AUCTIONEERS' LICENSE ORDINANCE.

In the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of
Her Majesty Queen Victoria.

SESSION II. No. 9.

ANALYSIS.

Preamble.

1. Ordinance Session II. No. 13, and Session III. No. 10, (Legislative Council) repealed.
2. No person to sell by auction without license.
3. Form of license.
4. Amount of Auctioneers' License.
5. List of Licensed Auctioneers to be published.
6. Hours of Business.
7. Penalty for selling by auction without license.
8. Non-production of license.
9. Penalty for selling at illegal hours.
10. Ordinance not to extend to Government Sales.
11. Commencement.

AN ORDINANCE to repeal all former Ordinances and Laws relating to the Licensing of Auctioneers, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof.

WHEREAS an Ordinance was enacted by the Governor and Legislative Council of New Zealand, Session II., No. XIII., entitled "An Ordinance for Licensing Auctioneers," and whereas an Ordinance was enacted by the Governor and Legislative Council of New Zealand, Session III., No. X., entitled "An Ordinance to amend an Ordinance for Licensing Auctioneers," and whereas it is expedient that the above-recited Ordinances, so far as the same relate to the Province of Otago, should be repealed, and other provision made in lieu thereof:

Be it therefore enacted by the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof as follows:

1. The above-recited Ordinances, so far as the same relate to the Province of Otago, shall be, and the same are hereby repealed.

2. No person shall, after the passing of this Ordinance, sell any estate, goods, or effects by way of Auction, or in any way whereby the highest bidder shall be deemed the purchaser, either by Public Sale or otherwise, unless he shall be duly licensed as hereinafter provided.

3. Every such license shall be in the form in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and every such license shall expire on the first day of May next ensuing after the date of such license.

4. Such license shall be issued by the Provincial Treasurer to any person who shall apply for the same on payment of the sum of £20.

5. The Provincial Treasurer shall, within ten days after the date of any such license, cause the name, place of abode, and calling of any person or persons to whom he shall have granted such license, to be advertised in a newspaper published in the Province of Otago.

6. No person so licensed shall exercise his business as an Auctioneer by any artificial light, or after the hour of five o'clock in the afternoon, from April to September inclusive, or after the hour of seven o'clock in the evening during the residue of the year.

7. If any person, not being duly licensed, shall sell any estate, goods, or effects by way of Auction or any way whereby the highest bidder shall be deemed the purchaser, either by Public Sale or otherwise, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of £50, to be recovered in a summary way.

8. In all proceedings against any person for having acted as an Auctioneer without license, such person, unless he shall produce his license, or bring other satisfactory proof of his having been licensed at the time at which the alleged offence shall have been committed, shall be deemed to have been unlicensed.

9. If any licensed Auctioneer shall exercise his business as an Auctioneer at any time or in any manner contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding the sum of £20, to be recovered in a summary way.

10. Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to any sale by order of His Excellency the Governor, or by order of His Honor the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, or any Collector or Sub-Collector of Customs, or by any Commissioner of Crown Lands, or to any sale of any vessel, or the apparel, or stores, or cargo of any vessel which may be taken and condemned as a lawful prize, and sold for the benefit of the captors.

11. This Ordinance shall come into force on the 26th day of April, 1855, and may be cited as the "Auctioneers' License Ordinance."

Passed the Provincial Council
this twenty-sixth day of April,
one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

FENCING ORDINANCE.

In the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of
Her Majesty Queen Victoria.

SESSION II. No. 10.

ANALYSIS.

Preamble.

1. Reciting Ordinances repealed.
2. Persons making dividing fence may make ditch, &c., on adjoining land.
3. Half the cost of dividing fence to be paid by occupier of adjoining land.
4. And to be recoverable in a summary way.
5. Half the cost of repairing dividing fence, &c., to be paid by adjoining occupier.
6. Limitation of amount to be recovered.
7. Fences described in the Schedule to be deemed sufficient fence.

AN ORDINANCE to repeal the Fencing Ordinance, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof.

WHEREAS an Ordinance was passed by the Legislative Council of New Zealand, Session VIII. No. 8, intitled "An Ordinance to encourage the Fencing of Land;" And whereas it is expedient that the said Ordinance be repealed and other provisions made in lieu thereof:

Be it therefore enacted by the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, as follows:—

1. The said recited Ordinance, so far as regards the said Province of Otago, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

2. It shall be lawful for the owner or occupier of any land in the Province of Otago, not being within the limits of any Town, in making a fence dividing his land from the land adjoining thereto, to make a ditch not exceeding four feet in width in such adjoining land, and to throw the soil taken therefrom upon his own land, to form a bank; and if any person making such dividing fence shall make the ditch upon his own land, it shall be lawful for him to make the bank and erect posts and rails upon such adjoining land: Provided always that it shall not be lawful to make any ditch or bank upon any such adjoining land, in any case where a hedge of live thorns may have been planted and kept in good and thriving condition thereon, so as to disturb or injure such hedge, without the consent of the owner or occupier of such land first had and obtained: Provided always that all fences along public roads shall have a ditch two feet deep, and not more than two feet wide along the roadside.

3. If any person shall heretofore have erected or made, or shall hereafter erect or make, any ditch, bank, or other sufficient fence, dividing his land from the land adjoining thereto, and the proprietor of the adjoining land or his tenant shall avail himself of such dividing fence or any part thereof, such proprietor or his tenant shall be liable to pay to the owner or occupier of the adjoining land, by whom such dividing fence was erected or made, the half of the value of so much of such dividing fence as shall be available as a fence to such adjoining land.

4. If any person liable to pay the half of the value of such fence as aforesaid shall not pay the same within two months, on demand made in writing by the person to whom the same shall be payable, the amount payable in respect of such fence shall be recoverable in a summary way before the Resident Magistrate or any two Justices of the Peace: Provided always that it shall be lawful for such Justices to direct the payment of the same either altogether or by instalments, and at such times as to the said Justices shall seem meet.

5. When any such dividing ditch, bank, or other fence shall require cleansing, or shall be out of repair, and shall become insufficient, the same shall be cleansed and repaired at the joint expense of the proprietors or occupiers of the adjoining land, and any proprietor or occupier of land adjoining such fence (having given notice in writing to the other occupier of the land divided by such fence, or to his or her agent in the said Province) may, on refusal or neglect of such last mentioned proprietor or occupier for the space of one month to contribute one half of such expense, cause the same to be cleansed and repaired and made a sufficient fence, and shall thereupon be entitled to recover from such adjoining proprietor or occupier one-half of the cost of cleansing or repairing such fence, in a summary way as aforesaid: Provided always, that the party making such repairs shall be bound to prove to the satisfaction of the Magistrate or Justices before whom any action is brought for the expense of such repairs that the sum expended and sought to be recovered was necessarily and properly expended.

6. Provided always that no greater sum shall be recovered under the provisions of this Ordinance, in respect of the making or repairing of any such fence, than the sum of ten shillings per chain in country districts, and twenty-five shillings per chain in the town of Dunedin.

7. In the construction of this Ordinance, the term "sufficient fence" shall be deemed and taken to include all fences of the description in the schedule hereunto annexed; and the word "tenant" shall be taken to include any person actually occupying any land, whether under or by virtue of a legal title thereto or otherwise.

Passed the Provincial Council
this twenty-sixth day of April,
one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five years.

ROBT. CHAPMAN,
Clerk of Council.

Assented to on behalf of the Governor,
at Dunedin, the ninth day of May,
one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

W. CARGILL,
Superintendent.

SCHEDULE.

1. A bank not less than four feet six inches high, substantially formed, with turf on both sides, and having a ditch not less than four and a half feet wide on each side of such bank.

2. Any Fence formed of posts and one or more rails or wires, and with or without a bank, the upper rail or wire being not less than four feet six inches high from the surface of the ground, the space or opening betwixt the upper rail or wire and that immediately below it not to be more than fourteen inches, the space betwixt the lower rail and the surface of the ground or bank being not more than ten inches, and all intermediate spaces being not more than one foot—the posts not being more for rails than nine feet apart, and for wires than seven feet apart—the posts to be not less than twelve square inches in thickness, and the rails if round not less than three inches distant, and if split not less than one and a half inches thick and four inches broad—the rails to be either firmly mortised in or double nailed, and the wires either passing through the posts or firmly fixed with staples.

3. Any paling fence of four and a half feet high with posts and two rails of the above dimensions, and having split or sawn timber not less than half an inch thick placed perpendicular and well nailed to both rails, there being not more than five inches of opening betwixt each perpendicular piece of timber.

4. A stone or brick wall, or thick set thorn or brier hedge, not less than four and a half feet high, or where deficient of that height if surmounted by a paling or wire fence such as above described, to the height of four feet six inches, and the lower rail of which being not higher than the top of the growing thorns or briars.

NOTICE.

THE following Footpaths, that is to say,—
Firstly—The Footpath commencing at the wooden bridge in Section No. 44, Block 16, Dunedin, along by and above high water mark to a point where the said footpath angles towards Leith Street, running through a portion of Sections Nos. 39 and 40, Block 22, and thence along Leith Street to the point where it reaches the Moat, opposite Section No. 55, Block 22.

And, Secondly—The Footpath from the wooden bridge, south end of Dunedin, on the road leading to Caversham, &c., along by and above high water mark to Section No. 8, Block 7, Town District, (Suburban) having been well and sufficiently made and completed for the use and accommodation of foot passengers, I, the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, in pursuance of the "Footpath Ordinance," passed in the year 1847, do hereby declare the same to be Public Footpaths within the meaning of the foresaid Ordinance.

Given under my hand at Government House, Dunedin, this twelfth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

W. CARGILL.

N.B.—By the "Footpath Ordinance" it is enacted that "If any person shall wilfully run, draw, or drive any truck, wheelbarrow, cart, or carriage whatsoever, or shall wilfully ride, lead, or drive any horse, or any horned or neat cattle, on any such public Footpath as aforesaid, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings, to be recovered in a summary way."

"If any person who shall be found running, drawing, or driving any truck, wheelbarrow, cart, or carriage, or who shall be found riding, leading, or driving any horse, or any horned or neat cattle, upon any such Footpath as aforesaid, shall continue so to do, after being warned to the contrary by any constable or other person, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of Five Pounds, to be recovered in a summary way."

NOTICE.

A PUBLIC MEETING will be held within the Council Hall, Dunedin, on Thursday, the 31st day of May current, to take measures for promoting contributions in the Province of Otago to the Patriotic Fund in behalf of the Widows and Orphans of British Sailors and Soldiers engaged in the war with Russia.

The Chair will be taken by the Sheriff,
A. C. Strode, Esq., at half-past 12 o'clock noon.
