And whereas the said Governor hath, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand delegated to the Executive Government of the Province of Canterbury all the powers vested in the Governor, or the Governor in Council, by the said Act exercisable within the said Province:

And whereas young trout have been placed in the upper part of the River Avon, in the said Province, and in its tributaries; and whereas it is expedient for the protection of the said trout to prohibit fishing in a portion of the said river and in its tributaries:

Now therefore His Honor WILLIAM ROLLESTON, ESQUIRE, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, and in exercise of the powers delegated to the Executive Government of the said Province in this behalf, doth hereby make the following Regulation:—

No person shall without the consent in writing of the Superintendent, or in his absence of the Provincial Secretary, fish in that part of the River Avon from its source to the Colombo street Bridge, in the City of Christchurch, or in the tributaries of the said River, and any person infringing this Regulation shall be liable to a penalty of Fifty Pounds, or to such portion only of such penalty as the Justices before whom such penalty is sought to be recovered shall think fit.
