Wilson, and the Hon. H. R. Russell	That the interest of Arihi and her husband was sold by them and their trustees Messrs. Wilson and T. P. Russell, to complainants for £2500; that the purchase was subject to conditions, which were repudiated by the vendors, who sold again, one of the purchasers being the Hon. H. R. Russell, the brother of one of the trustees; that before the second sale was completed, a transfer or sale was offered to complainants for £1000 (one thousand) more than the price that said purchasers were to pay to Arihi and her husband, of which fact their trustees, Messrs. Wilson and T. P. Russell, were aware, and which terms complainants were compelled to accept to complete their title, the Hon. H. R. Russell receiving £500 by the transaction.
