WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1862.

[No. 207.]

PROCLAMATION

OF A PUBLIC POUND FOR THE NORTHERN PARTS OF DUNEDIN.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance "to authorise and regulate the Impounding of Cattle," passed by the Lieutenant-Governor and Legislative Council of New Zealand, it is enacted inter alia that it shall be lawful for His Excellency the Governor of New Zealand, when and as often as he may deem necessary, and at such places and for such districts as may appear convenient, to erect and maintain suitable premises to be established as Public Pounds, for the purposes of the said Ordinance: AND WHEREAS by virtue of the "Empowering Ordinance, 1854," passed by the Superintendent and Provincial Council of Otago, the powers conferred on the Governor in this behalf are, in so far as respects the Province of Otago, conferred on the Superintendent thereof.

AND WHEREAS it is necessary for the greater convenience of the Northern parts of Dunedin and neighbourhood that a Public Pound be erected at the place after-mentioned:

Now therefore, I, JOHN LARKINS CHEESE RICHARDSON, as Superintendent of the Province of Otago, and by virtue of the powers vested in me as aforesaid, do hereby proclaim and declare that allotment of land situated in the angle between Park-street and Regent Road a PUBLIC POUND, for the purposes of the aforesaid Impounding Ordinance.

Given under my hand at Dunedin, and issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Otago, this (L.S.) tenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

J. L. C. RICHARDSON,
Superintendent of the Province of Otago.

Dunedin, 15th September, 1862.

NEW ZEALAND MAIL STEAM SERVICES.

TENDERS are required by the Government of New Zealand for the performance of the undermentioned services:

1. A Steamer to leave Melbourne each month within 24 hours after the arrival of the European Mail contract boat, for Port Chalmers, Otago, calling at the Bluff: and thence calling at Lyttelton, Wellington, Picton and Nelson, to Sydney. To wait in Melbourne for the mail if detained for not more than four days after the due date. To remain in Port Chalmers three days; in Wellington, Lyttelton, and Nelson, two days each; and in Picton one day.

2. A Steamer to leave Sydney on or about the 1st of each month for Nelson, and thence calling at Picton, Wellington, Lyttelton, Port Chalmers, and the Bluff, carrying the Homeward Mail from the Colony to Melbourne. To be ready to leave Port Chalmers at 2 p.m. on the 18th of each month, except February, and then on the 16th.

The Steamers to be employed must be subject to the approval of the Government, and must be able to maintain an average speed of not less than 8 knots an hour on each voyage.

All Post Office Mails must be received on board and delivered to destination free of charge.

Mails to be taken from and delivered on board of the European Mail Contract Steamer in Hobson's Bay at the expense of the Contractor.

A free chief cabin passage must be at the service of a clerk or agent of the Post Office, on the requisition of the Government.

The tender to state the amount of penalty recoverable for general non-performance of contract: a penalty of £100 per diem will be required for delay, in departure after the time fixed on each voyage, and an additional penalty of £300 for failure, after such delay in delivering the Homeward Mail in Melbourne prior to the departure of the European Mail Contract Boat from that Port.

The tenders may state the sum for which the whole or any portion of the forementioned Services will be undertaken.

The Contract to commence on the 1st January, 1863, or on any earlier date that may be agreed upon, to continue for the term of twelve successive trips each way, and to be determinable after that time by six months notice on either side.

Tenders, marked—"Tenders for New Zealand Mail Services," to be addressed to the Postmaster-General of New Zealand, and to be posted in New Zealand not later than 15th October next.
