By his Honour ARTHUR PENROSE SEYMOUR, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Marlborough, in the Colony of New Zealand

IN pursuance of the powers delegated to me, under the authority of "The Diseased Cattle Act, 1861," and "The Diseased Cattle Act Amendment Act, 1865," by his Excellency the Governor in Council, on the 4th day of May, 1870, I, Arthur Penrose Seymour, the Superintendent of the Province of Marlborough, do hereby declare and proclaim that, on and after the Nineteenth day of September instant, the District of Kaikoura—that is to say, all the land which lies to the south of the River Clarence, in the said province, shall be deemed to be an infected district within the meaning of the said acts.

Given under my hand at Wellington, and issued under the seal of the Province of Marlborough, this Fourteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

A. P. SEYMOUR,
Superintendent.

By his Honour's command,
JAMES BALFOUR WEMYSS,
Provincial Secretary.

G. F. BOWEN, Governor.

WHEREAS by "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1870," it is among other things enacted that the Governor may, at the request of the Superintendent of any Province, from time to time make regulations (as therein mentioned) for the conduct of immigration under the said Act into such Province, and for the nomination of Immigrants by persons resident therein, and for the distribution of funds provided by the said Act for Immigration purposes, and for the introduction into and settlement in such Province of Immigrants, and for selling as special settlements for any such Immigrants any lands which he may acquire from any Province under the provisions therein contained, or any lands acquired under "The New Zealand Settlements Act, 1863," or the Acts amending the same, and for laying out and allotting any lands so acquired amongst any such Immigrants: And whereas the Honourable Arthur Penrose Seymour, the Superintendent of the Province of Marlborough, hath requested me, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, to make regulations under the provisions of the said Act as in and in manner hereinafter set forth.

Now therefore, I, Sir George Ferguson Bowen, the Governor of New Zealand, by virtue and in exercise of the powers and authorities conferred upon me by the forty-first section of "The Immigration and Public Works Act, 1870," and of all other powers and authorities enabling me in that behalf, and in compliance with the request of the said Superintendent, do hereby make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE INTRODUCTION OF IMMIGRANTS INTO THE PROVINCE OF MARLBOROUGH, ON THE NOMINATION OF PERSONS RESIDENT THEREIN.

1. The rate of passage has been fixed, until further notice, at £16 per statute adult—i.e., for each person of twelve years old and upwards.

2. Each applicant will be required to pay one-half of the above amount at the time of making the application. Children between the ages of one and twelve years will be berthed and provisioned as equal to half an adult, but only one-half of the payment for an adult will be charged, or £4 each. Infants in arms, under one year free. This rate being from London to Marlborough only, the cost of reaching London and proceeding up the country after arrival in Marlborough will have to be defrayed by the Immigrants themselves.

3. As a rule, no unmarried females can be provided with passages under the Regulations, except they accompany and are under the care of some specified relative or friend. Passages for unmarried females not so accompanied can only be granted subject to the Agent-General in London being able to make suitable provision for oversight during the voyage.

4. In the event of any Immigrants applied for declining to immigrate, whatever money may have been deposited with the Government will be returned so soon as the Agent-General in London shall have apprised the Government thereof; but in the event of any Immigrants applied for accepting the offer of a passage in a particular ship, and so, by failing to present themselves for embarkation at the time and place appointed by the Agent-General in London for the sailing of such ship, be left behind, the passage money and passages will be forfeited.

5. All the ships employed in this service will be under the provisions of the "Passenger Act."

6. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Agent-General in England will have power to refuse passages where the intending Immigrants are in ill health or in any way unfitted, according to his judgment, to undertake the voyage.

7. Applications for passages are to be addressed to the Provincial Secretary, Blenheim, in the following form, viz. :—

I, the undersigned, hereby apply for the passage to Marlborough, under the Regulations of 4th September, 1871, of
