THURSDAY, AUGUST 21, 1856.

[No. 42.]

Superintendent's Office,
Dunedin, 15th August 1856.

THE Executive Council, on behalf of his Honor the Superintendent, directs the re-publication of the following Proclamations and Notifications from the "New Zealand Government Gazette" of the respective dates after-mentioned.

By command,
JOHN LOGAN,
Clerk to Superintendent.

(From Gazette of 27th May 1856.)

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

WHEREAS it is expedient that that portion of the Province of Otago which comprises the lands known as Otakou, Kaikorai, Taieri, Mataau, and Te Karoro, and which piece or parcel of land is bounded on the north by the sea coast, from a point at Purehurehu, half a mile distant from the western head of the harbour of Otago to Otupa, and thence to Poatiri; on the east by the sea shore from Poatiri aforesaid to Tokata; on the south and south-west by the ridge of hills known as Taukoku to Pohuaroa; on the west by a line running along the summit of the Kaihiku range, then by a right line drawn from the northern extremity of the said line along the summit of the Kaihiku range known as Munga Atua, thence by a line running north-northeast along the summit of the said Munga Atua range to Waikari, thence by a line running along the summit of the hills, to the mountain known as Mihiwaka, and thence by a line along the summit of the hills, till it joins the said northern boundary at Purehurehu, should be divided into Hundreds.

Now therefore I, the Governor, do hereby proclaim and declare that the same be divided into eight Hundreds to be called respectively the hundred of Dunedin, the Hundred of East Taieri, the Hundred of West Taieri, the Hundred of Waihola, the Hundred of South Tokomairiro, the Hundred of North Tokomairiro, the Hundred of East Clutha, and the Hundred of West Clutha, the boundaries whereof respectively are hereinafter particularly described.

Description of the boundaries of the Hundred of "West Clutha":—

On the North-east by the Clutha River, on the East by the Hundred of East Clutha, on the South-west by a continuation of the right line forming the South-western Boundary of the Hundred of East Clutha, and on the West by the Western Boundary of Blocks 97 to 100, extending or produced Northward to the Clutha River, and Southward to the South-western Boundary.

Given under my hand and issued under the Public Seal of the Islands of New Zealand, at Auckland, this twenty-sixth day of May, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-six.

THOMAS GORE BROWNE,
Governor.

By His Excellency's command,
JOHN HALL,
Colonial Secretary.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Colonial Secretary's Office, Auckland,
May 27th, 1856.

HIS Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified that he has this day, with the advice of his Executive Council, given his assent to the "Otago Provincial Council Ordinance, 1856," reserved for such assent under the provisions of the Constitution Act.

By his Excellency's command,
JOHN HALL,
Colonial Secretary.

(From Gazette of 9th June, 1856.)

PROCLAMATION.

By His Honor William Cargill, Esquire, Superintendent of the Province of Otago in the Islands of New Zealand.

WHEREAS in the third Session of the Provincial Council of Otago held in the nineteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, an Ordinance was passed, intituled "the Provincial Council Ordinance, 1856," And Whereas the said Ordinance was presented to me for the assent of His Excellency the Governor of New Zealand on the 18th March, 1856, and was then reserved by me for His Excellency's assent or disallowance: And Whereas His Excellency has been pleased to assent to the said Ordinance;

Now I, the said William Cargill, Superintendent of the Province of Otago, do hereby proclaim that His Excellency Colonel Thomas Gore Browne, the Governor of New Zealand, has assented to the said Ordinance, and that I received the signification of His Excellency's assent on the 27th day of May, 1856.

Given under my hand at Auckland, in New Zealand, this 29th day of May, 1856.

W. CARGILL,
Superintendent.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency Colonel THOMAS GORE BROWNE, Companion of the most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, &c. &c.

WHEREAS by an Act made and enacted in the Parliament holden in the fifteen and sixteenth years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to grant a Representative Constitution to the Colony of New Zealand," it is amongst other things enacted, that whenever any Bill shall have been assented to by the Superintendent as in the said recited Act provided, the Superintendent shall forthwith transmit to the Governor an authentic copy thereof, and it shall be lawful for the Governor at any time within three months after any such Bill shall have been received by him, to declare by Proclamation his disallowance of such Bill, and that any such disallowance shall make void and annul the same from and after the day of the date of such Proclamation, or any subsequent day to be named therein.

AND WHEREAS an Ordinance hath been enacted by the Superintendent of the Province of Otago, with the advice and consent of the Provincial Council thereof, intituled, "Breach of Privilege Ordinance, 1856," and the said Ordinance was received by the Governor on the twenty-first day of April 1856.

AND WHEREAS it is expedient that the said recited Ordinance should be disallowed;

Now therefore I, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the authority vested in me in that behalf by the said recited Act of Parliament, do hereby proclaim and declare my disallowance of the said recited Ordinance.

Given under my hand and issued under the Public Seal of the Islands of New Zealand, at Auckland, in the Islands aforesaid, this fifth day of June, in the nineteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-six.

THOMAS GORE BROWNE,
Governor.
