No. 1.

NEW ZEALAND GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT WELLINGTON, THE FOURTH DAY OF MAY 1860.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR,
COLONEL GOLD, MR. WRITAKER,
MR. RICHMOND, MR. TANCRED.

WHEREAS by an act of the General Assembly of New Zealand intituled the "New Provinces Act, 1858," it is enacted that whenever not less than 3-6ths of the registered electors entitled to vote in the election of Members of the House of Representatives resident within any district, the area of which shall not be less than 500,000 acres, shall petition the Governor in Council to establish a New Province, comprising such districts, the Governor in Council, by Order published in the New Zealand Government Gazette, shall with all convenient speed establish such Province accordingly, subject nevertheless to the fulfilment of certain conditions in the said Act specified. And whereas a petition has been duly presented praying for the establishment of a New Province at Wairarapa, in the Province of Nelson, and the several requirements and conditions of the said Act have been complied with and fulfilled.

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, and in exercise of the powers in this behalf vested in him by the said recited Act, doth by this present Order establish a New Province to be called and known by the name of Marlborough, and doth define the limits of the Province to be as follows, that is to say, all that district bounded by the

Wairarapa River, commencing at the mouth of the River Taitapu, in the County of Wairarapa, following that river to its confluence with the Acheron, thence in a straight line to the summit of the Pelorus, thence by the Pelorus to the confluence of the Herenga, thence by the Herenga to its source in or near Saddle Hill, thence in a straight line to the summit of Saddle Hill, thence by the summit of the mountain between the Pelorus and Blind Bay to the summit of Mount Malan, and thence in a straight line to the head of the Bay of Islands, and thence by the Bay of Islands to the mouth of the River Wairarapa, and thence by the Wairarapa River to the mouth of the said river.

And the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council, doth hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, constitute the town of Peton, heretofore called Wairarapa, to be the capital of the said Province of Marlborough.

And doth declare that this Order shall take effect on the 11th day of November, 1860.

WILLIAM GIBBS, F. G. STEWARD,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
