DONALD M'LEAN,
Superintendent.

VOL 4.] THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1863. [No. 18.

PROCLAMATION.

By DONALD M'LEAN, Esq., Superintendent of the Province of Hawke's Bay.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, Session IV, No. 16, intituled "The Superintendent's Deputy Act of 1856," the Superintendent of any Province is empowered by Proclamation in the Provincial Government Gazette to appoint such registered elector of the Province as he may think fit to be his Deputy, and as such to perform and exercise all the acts and powers (except such powers as are conferred by the Constitution Act) which may be exercised and performed by such Superintendent, or such of them only as shall be specified in such Proclamation:

Now, therefore, I, Donald M'Lean, Superintendent of the Province of Hawke's Bay, Do hereby, in virtue of the power conferred on me by the aforesaid Act, proclaim that I have this day appointed to be Deputy Superintendent of this Province under the provisions of the above-recited Act.

DONALD M'LEAN,

Superintendent.

Dated at Napier, this 9th day of September, 1863.

NOTIFICATION.

By DONALD M'LEAN, Esq., Superintendent of the Province of Hawke's Bay, in the Islands of New Zealand.

WHEREAS by an Instrument under the hand of His Excellency Sir George Grey, the Governor of New Zealand, dated the 26th day of June, 1863, (and which was published in the Hawke's Bay Provincial Gazette of the 28th July) I am appointed to be his Deputy within the Militia District of Napier to call out the Militia thereof for training and exercise &c.:

Now, therefore, I, the said Donald M'Lean, Esq., Deputy of the said Governor, as aforesaid, in pursuance and execution of the power given to me by the instrument before recited, Do Hereby call out for training and exercise

Two-thirds of the men of the first and second classes of the Napier Regiment of Militia who are resident within the limits of those portions of the District proclaimed in the General Government Gazette of Thursday, 23rd July, 1863, as constituted Company No. 7 of the Napier Regiment of Militia, contained within the boundaries hereinafter described, viz. :—

Commencing on the Tuki-tuki river where that river is intersected by the Manga Mahaki stream, thence following the course of the Manga Mahaki stream to its junction with the Waiwero; thence in a straight line to Pukekura hill, thence in a northerly direction to the point at which the Southern boundary line of the Hapuku block is intersected by the Puangiangi stream; thence by a line drawn due west to the Western boundary of the Province; thence by the Western boundary of the Province to the source of the Tuki-tuki river, and thence by the Tuki-tuki river to its junction with the Manga Mahaki stream.

Two-thirds of the first and second classes of the Napier Regiment of Militia who are resident within the limits of those portions of the District proclaimed in the General Government Gazette of Thursday, 23rd July, 1863, as constituted Company No. 7 of the Napier Regiment of Militia, contained within the boundaries hereinafter described, viz. :—

Commencing at the Southern boundary of the Province at Waimata, thence by the Sea Coast to Aretaura, the North-east point of the block of land known as the Tautane block; thence by the Northern boundary line of the Tautane block to a distance of six miles from the Sea Coast, and thence by a straight line in a Southerly direction to Waimata.

Two-thirds of the men of the first and second classes of the Napier Regiment of Militia who are resident within the limits of those portions of the District, as constituted Company No. 5 contained within the following boundaries, viz. :—

Commencing at Waimarama, from thence to the mouth of the Pukipuki, thence following the Ngaruroro to the Western boundary of the Province; thence proceeding southerly along the boundary of the Province to Pohatuhaha; thence to the south point of the Kereru Block; thence in a straight line to Patangata; thence following the Tuki-tuki river southward to the northern point of the Tamumu Reserve; thence in a straight line to Mangakuri, and from thence by the sea coast to Waimarama.

and I hereby authorise and request George Stoddart Whitmore, Major, the Officer Commanding the said District to carry into effect this direction.

Given under my hand at Napier, this 9th day of September, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

DONALD McLEAN.
