PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, passed in the Twenty-second year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled "The Provincial Reserved Bills Act, 1858," it was enacted that whenever any Bill shall have been passed by the Provincial Council of any Province, and shall have been reserved by the Superintendent for the signification of the Governor's pleasure thereon, such Bill shall not have any force or authority within the said Province until the Superintendent shall signify, either by speech or message to the Provincial Council, or by Proclamation in the "Government Gazette" of the said Province, that such Bill has been laid before the Governor, and that the Governor has assented to the same:

And whereas a Bill, entitled "The Heathcote Bridges Ordinance, 1867," was passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Canterbury, and the same was reserved by the Superintendent of the said Province, for the assent of His Excellency the Governor:

Now, therefore, I, FRANCIS EDWARD STEWART, Deputy Superintendent for the time being of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby proclaim and declare that the aforesaid Bill has been laid before His Excellency the Governor, and that His Excellency has assented to the same.

Given under my hand, at Christchurch, this Nineteenth day of August, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

F. E. STEWART,

Deputy Superintendent.
