PROCLAMATION.

By his Honor Arthur Penrose Seymour, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Marlborough, in the Colony of New Zealand, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Provincial Reserved Bills Act, 1858," it is provided that whenever any Bill shall have passed the Provincial Council of any Province, and shall have been reserved for the signification of the Governor's pleasure thereon, such Bill shall not have any force or authority within the said province until the Superintendent shall signify, either by speech or message to the Provincial Council, or by proclamation in the 'Government Gazette' of the said Province, that such Bill has been laid before the Governor, and that the Governor has assented to the same :

And whereas the following Bills intituled respectively—

"The Wairau West Compulsory Land Taking Act, 1870,"

"The Blenheim and Boulder Bank and Dashwood's Pass Compulsory Land Taking Act, 1870,"

"The Picton Wharf Leasing Act, 1870,"

"The Marlborough Acts Amendment Act, 1870,"

"The Wairau Bridge Act, 1870."

were passed by the Provincial Council of the Province of Marlborough, but were reserved for the signification of the Governor's pleasure thereon :

Now, therefore, I, ARTHUR PENROSE SEYMOUR, the Superintendent of the said Province of Marlborough, do hereby proclaim and declare that the above mentioned Bills having been duly laid before his Excellency the Governor, and the Governor having assented to the same, are under the provisions of the said recited Act of the General Assembly, in full force and authority within the Province of Marlborough from the date of this Proclamation :—

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Marlborough, at Blenheim, this twenty-sixth day of September one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

A. P. SEYMOUR,
Superintendent.

By his Honour's command,
JAMES BALFOUR WEMYSS,
Provincial Secretary.
