No. LIII.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, entitled "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," (section 4) the Governor may, by any Order in Council, from time to time annul, make void, or alter, or vary and make anew, any Orders in Council, Regulations, Appointments, or Prohibitory or other Declarations made and published by the Governor under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," or of this Act, or by the Superintendent of any Province, under or in pursuance of any power delegated to him under any of the powers of delegation contained in the said Act:

And whereas by section 5 of the said Amendment Act, "as to regulations, appointments, and prohibitory and other declarations made by Superintendents of Provinces in pursuance of any powers delegated under the powers of delegation contained in the said Act, or this Act, the power of annulling, making void, or altering, or varying and making anew any such regulations, appointments, or prohibitory or other declarations vested in the Governor by this Act, may from time to time be delegated by the Governor in Council, by warrant under his hand, to the Superintendent of any Province:"

And whereas the said Governor hath, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to WIL-

LIAM ROLLESTON, ESQUIRE, so long as he shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, all the powers which by the said fifth section of the said Amendment Act the Governor in Council is authorised so to delegate:

Now therefore I, WILLIAM ROLLESTON, the Superintendent as aforesaid, in pursuance of the powers so vested in me in that behalf, do hereby make the following Regulation to take effect from and after the day following the date of publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette.

REGULATION.

If any person who shall have been served with a notice in accordance with the Eleventh Regulation contained in the Proclamation dated the 3rd day of February, 1869, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the 19th day of February, 1869, shall fail to comply with any order issued in accordance with the Regulation contained in the Proclamation dated the 9th day of September, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the 20th day of September, 1869, he shall be liable to a penalty of Fifty Pounds for every head of cattle in his possession not killed within the period named in such order.

WM. ROLLESTON,
Superintendent.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by a Regulation issued under the provisions of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," and "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the 20th September, 1869, and assented to by His Excellency the Governor as notified in the New Zealand Gazette of the 23rd of October, 1869, it is provided that when any notice shall have been given by an Inspector under the Diseased Cattle Acts in accordance with the Eleventh Regulation contained in the Proclamation dated the 3rd day of February, 1869, and published in the New Zealand Gazette on the 19th day of February, 1869, to the occupier of any farm or run within any infected district upon which he shall be satisfied that there are infected cattle or cattle which have mixed with cattle which are actually infected, or suspected to be infected, if after the lapse of one month from the date of such notice any Inspector shall be satisfied that disease is likely again to recur upon the said farm or run, then the cattle may be declared by the Superintendent to be infected cattle, and he may order them to be slaughtered within a reasonable period:

And whereas on the 28th day of September, 1869, notice was given under the Eleventh Regulation aforesaid to the following persons occupying farms or runs within the infected district known as the Maori Reserve: that is to say to—

T. H. Harrison
R. Hicks
J. Stephens
D. O. Brien
L. Cox
W. Moody
G. Gibbs
Henry Hinge
C. Ming

And whereas I have received a certificate from an Inspector of Cattle bearing date the 8th day of November, 1869, that he is fully satisfied that disease is likely again to recur within the said district:

Now therefore I, WILLIAM ROLLESTON, Superintendent as aforesaid, in pursuance of the powers in me vested in that behalf do hereby declare that the cattle now depasturing within the farms or runs within the said Infected District occupied by the above-named persons on whom the aforesaid notice was served upon the 28th day of September last, are infected cattle within the meaning of the first-named regulation, and I do hereby order the said cattle to be destroyed within six weeks from the day after the date of the publication of this Order in the New Zealand Gazette.
