PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance of the Superintendent and Provincial Council of the Province of Canterbury, intituled "The Canterbury Roads Ordinance, 1872," it is among other things enacted that if a majority of the ratepayers of any portion or portions of any district, or two or more contiguous districts (such portions adjoining each other, and together forming one continuous area), shall petition the Superintendent that such portion or portions shall be severed from its or their existing district or districts, and formed into a separate Road District or annexed to an adjoining or contiguous district, it shall be lawful for the Superintendent, if he shall think fit so to do, to refer any such petition to the Provincial Council for their consideration, and the Provincial Council may by resolution decide that any such portion or portions shall be severed from its or their existing district or districts, and constituted into a separate district, or annexed to an adjoining or contiguous district, as the case may be; and thereupon the Superintendent shall by Proclamation declare that such portion or portions shall be severed from such district or districts and constituted into a new district under such name as shall seem fit, or annexed to such adjoining or contiguous district from a date to be fixed in such Proclamation:

And whereas a petition from the rate-payers of the upper portion of the Ashburton Road District, praying that the upper portion of the said district might be formed into a separate Road District, was referred by me to the Provincial Council of the Province of Canterbury for their consideration, and the said Provincial Council did by resolution decide that such portion of the said Ashburton Road District should be severed from the said Ashburton Road District and constituted into a separate district:
