No. XLI.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, entitled "The Canterbury Temporary Mining Reserves Act, 1869," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Superintendent of Canterbury, by Proclamation, to temporarily reserve from sale any lands in which he shall have good reason to believe that precious metals exist. Provided that no such reservation shall continue in force beyond the end of the Session of the Provincial Council next after the issue of such Proclamation.

Now therefore I, WILLIAM ROLLESTON, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, by virtue of the powers enabling me in that behalf, do hereby temporarily reserve from sale the land described in the Schedule hereto.

Given under my hand at Christchurch this Sixteenth day of September, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

W. M. ROLLESTON,
Superintendent.

SCHEDULE.

All that block of land, one mile square, containing six hundred and forty acres, situate in the Ashburton District, the south-western boundary situate half a mile north-east of and parallel to the northern branch of the River Ashburton, the southernmost corner of the said block being distant about two miles and a quarter from the south-west corner of section 13617.
