WILLIAM GUISE BRITTAN,
Commissioner of Crown Lands.

Land Office, Christchurch,
December 8, 1871.

CHRISTCHURCH :

Printed under the authority of the Provincial Government of the Province of Canterbury, at the Lyttelton Times Office, Gloucester Street, by WILLIAM REEVES, Official Printer for the time being to the said Government.

1941

1. The first part of the report deals with the general situation in the country. It is noted that the economy is in a state of depression and that the government is facing a serious financial crisis. The report also mentions that the population is suffering from unemployment and poverty.

2. The second part of the report discusses the political situation. It is noted that the government is weak and that there is a lack of unity among the different political groups. The report also mentions that the military is in a state of disarray and that there is a risk of a coup d'état.

3. The third part of the report deals with the social situation. It is noted that the population is suffering from a lack of basic necessities and that there is a high level of illiteracy. The report also mentions that the health care system is in a state of collapse and that there is a high level of infant mortality.

4. The fourth part of the report discusses the international situation. It is noted that the country is isolated and that there is a lack of support from the major powers. The report also mentions that the country is facing a serious threat from the Axis powers.

5. The fifth part of the report deals with the recommendations. It is suggested that the government should take steps to improve the economy and to reduce the level of unemployment. It is also suggested that the government should take steps to improve the political situation and to ensure that there is a level of unity among the different political groups.

6. The sixth part of the report discusses the conclusions. It is noted that the country is in a state of crisis and that there is a need for urgent action. The report also mentions that the only way to survive is to form a coalition government and to seek support from the major powers.
