VOL. XXII.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1875.

No. III.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the "Protection of Animals Act, 1873," it is provided that it shall be lawful, for the Superintendent by Proclamation published in the Gazette, from time to time to declare that imported birds not being "Game" or any of them may be shot, taken, or killed, in such part or parts of the Province, as in such Proclamation shall be described.

Now therefore, I, WILLIAM ROLLESTON, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof do hereby proclaim and declare that the imported birds known as "House Sparrows," may from and after the day of the date hereof, be shot, taken, or killed, in all or any parts or part of the Province of Canterbury.

Given under my hand at Christchurch, this 12th day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WM. ROLLESTON,
Superintendent.

WILLIAM ROLLESTON, SUPERINTENDENT.

Order in Council at the Provincial Government Buildings, Christchurch, the sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five. Present—His Honor William Rolleston, the Superintendent, Thomas William Maude, and Thomas Ingham Joynt, Esquires, members of the Executive Council of the Province of Canterbury.

Whereas by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Salmon and Trout Act, 1867," it is among other things enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time, as may become necessary, to make such regulations as to the Governor seems expedient, for prohibiting or restricting from time to time for any period which the Governor thinks necessary, fishing in any river or stream in which young salmon, salmon fry, or spawn, or young trout, trout fry, or spawn is placed or deposited, or at the mouth or entrance of any such river or stream:

And whereas by Section 12 of the said Act the Governor may by Order in Council under his hand, and the public seal of the Colony, from time to time delegate to the Superintendent or the Provincial Executive of any Province, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor, or the Governor in Council by the said Act:

And whereas the said Governor hath, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, delegated to the Executive Government of the Province of Canterbury all the powers vested in the Governor, or the Governor in Council by the said Act, exercisable within the said Province:

And whereas by several orders in Council bearing date, respectively, the 24th day of March, 1869, the 22nd day of November, 1870, and the 12th day of October, 1871, certain Regulations were made by the Executive Government of the Province of Canterbury for the protection of the trout placed in the River Avon :

And whereas it is deemed expedient by the Executive Government of the Province of Canterbury to rescind the said Regulations, and to make other provision in lieu thereof :

Now, therefore, His Honor WILLIAM ROLLESTON, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, doth, by virtue, and in exercise of the powers delegated to the Executive Government of the said Province of Canterbury, and of every and any other power in any wise enabling the Provincial Executive in that behalf, hereby make the Regulations following, that is to say :—

1. The said Regulations shall be, and the same are hereby rescinded.

2. It shall be lawful for any person upon obtaining from the Secretary of the Canterbury Acclimatisation Society a License under his hand, authorising him so to do to fish for Trout with rod and line in the River Avon, from its source to New Brighton.

3. All Trout taken by any person so fishing as aforesaid and not exceeding eight inches in length shall be immediately returned alive to the said river, and any person convicted of infringing this Regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds Sterling, and his license shall become void.

4. A fee of One Pound Sterling shall be paid to the said secretary of the said Society on the issue of every such license.

5. Such license shall continue in force from the date of its issue until the 31st day of March, 1875, and no longer, and shall not be transferable.

6. Subject to the foregoing Regulations, no person shall fish in the said River Avon ; and any person offending against this Regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Pounds Sterling.

7. The last preceding Regulation shall not apply to fishing for whitebait with nets.

A. BLAKISTON,

Clerk to the Executive Council.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the owners and occupiers of land and householders in the Educational District of Carleton have failed within the time limited for that purpose by the Board of Education to contribute and pay to the Provincial Treasurer the amount fixed by the Board as the contribution of the said district for school purposes :

Now, therefore, I, WILLIAM ROLLESTON, Superintendent of the Province of Canterbury, in pursuance of the powers vested in me, and by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, do hereby declare an uniform rate of one shilling in the £ to be leviable within the said district under the provisions of the 42nd section of "The Education Ordinance, 1873," and I do hereby appoint

as the person to whom the said rate shall be paid.

Given under my hand at Christchurch, this 13th day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

WM. ROLLESTON,
Superintendent.
