PROCLAMATION

Prohibiting the Importation of Cattle from Port Albert, in Gipps Land, into the Province of Otago.

By the Honorable JOHN HYDE HARRIS, Esquire, Superintendent of the said Province.

WHEREAS by section 9 of the "Disseased Cattle Act, 1861," passed by the General Assembly of New Zealand, it is enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to the Governor that any infectious or contagious disease has broken out in any district out of the Colony, it shall be lawful for the Governor, by order in Council, to declare that such district is infected within the meaning of the Act, and from time to time to make such regulations as to him shall seem fit for prohibiting the importation of cattle into the colony from such district, and the landing or driving of such cattle, and for destroying cattle imported, landed, or driven, contrary to such regulations. AND WHEREAS, by section 14 of the same Act, it is enacted, that the Governor in Council may, by warrant under his hand, from time to time, delegate to the Superintendent of any Province within the Colony, all or any of the powers vested in the Governor or Governor in Council by the said Act: AND WHEREAS the Governor in Council hath, by warrant under his hand, delegated to me, JOHN HYDE HARRIS, so long as I shall hold the office of Superintendent of the Province of Otago, the several powers vested in the Governor by the second, fourth, fifth, seventh, ninth, and tenth sections of the said Act: AND WHEREAS a Proclamation was issued by the Superintendent of the said Province of Otago, under the Public Seal of the said Province, upon the twentieth day of September last, admitting cattle from Port Albert, in Gipps Land, which it is expedient partially to rescind to the intent that this Proclamation may have full force and effect: AND WHEREAS it has been made to appear to me that a certain infectious or contagious disease has broken out amongst cattle in the District of Gipps Land aforesaid: Now therefore I the said JOHN HYDE HARRIS, by virtue of the powers vested in me in this behalf, do hereby rescind the aforesaid Proclamation of the 20th day of September, 1862, so far as relates to the exception therein contained in favor of Port Albert in Gipps Land, and do hereby proclaim and declare that from and after the date hereof, Port Albert in Gipps Land shall be deemed an infected District, place or port, within the meaning and for the purposes of the above-mentioned Act, and that no cattle from and after the date hereof, until further notice, shall be permitted to be imported into the Province of Otago from Port Albert in Gipps Land.

Given under my hand, and issued under the Public Seal of the Province of Otago, at (L.S.) Dunedin, this second day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

JOHN HYDE HARRIS,
Superintendent.

PROCLAMATION

Dividing the Southern District of Supreme Court and fixing times and places for Circuit Courts.

By His Excellency SIR GEORGE GREY, Knight Commander

of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Supreme Court Act, 1860," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council, from time to time, to divide the Colony into Judicial Districts for the purposes of the said Act, and the limits of such Districts from time to time to alter as occasion may require: and by the said Act it is further provided that the Governor in Council shall assign every such District to a Judge or Judges of the Supreme Court, who shall have within the same all the powers and jurisdiction by the said Act given to the Court: And it is further provided that there shall be held Circuit Courts for the dispatch of Civil and Criminal business of the Court before one of the Judges thereof, at such times and places as the Governor in Council may from time to time appoint: And whereas by a Proclamation dated the twenty-sixth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixty one, issued under the hand of Thomas Gore Browne, Esquire, then the Governor of the said Colony, and under the Public Seal thereof, the said Colony for the purposes of the said Act was divided into three Districts, called respectively the Northern District, the Middle District, and the Southern District, which Districts are particularly described in the said Proclamation, and in the said Proclamation the said Southern District was assigned unto Henry Barnes Gresson, Esquire, a Judge of the said Court, and certain times and places were appointed for holding Circuit Courts as aforesaid for the said Southern District: And whereas by a Proclamation made and issued as aforesaid, bearing date the sixth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, Circuit Courts were appointed to be held at Dunedin, in the said Southern District, on the days therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that a new District, under the said Act, should be formed by the division of the said Southern District into two Districts:

Now therefore I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of the said Colony, with the advice and consent of the Executive Council thereof, do hereby in pursuance and execution of the said Act, annul the said last recited Proclamation, and do revoke the said first recited Proclamation so far as concerns the said Southern District, and do hereby proclaim and declare that for the purposes of the said Act, that portion of the Colony which is situated to the South of the boundary line separating the Province of Canterbury from the Provinces of Nelson and Marlborough, shall be divided into two Districts, to be called respectively, the Canterbury District, and the Otago and Southland District, and that the Canterbury District shall comprise the said Province of Canterbury, and that the Otago and Southland District shall comprise all that portion of the Colony which lies to the South of the boundary line separating the said Province of Canterbury from the Province of Otago; and in further pursuance and execution of the said Act, I do hereby, with the advice and consent aforesaid, proclaim and declare that I assign the said Canterbury District unto the said Henry Barnes Gresson, Esquire, and the said Otago and Southland District unto Christopher William Richmond, Esquire, a Judge of the said Court, and that Circuit Courts shall be holden for the said Canterbury District at the Town of Christchurch, in the said Province of Canterbury, on the First day of March, the First day of June, the First day of September, and the First day of December in every year; and that for the said Otago and Southland District, at the Town of Dunedin in the Province of Otago on the First day of March, the First day of June, the First day of September, and the First day of December in every year; and at the Town of Invercargill, in the Province of Southland, on the Tenth day of January and the Tenth day of July in every year, or as soon after the said days respectively as conveniently may be, and in case any one of the said days so fixed as aforesaid shall happen to be a Sunday or a holiday, then the Court appointed for such day shall be holden on the day following: And with the advice and consent aforesaid, I do lastly proclaim and declare that this Proclamation shall come into operation and take effect on the First day of May next.

Given under my hand at New Plymouth, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand, this twenty-third day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

G. GREY.

By His Excellency's Command,
ALFRED DOMETT.
GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

(From New Zealand Gazette, May 12, 1863.)

A PROCLAMATION

Bringing into Operation the Colonial Defence Force Act, 1862.

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight Commander

of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "An Act for raising a Force for the internal Defence of the Colony," it is enacted that the said Act shall come into force on and after a day to be fixed by the Governor by Proclamation in the Government Gazette:

Now therefore I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the provisions of the said in part recited Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the aforesaid "Act for raising a Force for the internal Defence of the Colony," shall come into force on and after the date hereof.

Given under my hand, at New Plymouth, and issued under the Seal of the Colony of New Zealand this fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

G. GREY.

By His Excellency's command;

ALFRED DOMETT.

A PROCLAMATION

For the Naturalization of certain Persons

By His Excellency Sir GEORGE GREY, Knight Commander of the most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by "The Naturalization Act, 1862," it is enacted that every person who shall be declared to come within the operation of that Act by any Proclamation to be issued in that behalf by His Excellency the Governor, shall, as from the time in such Proclamation specified, be deemed and taken until the termination of the next Session of the General Assembly to be, and to have been from such specified time, a natural-born subject of Her Majesty, within the Colony of New Zealand, as fully to all intents and purposes as if his name had been inserted in the Schedule to that Act annexed. Provided always that every such Proclamation shall contain the description, occupation or calling of every person therein named, and his place of residence at the date of such Proclamation :

Now therefore I, Sir George Grey, the Governor of New Zealand, in pursuance of the power and authority in me vested by the said Act, do hereby proclaim and declare that the persons hereinafter mentioned shall come within the operation of the said Act from the dates hereinafter specified, viz:—
