G. GREY, Governor.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Government House, at Wellington,
the fifth day of June, 1866.

Present:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "The Marine Board Act, 1863," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, to make such regulations as may be found necessary, respecting the anchoring and mooring of vessels in any port, the packing, landing, deposit, and removal of gunpowder, the erection of magazines for the safe keeping thereof, the watering and ballasting and discharging of ballast of or from vessels, and all other matters relating to the safe and commodious navigation of any port, harbour, or river, and the order and management of vessels resorting thereto; and for the purpose of giving effect to such regulations, to authorise the levying of Harbour Master's fees, not exceeding the rate specified in the Schedule to the said Act, and to impose any penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds for any offence against any provisions thereof:

Now therefore, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the above recited power and authority, doth hereby make the following Regulations for the Port of Havelock, within the Province of Marlborough, and doth order that the same shall come into operation and take effect from and after the fifth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

FORSTER GORING,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

PORT REGULATIONS.

1. No rubbish or filth is to be landed no any lands belonging to the Crown, except in such places as the Harbour Master may point out, under a penalty of any sum not exceeding five pounds.

2. No ballast, rubbish, gravel, earth, stone, filth, or glass, is to be thrown overboard from any vessel, boat, or otherwise, but is to be landed at any place the Harbour Master may direct, under a penalty of any sum not exceeding twenty pounds.

3. Vessels, unless specially permitted in writing by the Harbour Master, are prohibited from firing guns between the hours of sunset and sunrise, and on Sunday, (except in cases of distress,) under a penalty of any sum not exceeding five pounds.

4. Any person removing shingle, stone, shells, or any part of the soil above or below high-water mark, from any lands belonging to the Crown, without permission from the Harbour Master or in his absence, from the Superintendent, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds; and a rate of one shilling per ton may (at the discretion of the Superintendent) be charged for ballast removed from within the limits of the harbour.

5. All masters of vessels are desired to warn their officers and crews to be particularly careful in ballasting their vessels or loading their boats with ballast alongside any beach where they may have permission to take in ballast; all such masters shoaling the water alongside any beach, shall be liable to a fine of not less than five pounds nor more than ten pounds.
