and with the consent of the General Assembly, entitled "An Act to provide for the performance of the duties of Superintendents of Provinces in New Zealand during absence, and during vacancies in the office," it is enacted, inter alia, that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent of any Province, by Proclamation to be published in the Government Gazette of such Province, to appoint such person as he may think fit, being a registered elector of such Province, to be his Deputy:

being a registered elector of the said Province, to be Deputy Superintendent.

Given under my hand, and sealed, with the Public Seal of the said Province, this Seventh day of August, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

SHIP "LANCASHIRE WITCH."

THE Commissioners report that they found the Ship in average condition as regards cleanliness. The provisions were reported as satisfactory in quality and quantity, with the exception of flour, the quality of which was bad. The distilling apparatus (Graveley's) had worked but indifferently, requiring to be constantly going during the twenty-four hours to give even a diminished supply to the immigrants.

The single women were generally well conducted, and appear a desirable class of immigrants; but to this there is a marked exception in the case of four girls, all supplied from one agent in London, whose name will be communicated to the Provincial Government, with detailed particulars. The arrangements of the Ship were of a nature that the Commissioners consider particularly objectionable, besides the presence of single male saloon passengers, frequently objected to by the Commissioners in reporting previous ships, in the Lancashire Witch they note the following:—

In the single women's compartment, two assisted immigrants for a payment were allowed an enclosed cabin, thus establishing a difference where all should be equal.

In the compartment allotted to married immigrants were second-cabin passengers, free steerage passengers, the female hospital and dispensary, and through it only was access to the storeroom.

In the single men's compartment were the male hospital, the single immigrants, free passengers, immigrant (as in the single women's compartment) for extra payment in enclosed cabin, and besides these a portion of the crew.

The Surgeon Superintendent, Matron, and Officers of the Ship are recommended for full gratuities.
