Picton, July 3rd, 1862.

Section 2 of Education Act, 1861, is published for general information—

II. For raising the necessary funds for establishing and maintaining District National Schools, and for otherwise carrying out the provisions hereof, there shall be levied yearly, upon every householder in each district established under the authority of this act, a uniform rate of twenty shillings, and a further sum of five shillings for every child of such householder between the ages of 7 and 14 years: Provided always that no person shall be liable to pay for more than four children, nor for any child residing more than three miles from any school established under this act, nor for any child attending a school not established under this act, nor for any in respect of whom such person shall produce to the collector a certificate, signed by the teacher of such school, showing that such child has attended such school during the three months previous to the levying of the rate.

PROCLAMATION

By His Honour WILLIAM DOUGLAS HALL BAILLIE, Superintendent of the Province of Marlborough, in the Colony of New Zealand, &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Provincial Elections Act, 1858," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor of the Colony to delegate to the Superintendent of any province the power of appointing and removing Returning Officers, and also of appointing and establishing Polling Places for the Election of Superintendent or of Members of the Provincial Council of such province :

And whereas His Excellency Colonel Thomas Gore Browne, C.B., Governor of the said Colony, by warrant under his hand, bearing date the first day of October, 1861, did delegate to me the said William Douglas Hall Baillie, as Superintendent of the Province of Marlborough, the above recited powers.

Now, therefore, I, the said William Douglas Hall Baillie, do hereby appoint the following places to be Polling Places for the respective Provincial Electoral Districts hereinafter specified, as constituted by the "Provincial Council Enlargement Act, 1862," for the Election of Members of the Marlborough Provincial Council :—
