Superintendent's Office,
Napier, June 30, 1865.

THE following Reports are published for general information.

DONALD M'LEAN,
Superintendent.

REPORT ON SCHOOLS.

Napier, May 25, 1865.

SIR,—I have the honor to present the Annual Report for the year 1864-65 upon Schools receiving Government aid in accordance with the Education Act.

Since the date of the last Report three new Schools have been established, and the building for a fourth will very shortly be completed. One School which had previously lapsed has been revived. Provision has thus been made for nearly eighty additional scholars.

A Girls' School in the Town of Napier, the want of which has been much felt, is in process of erection and will be completed within a month.

The Schools open at present are—

Presbyterian School (Napier), A. Thomson, teacher. Number of pupils, 34 boys and 19 girls.

Roman Catholic School (Napier), J. Mulhern, teacher. Number of pupils, 37 boys and 20 girls.

Clive School, C. H. Robson, teacher. Number of pupils, 14 boys and 10 girls.

Puketapu School, George Hardy,

teacher. Number of pupils, 18 boys and 16 girls.

Meanee School, T. Honan, teacher. Number of pupils, 15 boys and 6 girls.

Havelock School, J. Reynolds, teacher. Number of pupils, 15 boys and 11 girls.

Petane School, W. McDonald, teacher. Number of pupils, 7 boys and 4 girls.

In all, 140 boys and 86 girls—making in all seven Schools open.

The amount received from Government in aid of School buildings during the three quarters ending 31st March last, is £328 2s.

In addition to this, a further sum, probably £100, will be solicited by the Trustees of the Napier Girls' School now in course of erection, and which will be completed before the termination of the quarter ending 30th June.

The grant under the Education Act for the three quarters ending the 31st March last, amounts to £321 0s. 4d.

The further sum of £110 will be required for the quarter ending 30th June.

The School-rooms are, with one or two exceptions, well fitted up, furnished and lighted, although the amount of funds raised has not in most cases been sufficient to provide either fire-places or lining for the walls. This during winter will be much felt by the scholars.

I have to report favourably upon the general proficiency displayed by the scholars in the several branches of education required by the Act.

I would at the same time call your Honor's attention to the great advantage of procuring as much as possible the services of regularly trained teachers, rendering the system of teaching throughout the Province uniform and effective.

The subject of School Libraries is one which I would earnestly recommend to your Honor's notice. By this means, with a judicious selection of books much good is to be accomplished.

In most families, more particularly in country districts, the parents, in defraying the expenses of teaching and the necessary School books, do the utmost their means will allow. A great boon would therefore be conferred by Government in aiding this desirable object.

The expediency of conferring Government prizes as a means of exciting additional emulation among the children in the different Schools, I would submit to your Honor, and recommend that the names of the recipients of these prizes be published after the annual examination, in the report of the Inspector.

One other consideration I have to lay before your Honor; it is, the necessity that must ere long exist of providing in the Province for some Institution which will ensure a more advanced scale of study than the common Schools can afford.

Without this our young men would necessarily be forced to seek elsewhere those advantages which in the present day are so indispensable to a progress in any profession.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. Servant,

JAMES H. CAMPBELL,

Inspector of Schools.

His Honor the Superintendent,
Napier.

GENERAL REPORT UPON ROADS.

Napier, 31st May, 1865.

SIR,—I have the honor to submit to you the following general report upon the roads of this Province:—

During the present financial year no works of any magnitude have been undertaken, but all the established lines of road of the Province have not only been maintained in good order, but also considerable improvements have been made thereon by forming and metalling smaller portions and widening the original formation.

The traffic from the Southern districts has been greatly inconvenienced for some months by the encroachments of the sea upon the beach track at the mouth of the Waitangi, which has necessitated the erection of a rather costly bridge.

Its site is in the line of the proposed main south road, where the stream is 205 feet wide. The waterway has been reduced to 60 feet in three equal spans, and the remaining 145 feet have been formed of a piled and sheeted causeway, raised two feet above the average level of the surrounding country.

The bottom of the Waitangi being soft mud, a very large quantity of filling was required, reaching to the depth of 17 feet in the centre, which of course made the work very expensive, but substantial in proportion.

The maintenance of the roads has until now been managed by men either stationed along the road and paid at the rate of 6s. per day, or by men sent when and where required and paid at the same rate.

This system was, I believe, the cheapest and best while the roads were in a much less forward condition than now, and while few or hardly any men were settled along the lines of road, willing and able to undertake the maintenance, but now, when small holders are established almost everywhere near the roads, anxious for employment of that nature, I beg leave to recommend that in future, where practicable, the maintenance be undertaken by contract upon tender.

This plan is in practice in Australia, where it is found to work so well, that maintenance by day labor is in use only on quite new lines.

The adoption of this system, taking into consideration the large quantities of spare metal and timber for culverts on hand, will reduce the cost of maintaining all roads in the province during the next financial year to about £2000.

In reply to your Honor's request to state the new works which are the most needed during the next financial year, according to my opinion, I beg leave to name as foremost a Bridge over the Ngaruroro river, about half-a-mile above the ferry. I am fully aware that the work must be called heavy, considering the financial resources of the province, but I am convinced that the loss of time sustained by the community in crossing the punt amounts to more than twice the interest upon the capital (£5000), required for the erection of a bridge strong enough for a tramway. Without going into details, I venture to state that the gross receipts at the ferry (the two lessees paying £180 per annum) are about £500 per annum, and I further venture to say that every individual crossing would be glad to pay 50 per cent. upon ferry charges for crossing a bridge—making £750 per annum.

Next in importance to the bridge over the Ngaruroro, I consider the completion of the road to the Puketapu hills, comprising about two miles of metalling, and new bridges on the Awatoto road.

I had recommended last year the erection of a new bridge at Tareha's, but on further examination I found that the present one would stand another year, but its construction cannot be delayed any longer.

The sound material of the present Tareha's bridge will do for the two smaller bridges required further north. Estimated cost of Tareha's bridge £180; cost of two miles metalling at Puketapu, £320.

My grounds for recommending the expenditure of the largest amounts within the immediate neighbourhood of Napier are, that the lines of road (at least during the season when wool is brought to Napier, and provisions to the stations), are fully practicable at present—that is, the Port is easily accessible for the purpose of shipping wool and taking supplies to the stations.

This point having been accomplished, it seems to me essential to commence further improvements at the principal centre of the population and the shipping port, and gradually to radiate from there towards the extremities.

This is the universal practice, as all outlying districts equally benefit by improvements leading to their centre.

The best proof that even the most remote out-settlements are well accessible (considering the recent date of the settlement of the Province) is that, in spite of a rather wet summer, nearly all the wool was in Napier and had been shipped in March; while in other Provinces the shipments of wool continued to a much later date.

In conclusion, I beg leave to draw your Honor's attention again to the necessity of providing an Act regulating the width of tires, as I become daily more convinced of the destructiveness of the narrow wheels in general use at present. This subject is of more importance here than elsewhere, as almost the only material obtainable for road metal in the inland districts is limestone, which, although making excellent roads for light traffic, has the disadvantage of softening in wet weather to such a degree that the narrow tires of our heavy laden two-wheel drays are liable to cut through the crust, while during the dry season narrow wheels grind the metal into dust, which is carried away by the next windstorm.

I have noticed several portions of the Te Aute Road which have lost six inches of metal in one season from this cause.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obdt. Servant,

CHARLES WEBER,

Provincial Engineer.

His Honor the Superintendent,
Napier.

REPORT ON SURVEYS.

Napier, 1st June, 1865.

SIR,—In compliance with your Honor's request, I have the honor to report now upon the surveys executed since the 1st July ultimo:—

The estimates for the present financial year have provided for two district surveyors, with the necessary labor, and for £500 to be expended upon contract surveys, but as Mr. Locke has been principally employed on the survey of the lately acquired blocks in the Wairoa and Mahia districts, and as, in spite of repeated attempts, the services of a second surveyor could not be procured, the greater portion of the surveys have been executed under contract, which naturally has caused an over-expenditure upon the amount set aside for contract surveys, while the greater portion of the vote for salaried surveyors with staff has remained unexpended.

The contract surveys have been executed upon a fixed scale of remuneration, and large blocks of land have been prepared for sale under that system at a moderate cost.

Mr. Locke has surveyed, independent of many smaller blocks, about 12,000 acres on the runs of Messrs. Tanner & Price, D. & K. Gollan, Curling, and M. Bell, and he is now engaged upon the Upper Wairoa block.

Mr. Fitzgerald has laid out a township at Te Mahia, has made a detail survey of the Lower Wairoa block, and is now laying out under contract a township at Te Wairoa.

Mr. Bousfield has marked out under contract about 20,000 acres of five-shilling land in the Ahuriri block, applied for principally by Messrs. Whitmore and McNeill, and he has just finished the cutting up of about 750 acres of bush land at Eperaima into small sections.

Mr. Ellison has staked out, besides several smaller blocks, about 10,000 acres, mostly five-shilling applications, on Capt. Carter's and Ogilvie's and Henton's late runs, and he is now engaged upon the survey of 5,000 acres applied for by Mr. Purvis Russell on his run.

Mr. Williams has just commenced the survey of about 5,000 acres of unagricultural land on the run of Mr. J. N. Williams.

Mr. Koch has staked out about 11,000 acres of five-shilling applications on Col. Russell's run.

During Mr. Koch's absence from the survey office, Mr. Turley has taken his place, who has likewise been employed for some months as assistant draftsman, preparing Crown grants, which have to be furnished under present regulation in triplicate. Besides the increase of labor entailed upon the only draftsman by this system, a great deal of his time is constantly taken up by the preparation of detailed maps of the Province for the different departments of the General Government, six such maps having been furnished during the past year. Not only for this reason but principally on account of the constant applications made at the survey office for lithographed plans of the Province by intending land purchasers, I beg leave to recommend that the sum of £150 be placed upon the estimates for such purpose. From very recent correspondence upon the subject, I see that for the above amount about 600 well executed detailed copies of good size can be obtained from England, the sale of which in all probability would repay the original outlay.

Further, I beg to recommend that the sum of £50 be placed upon the estimates for lithographing about 1,000 copies of the township of Te Wairoa and Mahia prior to their sale, as this not only would greatly assist intending purchasers, but it would also save the loss of a good deal of time at the survey office, by making many calls for information there unnecessary.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obdt. Servant,

CHARLES WEBER,

Chief Provincial Surveyor.

His Honor the Superintendent,
Napier.
