PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor of New Zealand, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, Session VIII., No. 5, entitled "An Ordinance for Regulating the Slaughtering of Cattle in certain places," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Excellency the Governor, by Proclamation from time to time, to constitute and define certain districts for the purpose of regulating the slaughtering of cattle in certain places, and the limits of such districts from time to time to alter as occasion may require, and also if he shall see fit to revoke the Proclamation by which any such district shall have been constituted:

And whereas by an Ordinance of the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Canterbury, entitled "The Empowering Ordinance, Session II. No. 2," it is enacted that the powers conferred on the Governors of New Zealand by the above-recited Ordinance are within the limits of the Province of Canterbury conferred on the Superintendent thereof:

Now therefore I, WILLIAM ROLLESTON, Superintendent of the said Province, in pursuance of the powers so vested in me as aforesaid, do hereby constitute and define the districts specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed for the purpose of regulating the slaughtering of cattle.
